A Note from the Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

We offer a special welcome to Fr. Dawit Tarfa, a priest of the Apostolic Vicariate of Nekemte, Ethiopia. He will be telling us about the missions in his native land. As requested by the Pontifical Mission Society, the second collection next weekend July 15/16 will be for Fr. Tarfa’s home diocese.

I am not trying to confuse you, but the Archdiocese did have a previously scheduled second collection for this weekend. The Mission collections depend on the individual schedule of each missionary and each parish. The second collection for this weekend is for the Campaign for Human Development. Here is the letter that Archbishop Chaput requested be communicated.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As last year drew to a close and most people focused on the coming Christmas holiday, Pope Francis addressed all those blessed with an abundance of this world’s goods. He said, “Our world today is marked by great unrest. Inequality between peoples continues to rise, and many communities are impacted.... People want to make their voices heard and express their concerns and fears. They want to make their rightful contribution to their local communities and broader society, and to benefit from the resources and development too often reserved for the few.”

Our Holy Father is highlighting the fact that amid plenty, there still sadly exists poverty. Many of our own cities provide vivid examples of the contrast between those “on the inside” of economic growth and those “left out of the mix.” The poor are sliding backwards, often feeling as though the hope for a better day is eluding them. It is hard for us to imagine the challenges that so many of the disadvantaged face right from the start. The cycle of poverty is fueled by poor education, inadequate health care, traumatic family situations, lack of good role models, and limited job opportunities that can provide a living wage. Yet as the Pope reminds us, the poor don’t want to stay in such dire situations; they want to be heard and to make their rightful contribution toward society. As Catholics, we are called to help promote opportunities for all people to live in conditions worthy of their inherent dignity. For nearly half a century, the Catholic Campaign for Human Development has been a concrete expression of the Church’s solidarity with the poor right here in our country. By funding community organizations working amid pockets of poverty, CCHD has proved to be an effective instrument of human development. Composed primarily of low-income people, these community groups engage the poor to actively participate in organized efforts that address the root causes of poverty. Larger projects are funded with national-level grants, while smaller efforts receive more modest funding at the local level.

Each year the U.S. Catholic bishops sponsor a nationwide CCHD collection in support of the Church's efforts to reduce poverty through these grassroots efforts. In the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, the annual collection will take place on the weekend of July 8th and 9th. Your contribution to the Catholic Campaign for Human Development will assist in breaking the cycle of poverty. I urge you to support this collection generously and ask God's blessing upon you for your generous response to this year's appeal. Gratefully and with best wishes in Jesus Christ,

+Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.

God Bless you,
Fr. Bordonaro

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.” — Matthew 11:28

A Humble King

Like a tonal center in music, the note to which we keep returning in today's readings is humility. We wait in joyful expectation for the coming of our Lord as King. But what we are told to expect and rejoice over is a meek and humble king, riding on an ass. Not horses or chariots of the great and mighty, but a humble beast carries the Ruler whose dominion stretches “from the River to the ends of the earth” (Zechariah 9:10). This King comes to banish the tools of the warrior and bring peace. No wonder that a weary world rejoices and gives thanks to God!

I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God (Psalm 145).

Don't take a vacation from your faith!

Pick up a book, booklet, CD, rosary, or Bible at our Catholic

Resource Center to nourish your spirit this summer. It's easy to pop in an inspirational CD as you drive to the shore. Listen to one of the new titles from dynamic speaker Damon Owens, a father of eight who is known for teaching Saint John Paul II's

Theology of the Body, and on marriage and family. We also have an updated version of the Divine Mercy Chaplet in song and booklets to aid the "empty-nester."

As requested by several parishioners, you'll find the Matthew Kelly book Resisting Happiness to help you conquer that sluggishness and procrastination that can block your path to greater happiness. Thank you for your continued donations so that we can bring new titles to our parish from www.StewardshipMission.org.
