A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,
 On behalf of Msgr. Bolger, Fr. Connors, Msgr. McCoy, myself, and all those who minister and work here at St. Joseph parish I want to wish all of you and your loved ones a very Blessed Easter. This will no doubt be a very different Easter for all of us, because we are separated because of the coronavirus. For me, celebrating Easter Mass without a congregation and I'm sure for you, celebrating Easter without attending Mass and receiving the Eucharist, feels like Easter without Resurrection. But we know that Jesus is risen. We have faith that He is with us in this crisis and that He will see us through it. So I invite you to try to rejoice, even if you don't feel like it.

It is important that we remember on as many levels available how much God loves us, and what He in His mercy has offered to us. That is why we offered the Blessed Palm last week. It was just a simple small thing, and some questioned why do it, but once we got the OK from the police chief, and worked out a plan to reasonably be able to give it out, we thought it was important to keep people somehow connected to their faith. Certainly a blessed object such as a palm branch is nowhere near as sacred or holy or important as being able to receive Our Lord in the Holy Eucharist, but when prevented from that because of circumstances, it is important to renew ourselves in other ways. Also, some people unfortunately only come to Mass once or twice a year to get palm and ashes. At least those people on the fringe of our faith get an opportunity to stay connected, even in some small way, to God.

So in our own way and in a very new way, we rejoice that Jesus Christ is risen, and that we are also invited to participate in His resurrection through His Church and the Holy Spirit. Jesus remained faithful to God the Father, even when things were at their bleakest. He believed what God had promised, and God found a way. Today we rejoice because Jesus is the way that God found to bring us back from the death of our sins. We have hope because of Him. So we can truly rejoice that Jesus is alive and that He has forever changed our future. HAPPY EASTER!

On a personal note I am grateful to all those who helped with the video/audio presentations of Holy Week, including the Mass of the Lord's Supper, the Solemn Commemoration of the Lord's Passion, and the Easter Vigil. This includes the ministers, videographers, internet specialists, and musicians. Special thanks also to those who continue to support St. Joseph with whatever donations you are able to make.

If you have not yet returned your Rice Bowls, the safest thing to do would be to write a check to St. Joseph, noting in the memo Rice Bowl, or Catholic Relief Services and mail it to the rectory, or drop it in the secure mail slot of the rectory front door. We will be forwarding those donations to Catholic Relief Services.

I wish to express my gratitude to you, the people of St. Joseph parish. I am most grateful for your prayers and support. I hope that you and your families experience the renewal of grace offered in Jesus' saving sacrifice.

God Bless You,
Fr. Bordonaro

The Easter Octave

Sunday, April 5 -
Sunday, April 12, 2020

Eastertime lasts fifty days: seven weeks of seven days (seven equals Biblical perfection) plus one day: perfection plus!

Like an eight-day Jewish wedding, or a child who can't bear to let go of Christmas, birthdays, and school vacation, the Church celebrates the Easter Octave: "the marriage of heaven and earth," as the Vigil calls Jesus' resurrection; our new members' baptismal rebirth; our renewal of baptismal vows; our hearts' "divine vacation" (Latin vacare, "to be empty"), newfound time and space for love of God and neighbor. Make home an Easter garden! Adorn the dining table with a pillar candle (your "paschal candle"), a bowl full of water (ideally, from the parish's baptismal font), a vase of flowers or bowl of sprouting grain with Easter eggs. Even non-singers can handle the three-fold Gospel Alleluia! Let that be your grace before meals, perhaps with a prayer recalling Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35): "Be known to us, Risen Lord Jesus, as you were to the first disciples, in your word, in the breaking of bread, and in everyone we meet."

Spiritual Resources During The Coronavirus Restrictions

During these difficult days, the Lord always remains close to us and provides us ways to receive His grace even when we cannot attend Mass in person. Visit our Archdiocesan Spiritual Resources page to find many excellent resources to nourish you spiritually and help you remain as close as possible to Jesus in the Eucharist during this time.

Find a list of live-streamed Masses, online devotions, prayer services, faith formation, ways to help and more at <http://archphila.org/resources/>.

Christ Has Risen

Where is your sting, O death? Where is your victory, O hell? Christ has risen, and you are overthrown. Christ has risen, and the demons have fallen. Christ has risen, and the angels rejoice. Christ has risen, and life reigns. Christ has risen, and not one dead rests in the grave. For Christ having risen from the dead became the first-fruits of them that slept. To him be glory and majesty to ages of ages. Amen.

Seeds of Faith

There is a brevity, a certain terseness, in the scripture readings for Easter Sunday. Peter’s speech in Acts is built of direct, pointed sentences. Paul’s letters are based on straightforward creed-like statements. Even the Gospel story only briefly recounts what will turn out to be one of the most remarkable events in human history—the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Advertising agents call these encapsulated points of information “bullet points.” Scripture scholars call them kerygmata, or “kernels” of our faith. Actually, “kernels” or “seeds” are good terms for these statements, since throughout the Easter season, we will hear in the Acts of the Apostles, the Letters of Paul, and the Gospel accounts of the days following the Resurrection exactly how these kerygmata began to flower, how they continued to grow through the life of the early church. May these Easter “seeds” of faith serve a similar purpose for us, too, so that the life of the Risen Christ will flourish in us and through our witness in the coming days.
