SEVENTH SUNDAY OF

Easter

MAY 16, 2021

As you sent me into the world,
so I sent them into the world.

John 17:18

GOD'S HOLY ORDER

There is a certain, sacred order to the way God envisions our place in the world. We are created in love, for love. As disciples of Jesus Christ, God's love is at the heart of all we are, have, and do. Peter was concerned that this holy order be restored following Judas' betrayal of Jesus. Jesus' selection of twelve apostles was significant for the Jewish people, a harkening to the twelve tribes of Israel. In prayerfully discerning Matthias as the twelfth apostle, the brothers made certain that God's holy order would prevail. Their witness ensured that Christ's love would be shared and embraced to all the world and throughout all time.

KEEPING THE BIG PICTURE IN MIND

As we near the end of the Easter season, the readings lead us to keep the big picture of Christ's Paschal Mystery—Jesus' life and ministry, passion, death, and resurrection—and the impact it is to have in our lives at the center of all that we are and do. We who have been drawn to Christ through baptism are called to take on the mind, heart, and life of our Lord. Jesus, who is God's love incarnate, shows us the extent of God's love and calls us to live this love in the world. We live in the world but do not belong to it. Ultimately, we belong to God. When we show love, especially when we sacrifice for the sake of another, we share in Christ's saving love, building a bridge between God and humanity in Christ's name.

MADE SACRED IN TRUTH

Jesus prayed to God the Father about his disciples, "Consecrate them in the truth." To consecrate is to make holy. Jesus asks God to make us holy in the truth of God's love which is poured upon us through the Holy Spirit. Think about this: we call the moment in which the bread and wine at Mass become the Body and Blood of Christ the consecration. The bread and wine are transformed and made sacred, holy. Remember, too, that as the gifts are brought forward for consecration, we join our lives, gifts, and resources in prayer, asking God to bless us, to consecrate us as well. In baptism, we are consecrated—we are set apart in Christ's love. Knowing this should make a difference in the way we live our lives. Our consecration should be the benchmark for our attitudes and actions, the choices and decisions we make each day. What does it mean to you to be consecrated, to be called to holiness? How does this affect the way you live?

TODAY'S READINGS

Acts 1:15–17, 20a, 20c–26
Psalm 103:1–2, 11–12, 19–20
1 John 4:11–16
John 17:11b–19

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,
 This weekend the Archdiocese of Philadelphia is asking that we have the “in-pew” portion of the 2021 Catholic Charities Appeal. In your pews today are pledge cards for this campaign. In case you misplaced your pledge card you can fill out one of these and send it in. Archbishop Perez said in his letter:

The Catholic Charities Appeal of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia is our single largest fundraising initiative each year. Through this Appeal, we support over 180 separate charities that bring hope to every community in our diocese. Each neighborhood and street in our region is impacted positively by it and the Appeal needs you now more than ever before.

In the face of ongoing uncertainty, CCA gives hope and provides essential social services like meals for families, diapers for mothers, emergency rent assistance, and countless other modes of assistance. The work supported by the appeal is vital. It changes and saves lives each day. However, we can't continue doing it without your generosity.

I want to thank you for your continued support of St. Joseph parish in these very difficult and trying times. If you are able to contribute to the Catholic Charities Appeal, I know it is very effective at helping those in need. To date, St. Joseph parishioners have contributed $20,857 to the 2021 campaign which is 54 % of the goal that the Archdiocese set for us.

This Saturday, May 16th Archbishop Perez ordained 2 men to the priesthood for our Archdiocese. They are Fr. Ken Cavara, and Fr. Mark Tobin. Please pray for them as they assume their first assignments. It is also a good idea to pray for all priests at this time, as this is the time when many of the priest changes are announced. While we rejoice and celebrate the ordination of these two men, clearly we need more priests. Please pray for vocations. We are in serious need. It is a good idea to encourage young men you know to consider if they are being called to the priesthood. For more information about the Diocesan Priesthood in Philadelphia, visit www.heedthecall.org.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, religious and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Reflect on the Readings

OUR MINISTRY IN THE CHURCH

It is a seemingly small point, but one that is important to remember as we reflect on ministry during these days preceding the descent of the Spirit, to notice that the place of Judas among the apostles was refilled because of his betrayal, not because of his death. He was, according to Peter, “allotted a share in this ministry.” It is, then, betrayal of the mission and not merely death that leaves a void in the fabric of the church’s mission. We forget that in the minds of the other apostles, Judas still would have been numbered in the company of the Twelve when Jesus prayed the prayer we hear today: praying that, as they were sent into the world, they would be consecrated in the truth. It is difficult for us to comprehend that Jesus knelt to wash the feet of Judas. These are powerful and significant lessons for us to call to mind and keep in our hearts as we ponder the place of our particular ministry in the Church and the world, if we are remaining faithful to it, consecrated to the truth.

2021 Catholic Women’s Conference

Join us for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia Catholic Women’s Conference on Saturday, October 23, 2021. CWC2021 will be a highly modified version of our usual event due to continued pandemic limitations. This year, Catholic women are invited to attend one, 2-hour, in-person mini-conference – morning or afternoon – and then enjoy four video talks at home at your leisure. Theme: “Strong and Beautiful”; Morning keynote by Lisa Brenninkmeyer, Afternoon keynote by Mother Clare Matthias, CFR; Location: National Shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa, Doylestown, PA; These events are expected to sell out, please register early. For full details and registration, visit catholicwomensconference.org.

Feast Of Faith      *The General Intercessions

The general intercessions were restored to the liturgy in the reforms that followed the Second Vatican Council. In these prayers—also known as the “universal prayer” or “prayer of the faithful”—the assembly prays for the Church, the world, and the local community. As the name “prayer of the faithful” reminds us, these intercessions are a privilege of the baptized, which is why any catechumens are dismissed before the Creed and the intercessions. In baptism, we become members of a royal priesthood, and what do priests do? They intercede; they pray. In standing to pray to God as a community, we are living out our royal priesthood.

The intercessions at Mass usually follow a clear pattern, moving from general to specific needs. We pray for the whole Church. We pray for the world and for our nation. We pray for our local community, for those who have died and for all the sick and afflicted. In our united prayer, we reach beyond ourselves and our own needs and grow in awareness of and compassion for the needs of others.

Monthly Food Drive

The next Food Drive is scheduled for June 5th & 6th. Items will be collected through June 8th. Non-perishables only. Items needed now include Coffee (regular or instant), Parmesan Cheese, Cake Mix or Brownie Mix, Vegetable or Cooking Oil, Tuna or Hamburger Helper, Canned Chili or Meats, Ketchup, Mustard, Instant Ramen Noodles. We collected and donated $1,138 pounds of food in May. Without your support it would not be possible to help those in desperate need.

Calling All Historians

In preparation for St. Joseph Parish’s 100th Anniversary, June 2022, we invite all parishioners to dig through their memories and keepsakes to recount significant past church milestones; e.g., pastors, church, schools, celebrations. If you have booklets, news clippings, photos, or just want to write a note, please drop them off in the Rectory mail slot. Make sure to indicate “for St. Joseph’s 100 Anniversary,” and include your name and phone number so the item(s) can be returned. If you just want to talk and tell me your story, call Rosemary Hronchak at 215-672-5739.

Treasures from Our Tradition

In medieval times, one country, Scotland, linked its economy to the liturgy. Four holy days of the church calendar were keyed to the legal year. On these days, rents were due, clergy and servants were paid, and contracts and leases would begin or end. The term days were Pentecost (called Whitsunday), the Feast of Saint Martin on November 11 (Martinmas), the Feast of the Presentation on February 2 (Candlemas), and August 2 (Lammas), a harvest festival. On Lammas day, the first loaf of bread from the summer wheat harvest was given to the village priest. After the Reformation, which swept the Catholic festivals away, the term days were gradually detached from the old feasts. It was only in 1990 that the term days were anchored on the 28th of February, May, August, and November. Today the old Scottish universities are the last hold-outs, still naming their terms or semesters after the old festivals. Scottish students today may not know about the liturgical year, but they still call the fall term Martinmas, and the spring session Candlemas.
