A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,
 In two weeks we will welcome Fr. Chacko to speak to us about the Missions in the Diocese of Diocese of Pathanamthitta, India. Fr. Chacko will preach all the Masses that weekend and the second collection taken up at that Mass will be to support the Diocese of Pathanamthitta, through the Pontifical Mission Society.

The Bishop of the Diocese of Pathanamthitta, submitted the following to help understand what is happening in his Diocese.

God Bless you, Fr. Bordonaro

The Diocese of Pathanamthitta is just 11 years old and it tries to give the Gospel of Our Lord to the 45,000 faithful of the Diocese and 1,500,000 inhabitants of the county of Pathanamthitta. Altogether we have 107 priests in the diocese and some of them are retired from active ministry due to their old age and some of our young priests are studying in India and abroad. Right now we have 65 priests in active ministry in mission churches and different institutions. And we do have a total number of 56 seminarians studying in various seminaries, from 1st year to the 12th year of formation to priesthood. Their parents are financially not well off to support them to provide their basic needs in the seminary. So, it is the responsibility of the Diocese to provide all their basic needs during their formation of 12 years. The Diocese do not have a dependable source of income to provide the salary of the priests, missionaries, catechists and the basic needs of the seminarians, such as food, medical insurance, study materials, tuition fee, etc...

Our primary concentration is in reviving and consolidating the spiritual renewal of the faithful through separate prayer groups formed for men, women and youth. We have 100 mission stations/ churches in the new Diocese. They are all very spiritual, attentive to Catholic faith and sound moral conduct. We have given special emphasis in forming BCC (Basic Christian Communities), mother's forum, corner prayers, forming youth group (Malankara Catholic Youth Movement), teaching catechism to the children up to 12th grade in all the mission churches. We do have almost 4,200 children studying in catechism classes from 1st year to 12th. We have made arrangements in each church to provide regular classes to the children on Sunday's after the Holy Mass.

We give great priority in assisting the poorest of the poor through Self-Help-Groups (SHG) of women to eradicate poverty and strengthen cultural and social setup. SHG's provide support in organic farming, poultry farming, goat rearing and growing more trees for environmental protection by providing trees-umbrella-cover for the Earth. This year because of this particular situation of the Covid-19, we have prepared 350 food packets and distributed them to the poor people every month from June 2020 to till now.

Bulletin Submittals

Please submit your requests to the Rectory. Requests may be emailed to sjc18976@verizon.net. We welcome your bulletin requests; however, all requests are subject to Pastor's approval and space availability.

Masses for 2021 are still available. Call the office at 215-672-3020 for details on how you can reserve a Mass.

Though our Diocese is in the infant stage, we give special emphasis to provide care for Autistic children, mentally sick men and women, and old age homes for the homeless people. We provide them food, accommodation, medical, cloth, transportation, etc... We have also a special program to support the poor people who cannot provide the expenses to go to the hospitals for dialysis every other day. I try to help some of them providing partial help to go to the hospital for treatment. The financial help you are giving from the Mission Appeal is totally used for all these ministries in our Diocese.

Please do find herewith some photographs of our mission activities in the Diocese. It will give you a clear idea of our ministry here. I sincerely thank you and all the parishioners of your Archdiocese for your great concern and valuable support giving to these most deserving needs of our mission church. God bless you all. With best wishes and kind prayers,

Yours Sincerely in Our Lord,
Most Rev. Dr. Samuel Mar Irenios
Bishop of Pathanamthitta

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary
August 15, 2021

Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.

— Luke 1:42

Reflect on the Readings

THE DESTINY OF ALL MORTAL FLESH

The celebration of today's feast on a Sunday is unusual on our Roman Catholic calendar. Our observance of the Lord's Day is held in such high esteem that few other feasts replace it. Occasionally there is a feast—usually of one of the saints—in which the saving power of God in Christ is so uniquely focused that the Roman rite deems it worthy of celebration on the Lord's Day. Today is such a feast. Yet some are surprised at the brevity of the dogma in its entirety: "We pronounce, declare and define it to be a divinely revealed dogma: that the Immaculate Mother of God, the ever Virgin Mary having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul to heavenly glory." The Roman Catholic Church never defined any specifics or particulars about the event itself. It is not in the scriptures. There are no verifiable eyewitness accounts. At its core, the dogma reveals in Mary the destiny of all mortal flesh, and reinforces our creedal belief in resurrection of the body. This feast strengthens our faith, defined last week in Hebrews as the realization of things hoped for. We find, in Mary, that realization of what we all hope for, what Paul today affirms: "In Christ shall all be brought to life" (1 Corinthians 15:22).

Online Giving

Looking for a Grant Writer

I have heard that churches and other places where the community gathers are able to apply for government grants to refurbish and update their facilities. I am interested in exploring this possibility for St. Joseph so that we could renovate/update our (old) classrooms/meeting rooms and windows. This could be a tremendous help to our parish and the community. If you know how to, have any experience with, or are interested in learning to write for grants, please contact Fr. Bordonaro at 215-672-3020 or Fr.Bordonaro@verizon.net.

Calling All Historians

In preparation for St. Joseph Parish's 100th Anniversary, June 2022, we invite all parishioners to dig through their memories and keepsakes to recount significant past church milestones; e.g., pastors, church, schools, celebrations. If you have booklets, news clippings, photos, or just want to write a note, please drop them off in the Rectory mail slot. Make sure to indicate "for St. Joseph's 100 Anniversary," and include your name and phone number so the item(s) can be returned. If you just want to talk and tell me your story, call Rosemary Hronchak at 215-672-5739.

Feast Of Faith The Shape of the Eucharistic Prayer

Our Eucharistic Prayers originated in the traditional Jewish meal prayers known as berakah, which were prayers of thanksgiving used at meals. Over the centuries, the Christian thanksgiving, or Eucharist, gradually took shape. While in the East the Eucharistic Prayers (called anaphora) took many forms, in the Roman Church there was for many centuries just one Eucharistic Prayer, called the Roman Canon (now known as Eucharistic Prayer I). Almost all Eucharistic Prayers include the same basic elements. They begin with thanksgiving and acclamation. Then there is an epiclesis, as the priest calls down the Holy Spirit upon the gifts. Then follows the institution narrative and consecration, as the words that Jesus spoke at the Last Supper are repeated. After the consecration, we remember in an explicit way all that Christ has done for us—this is the anamnesis, or remembering. The prayer concludes with the offering, the intercessions—prayers for the Church, our leaders, ourselves—and a final doxology of praise. The reforms of the Second Vatican Council enriched our liturgy with additional Eucharistic Prayers, including both ancient texts (Eucharistic Prayer II is based on the most ancient of all existing Eucharistic Prayers) and new compositions.

2021 Catholic Women’s Conference

Join us for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia Catholic Women’s Conference on Saturday, October 23, 2021. CWC2021 will be a highly modified version of our usual event due to continued pandemic limitations. This year, Catholic women are invited to attend one, 2-hour, in-person mini-conference – morning or afternoon – and then enjoy four video talks at home at your leisure. Theme: “Strong and Beautiful”; Morning keynote by Lisa Brenninkmeyer, Afternoon keynote by Mother Clare Matthias, CFR; Location: National Shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa, Doylestown, PA; These events are expected to sell out, please register early. For full details and registration, visit catholicwomensconference.org.

Treasures from Our Tradition

The roots of today’s feast of the Assumption can be traced back at least to the fifth century, when it is noted in the Armenian lectionary. Celebrated in Jerusalem, the feast in honor of the Theotokos, the Mother of God, became the principal feast of Mary throughout the Christian world. The place of celebration was at the tomb of Mary in Gethsemane and was therefore known as the “Dormition of Mary.” In some cultures this feast is celebrated today with a resting statue of Mary, much like a wake service of modern times.

The liturgy of this feast provides images of “the place of your rest” in Psalm 132, and reverence for the Ark of the Covenant that held the signs of the Promise. Like that Ark, Mary is for us the ark of the Savior, the one who bore the Son of God. When the doctrine of the Assumption was defined in 1950 the Gospel reading for the feast was changed to include the verses of Mary’s song, the Magnificat. The scripture readings for both the vigil Mass and the Mass of the day speak to us of life after death as well as the path to be followed in order to reach it. The key to this promised immortality is found as we take to heart the words of the vigil’s Gospel, “Blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it.”
