A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

A number of parishioners have contacted me to tell me how much they are enjoying all of the content on FORMED. This is the online platform that the parish registered with recently. Access is completely free to all parishioners. It is very easy to sign-up. Simply go to www.formed.org, click sign up, enter our parish zip code (18976) and then click on St. Joseph Parish. Enter your e-mail address and you are in. I strongly encourage you to sign up and have fun exploring. It is a beautiful way to enhance your faith.

This weekend the Archdiocese of Philadelphia is also focusing on evangelizing and strengthening the faith. This weekend we are kicking off the annual St. Charles Seminary Appeal. A donation to the Appeal supports our seminarians, candidates for the Permanent Diaconate and lay church leaders in their formation. Most importantly, your gift provides for the future of our faith. Please prayerfully consider a gift to this year's Appeal to provide for future generations of the Church. For more information you can visit www.stcharlesseminaryappeal.org. You can also view the Seminary Appeal video on our parish website.

God Bless you,
Fr. Bordonaro

Auxiliary Bishop, and Seminary Rector Bishop Timothy Senior has written the following letter for this Appeal:

Dear Friends,

The spirit of Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary is vibrant and alive. Our seminarians' constant devotion in answering God's call to serve is impactful for our faithful Catholic community. Despite a global pandemic and its lingering effects, our seminarians and students continue to find ways to flourish in their discernment journey. The seminary maintains its mission deeply rooted in forming servant leaders after the Heart of Jesus Christ.

As we move forward with plans to relocate to Lower Gwynedd, on property purchased from Gwynedd Mercy University, the seminary continues to concentrate on its core mission. With a focus on all four dimensions of formation – human, spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral – our programs form priests, deacons and lay leaders who will be missionary disciples after the Heart of Jesus Christ. Our seminarians, deacon candidates and students, together with our generous supporters, truly define the seminary. Saint Charles continues to be For today. For tomorrow. For all of us.

Please prayerfully consider making a gift today to this year's Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary Appeal. Your generosity will assist us in upholding the seminary's strong tradition of excellence. Our seminarians and students share their stories with you to show the impact of your contribution. (Continued on page 4...)

Without you, none of this would be possible.
 On behalf of our incredible community of seminarians and students, thank you for your support of Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary. Please know that you and your loved ones are remembered in our daily Masses and prayers. May God bless you.
 Sincerely in Christ,
 Most Reverend Timothy C. Senior
 Rector

Reflect on the Readings THE POOR

As Christians, we hear a lot about the witness and service that we are called to render to the poor among us. However, the poor also have a witness and a service to render to us. Like the actions of the widow in today’s Gospel, the openness and generosity of many of those who are poor, even in the midst of their own poverty, bear witness to the fact that, ultimately, we can depend only on God. Giving one’s all witnesses that God will give all to anyone who trusts in divine goodness. The poor or disadvantaged also serve. They serve judgment on our individual and corporate ways of acting. If people are sleeping in our streets, that is a judgment on our priorities regarding others. At the same time, the poor can act as mediators of salvation. When they care for others they can redeem our indifference and insensibility, lead us to care as well, and save us from ourselves. -Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Pro Life Baby Bottle Campaign

 Please return all bottles/donations this weekend, November 6th & 7th. All checks should be made payable to the Pro Life Union.

HOPE Committee

We would like to thank you for donations of diapers and baby wipes. The need is great and those who receive your gifts are very grateful for your generosity.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Veterans Day began with the signing of a symbolic treaty between the Allies and Germany ending World War I (then called the “Great War”) on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. The auspicious date was actually a well-established religious holiday, the feast of Saint Martin of Tours, a beloved soldier saint of the army of Rome. After World War II, Armistice Day was changed to Veterans Day in the United States and Remembrance Day in Britain, but of course the feast of Saint Martin endures.

Martin was named after Mars, the god of war, and against the advice of his parents he went on his own to church. He became a catechumen at the age of ten. By fifteen he was enlisted in the cavalry in France. Coming across a poor man, Martin had an impulse to divide his bright red soldier’s cape and clothe him. He later had the insight that he had served Christ, and the other half of his cape became a lifelong sign to him of his duty to serve the poor. Housed in a tiny church capella or “chapel,” the cape became a great object of pilgrimage on the way to Compostela, and a favored place for the prayers of soldiers. Martin was not so eager to serve as bishop as he had been as a soldier, and legend says that he hid in a barn filled with geese to avoid episcopal election. To this day, the customary meal for November 11 is goose! Traditionally, this is the last feast day before winter closes in, and begins a period of fasting once known as “Saint Martin’s Lent” or “Martinmas,” that later developed into the season of Advent. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Feast Of Faith

Concluding Rites

The Prayer after Communion gives us a glimpse of the heavenly banquet, of which we have had a foretaste in the Eucharist. The concluding rites speak of what we are to do with this great gift of God. That includes the parish announcements, which are usually given following the Prayer after Communion. Believe it or not, the announcements, which are not an “official” part of the Mass, have been included in the Mass from as early as the fifth century! The deacon or the homilist—even the bishop—would announce coming liturgical celebrations and encourage the people to participate. Today’s parish announcements include opportunities for prayer, service, learning, and community building. They should be succinct and should include only significant events and activities in the life of the parish. But even when they are long and tedious, the announcements (and the parish bulletin) flow out of the concluding rites of the Mass. They offer us ways to live the Eucharist, to become what we have received—the Body of Christ, living and active in our local community. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
