A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

Our 2022 Parish calendars are available at the Church exits, please take one home with you. The beautiful calendars are gifts from the Louis Swift Plunkett Funeral Home in Hatboro. Thank you to Mr. Jeff Plunkett for this annual gift. If you know a parishioner who has not yet returned to our celebration of public Mass, please consider bringing them a calendar.

I am happy to report that we completely filled all the time slots for the two photography days allotted to us for our Anniversary Photo Directory (Friday and Saturday of this week). The company has now added a third day, Thursday November 18th for additional family portraits. Please go to our parish website or call the rectory to schedule your time. If you are unable to have your photo taken, you can submit a photo to be included in the directory for a fee of $10. This will also entitle you to receive a copy of the Anniversary Directory.

This is the time of year that we would normally have our St. Joseph/St. Robert School Open House. Of course, with the Coronavirus most everything is still different. While not offering a communal Open House, our school is offering private family tours – please call the school to schedule one. Registration is also underway for Pre-K 4 through Eighth Grade for the 2022-2023 school year. Please contact the school at 215-343-5100 or go to www.stjstr.org.

This year we will celebrate Mass on Thanksgiving Day, November 25, 2021. Please note that we have changed the time. Thanksgiving Day Mass will be at 9:00 a.m. There will be only one Mass offered on that day. We will be doing the traditional blessing of bread at this Mass and then distributing it after Mass to be taken to your Thanksgiving Day tables.

A few years ago we offered Christmas cards for sale because I noted that there were not a lot of choices of “religious” Christmas cards in the store. In honor of our 100th Anniversary celebration we have decided to bring them back. We should have them very soon. In addition we will be selling 100th Anniversary coffee mugs and 100th Anniversary Christmas tree decorations, both would make excellent Christmas gifts. A special thank you to the members of the Anniversary Committee for their assistance.

This year our Christmas Mass schedule will be as follows: Mass on Christmas Eve at 4:30, 6:30 p.m., and 12 Midnight. Masses on Christmas Day will be at 7:30, 9:30, and 11:30 a.m. Because Christmas falls on a Saturday this year, there will be no evening Mass for the vigil of Sunday, nor will there be confessions on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 25th. Masses for Sunday, Dec. 26th will be at 7:30, 9:30, and 11:30. Saturday, Jan 1, 2022 is not a Holy Day of Obligation so there will be no vigil Mass on Dec 31st. Masses on Jan 1st will be at 8:00 and 10:00 a.m.

God Bless you,
Fr. Bordonaro

Reflect on the Readings GOD'S REIGN

By pointing to the end times, today's readings speak to the coming reign of God, when God will make all things new. In Christ, this time has already begun. We, by our energized watchfulness, can further God's reign. We can heal broken hearts, free captives, spread the Good News. Even so, the reign of God will not be complete without the second coming of Christ. Our weekly eucharistic gathering is a sign of the fullness of the end times. At Mass we join as an assembly to recall and to claim the story of Jesus as our own. Together we give thanks to God for the many gifts bestowed upon us. We receive nourishment in the simple but profound meal. And our weak and weary selves are invigorated and transformed by the power of Christ, so that we ourselves might become effective signs of God's reign present and to come. —Copyright © J. S. ## HOPE

Treasures from Our Tradition

This week might be a good time to stock our spiritual cupboard along with our kitchen cupboard in preparation for our celebration of Thanksgiving. Before there was a Thanksgiving Day, even before there were Pilgrims, the Roman Catholic Church celebrated Ember Days (“change-of-season days”) as periods of thanksgiving for seasonal harvests. This means it is a customary Catholic way to give thanks to God through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. In the 1969 reformed calendar it was left up to the national conferences of bishops to set dates for Ember Days. (The ones on the old calendar fit a Mediterranean climate, and on the new calendar it was imagined that each nation knew best when to schedule such seasonally oriented days.)

The United States bishops have not yet resurrected Ember Days, Rogations Days, and other national days of prayer. However, tucked within Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers (a book published by the U. S. bishops) is a chapter on Ember Days that proposes, among others, the three days before Thanksgiving as days of prayer, charity, and fasting. Why wait for an official proclamation? Why not undertake to observe those three days in that way in your parish, or even in your family? What could be more natural at this time of year? —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Feast Of Faith Blessing and Dismissal

At the beginning of Mass, the priest made the sign of the cross with us. At the conclusion of Mass, he makes the sign of the cross over us, a sign of blessing. We are then dismissed—not just let out, but sent forth with a mission “to love and serve the Lord.” Just as Jesus blessed his disciples as he ascended to heaven, so this leave-taking is joined to a blessing, a prayer for God’s continuing protection. As we leave the church, we bear the invisible sign of the Master whom we follow. In the words of an ancient letter to Diognetus, “Christians are indistinguishable from other [people] either by nationality, language, or customs. They do not inhabit separate cities of their own, or speak a strange dialect, or follow an outlandish way of life. . . . And yet, there is something extraordinary about their lives” (Liturgy of the Hours, Vol. II, p. 840). We are ordinary people sent forth to live extraordinary lives, lives like Christ’s own life—pouring ourselves out for others in prayer, service, and love. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
