FULFILLED IN YOUR HEARING

The “fulfilled in your hearing” statement of Jesus today is also the conclusion of last week’s Gospel, with the words of Isaiah about the breadth of God’s mercy and justice at its heart. The response of the crowd in the synagogue is united: all are amazed, but all likewise ask if he’s not merely the son of Joseph the humble carpenter. Jesus calls them out for seeming to think that he ought to be doing his ministry only locally, and—selfishly—only for them. (After all, they know where he comes from!) When Jesus essentially replies “nope” through some proverbs and prophetic stories, all the crowd gets angry at his implication that the fulfillment in Jesus is for everyone, not just for them. When our “take care of your own” reflex kicks in, we would do well to recall that this isn’t the attitude of Jesus, nor is it the attitude of his mission that we continue to this day.

YOU’VE BEEN WARNED

The opening of the reading selected from Jeremiah is surely one of the most comforting in scripture. Imagine! God knew me before my bodily conception; God dedicated me before my birth or any human dedication rites; God appointed me a prophet! Then comes the uh-oh. Jeremiah is warned that his appointment as a prophet will bring opposition, against which God’s prophets must stand up. Somehow the appointment as God’s prophet seems like it should be a bit happier, with the glamor that we might think will come from having friends in high places. Yet, just as there are many forces in the world arrayed against the divine will and divine goodness, so too are they arrayed against God’s prophets. A second round of assurances comes to Jeremiah, a pledge that God will be with Jeremiah to strengthen him. God doesn’t promise a turmoil-free life, but does vow to be Jeremiah’s strength.

JESUS, SON OF JEREMIAH

In the synagogue at Nazareth, a similar turn of events takes place. When Jesus speaks of the Spirit’s anointing being upon him, the anointing described in Isaiah, the crowd is amazed, and seems like they even want to take credit, since he’s a local boy. Then Jesus speaks some words of tough love, and “local boy” pivots to “who does he think he is?” You couldn’t blame Jesus, in that moment, if he recalled the words of Jeremiah, his prophetic ancestor. Though the crowd drove Jesus out of town and up a hill to throw him to his death, his time had not yet come. The strength and protection that God promises to prophets came for Jesus that day, as he passed through the mob’s midst, unharmed. He passed through their midst to continue the work for which the Spirit had anointed him. For us who follow the prophetic heritage of Jesus this day, we’ve been warned. But we’ve also been assured of God’s care.

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,
Happy Catholic Schools Week! Thank you to Mr. D'Andrea, our principal, and all of his teachers, staff, and volunteers. Thank you also to our parishioners. Without your support of Catholic education, we could not fulfill this part of our mission as church. Our school is a real blessing to our families. It is a true community where we are, "Focused on Faith and Learning." We continue to celebrate that SJR was named a National Blue Ribbon School of excellence. This is quite an accomplishment. Our Mission Statement reads: St. Joseph/St. Robert School (SJR), with Jesus as our foundation and inspiration, prepares students to live fully His message of love, courage, and compassion. Our philosophy of academic rigor and relevance prepares our students to be contributing members of the Church and the global community. All are invited to check out the good things happening at our school by registering for a private tour.

I am looking to get our student altar servers serving again. If you have a student in grade 5 through high school who is interested in serving at Mass, please contact the rectory (215-672-3020). We will be hosting Archbishop Adams for confirmation this year as well as my classmate, Archbishop Perez for our 100th Anniversary Mass and we will be needing people capable to serve. I will be offering refresher classes for those who were serving before COVID and feel that they may need a quick update as well as full training for those new to serving. Please call the rectory and leave your name, phone, and e-mail and I will be reaching out to you.

Next Sunday is the World Day for Consecrated Life and we were asked to publish the following letter that the Archbishop sent to the religious in our Archdiocese.

May God Bless You,
Fr. Bordonaro

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Consecrated Life,

I extend prayerful best wishes for a happy, healthy, and blessed New Year!

Soon we will celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord Observed on February 2nd, it celebrates Christ as the Light of the World. That celebration is significant for you as Saint John Paul II referred to consecrated persons as "lights for the world" bringing Christ to others through lives of sacrifice, service, and prayer.

World Day of Consecrated Life will be celebrated in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia on Sunday, February 6, 2022. The Gospel reading from Saint Luke for that day focuses on Our Lord's call to Simon Peter. In it Jesus says,

"Put out into the deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon Peter replies by answering the Lord without reservation. "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing ... But at your command I will lower the nets."

We celebrate World Day of Consecrated Life because each of you have said, "Yes, Lord." Our Lord said to Simon Peter, "Do not be afraid," and he says the same to you each day. Our world needs you and your dedicated witness. I commend and thank you for your dedicated and generous service to God's people. We celebrate each of you for saying yes to the call of Consecrated Life as religious priests, brothers, sisters, hermits, and consecrated virgins.

We beseech families, parishes, and schools to foster the call to the consecrated life. As Our Lord says in the Gospel of today, "Do not be afraid ..." Parents, do not be afraid. Children, do not be afraid. Young adults, do not be afraid. Our Lord calls and He does not leave you to walk alone. He walks with you and strengthens you to follow the path He has laid out for you. May the Light of Christ shine on you and may you reflect His light and love on all those you encounter.

Sincerely in Christ Jesus,
Most Rev. Nelson J. Perez, D.D.
Archbishop of Philadelphia

Reflect on the Readings TO BE A PROPHET

Today's readings show us what it is like to be a prophet. As Jeremiah recounts his call, God warns him that he will need strength and perseverance to withstand the hostility he will face from "Judah's kings and princes" and "its priests and people" (Jeremiah 1:18b). God also assures him that they "will not prevail over you, for I am with you" (1:19). The psalm reflects both of these struggles as well as deliverance from them ("salvation").

This is exactly what Jesus experiences in today's Gospel. After he claims that his own mission is the same as what Isaiah proclaimed, at first the people marvel at his "gracious words" (Luke 4:22). Soon, however, they become suspicious, skeptical, and hostile, even threatening to kill him. But just as God promised to deliver Jeremiah, so Jesus "passed through the midst of them and went away" (4:30). Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Treasures from Our Tradition

The feast of the Presentation is a day for the blessing of candles. Why does liturgy require candles? In the first years of the church, worship was often at night, and candles and torches were carried from place to place within the worship space as needed. Candles were also a mark of festivity and hospitality when people gathered for prayer in homes, and later on in large buildings with thick walls and dark corners. But even after gaslight and electricity, candles were kept. Part of the reason has to do with the warm, clean light of a candle's flame. Candles are a good sign of the partnership of God and creation: wax made by bees, gathered and fashioned by human hands into something beautiful and useful. In order for the light to shine, the candle surrenders itself, almost as if it is pouring itself out so that the light can flood into the world. The candle of baptism, placed into our hands, and carried again and again, speaks silently of that same wisdom. If you would save your life, you must lose it. You must pour your life out like Christ so that you may be filled with the light of his love. —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
