St. Joseph Church 100th Anniversary

Memories from the Pew

As part of our 100th Anniversary celebration, we invite past and current parishioners to share their personal thoughts, meaningful memories or experiences of their time at St. Joseph. For example, it could be a religious ceremony that impacted you in a special way; or your time as a student or teacher in our parish school or CCD; or a parish social event that you participated in or impressed you in a meaningful way. Everyone has a story...tell us yours. Join in the fun and learn something about the parish community.

We prefer that you email your response to the Rectory at sjc18976@verizon.net. If not possible, you may write on this form or type a separate letter if you prefer. If not emailing, place your completed information in the box marked “Completed SJ Parishioners’ Memories” found at the same locations.

All responses will be compiled into a Single, Stand-alone book entitled ST. JOSEPH PARISHIONERS' MEMORY BOOK and eventually be on display for everyone to view in either paper form and possibly on the church website.

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,
In preparation for our celebration of Ash Wednesday, please bring in your old palm from years past so that we may burn it to make the ashes that will be blessed and distributed on March 2nd. The wicker basket is in the back hallway behind the church by the large crucifix. Please take the palm out of any bags and dispose of them.

This Sunday is "World Marriage Day." World Marriage Day honors husband and wife as head of the family, the basic unit of society. It salutes the beauty of their faithfulness, sacrifice and joy in daily, married life.

The idea of celebrating marriage began in Baton Rouge, LA, in 1981, when couples encouraged the mayor, the governor and the Bishop to proclaim St. Valentine's Day as "We Believe in Marriage Day." The event was so successful; the idea was presented to and adopted by Worldwide Marriage Encounter's national leadership. By 1982, 43 Governors officially proclaimed the day and celebrations spread to U.S. military bases in several foreign countries. In 1983, the name was changed to "World Marriage Day," designated to be celebrated each year on the second Sunday in February. WMD celebrations continue to grow and spread to more countries and faith expressions every year.

The World Marriage Day Symbol speaks of the role and values we proclaim. Husband and wife are symbolically seen as two candle like figures, reminding us that married love calls us to help enlighten the world. The couple is joined by a heart, focusing on love as the power that fosters unity within the couple and generates the capacity to be life giving and inspire others to fruitfulness and unity.

The Theme for WMD 2022 is "Called to the Joy of Love."

Prayer for Married Couples

Almighty and eternal God, You blessed the union of married couples so that they might reflect the union of Christ with his Church: look with kindness on them. Renew their marriage covenant, increase your love in them, and strengthen their bond of peace so that, with their children, they may always rejoice in the gift of your blessing. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

May God Bless You,
Fr. Bordonaro

“Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours.
 Blessed are you who are now hungry, for you will be satisfied.”
 — Luke 6:20-21a

Reflect on the Readings FEELING BLESSED

Congratulations! Welcome to the Kingdom! Rejoice and leap for joy! Sounds a little like Easter, doesn't it? Well, in a very real way, it is. This Sunday, the scriptures remind us that we are blessed and beloved, especially when we have difficulties and don't feel especially blessed. Jesus reminds us that God blesses us in our trials, so we should trust in the saving power of God. We are “raised from the dead,” as it were, each time we arise from our hardships. The ultimate proof of all of this is our new life in Christ, who died so that we could be free of sin, and was raised from the dead so that we might all have new life. Wouldn't that be something? A new life, in which poverty is riches and sadness is transformed into lightness of spirit? It's a topsy-turvy world, isn't it? Do you feel blessed today? Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

PRAYER

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, who teach us that you abide in hearts that are just and true, grant that we may be so fashioned by your grace as to become a dwelling pleasing to you.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

St. Joseph Parish 100th Anniversary

Be Part of Our Celebration: Everyone has a story to tell. We want to hear yours. As part of St. Joseph Parish's 100th Anniversary, we invite parishioners to share what this church has meant to you and/or your family--some personal experience or meaningful memory about your time here at St. Joseph. The idea is to collect these thoughts from parishioners and produce a single book for everyone to look through.

A form entitled Memories from the Pew has been provided which contains sample thoughts to help you get started. Extra copies are located on the tables in the rear hallway or the back of Church.

The preferred method of response is by email, sent to the Rectory at sjc18976@verizon.net. But, if not possible, you may write on this form or type a separate letter which can be placed in the boxes marked “Completed SJ Parishioners' Memories” found at the same locations. All responses will be compiled into a single book entitled ST. JOSEPH PARISHIONERS' MEMORY BOOK and will eventually be on display for all to view in either paper form and possibly on the church website.

Please note this memory book will be a SINGLE stand-alone book that will not be for sale. Neither is it intended to be part of the formal Parish History which will appear in the Parish Photo Directory. For questions or assistance, call Rosemary Hronchak at 215-672-5739.

Parish Directory

Last Chance to be included in our Parish Directory.

If you didn't pose for a portrait with our photographer, you can submit your own photo for the directory and receive a copy of the book too! Please drop off your photo with a $10 fee to the Rectory by February 17, 2022. Photos can also be scanned and emailed to sjc18976@verizon.net. (Send payment separately)

If you did pose with the photographer and did not order a package, your complimentary portrait can be picked up at the Rectory during normal business hours.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Valentine's Day approaches, and its immediate impact may be heard in the rectory, as the newly engaged come forward to "set a date." We owe this scenario to reforms made by the emperor Charlemagne late in the eighth century. He required that nobles and commoners alike have public weddings, and also required that marrying couples be examined for factors that would block a marriage, such as previous marriages or close kinship. The pope was more conservative, however, and resisted the emperor's creativity. It was enough for the pope that the couples exchange consent.

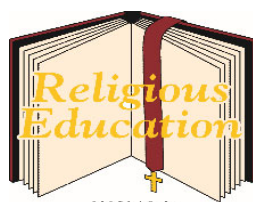

That tradition is passed on to this day, to some couples' surprise. In 866, Pope Nicholas ruled that a marriage was legal and binding even without a liturgy or public celebration. After that, it was the consent of the couple, not the blessing of parents or priest, that made a marriage "count." If consent was lacking, such as through abduction or fear, then the marriage could not "take." Charlemagne got a great deal done, but he was a political flash in the pan, and the empire had virtually collapsed by the year 1000. Europe broke into a checkerboard of princedoms and languages, and at last all marriages came under the church, the glue holding the known world together.
