St. Joseph Church 100th Anniversary

Memories from the Pew

As part of our 100th Anniversary celebration, we invite past and current parishioners to share their personal thoughts, meaningful memories or experiences of their time at St. Joseph. For example, it could be a religious ceremony that impacted you in a special way; or your time as a student or teacher in our parish school or CCD; or a parish social event that you participated in or impressed you in a meaningful way. Everyone has a story...tell us yours. Join in the fun and learn something about the parish community.

We prefer that you email your response to the Rectory at sjc18976@verizon.net. If not possible, you may write on this form or type a separate letter if you prefer. If not emailing, place your completed information in the box marked “Completed SJ Parishioners’ Memories” found at the same locations.

All responses will be compiled into a Single, Stand-alone book entitled ST. JOSEPH PARISHIONERS' MEMORY BOOK and eventually be on display for everyone to view in either paper form and possibly on the church website.

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,
Lent begins in a week and a half. Some time ago I found the following and published it in the pastor's column. A number of people found it helpful, so I am repeating it. It is from the U.S. Bishop's website and can be found at <http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/liturgical-year/len/questions-and-answers-about-lent.cfm>

Q. Why do we say that there are forty days of Lent? When you count all the days from Ash Wednesday through Holy Saturday, there are 46.

A. It might be more accurate to say that there is the "forty day fast within Lent." Historically, Lent has varied from a week to three weeks to the present configuration of 46 days. The forty day fast, however, has been more stable. The Sundays of Lent are certainly part of the Time of Lent, but they are not prescribed days of fast and abstinence.

Q. So does that mean that when we give something up for Lent, such as candy, we can have it on Sundays?

A. Apart from the prescribed days of fast and abstinence on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, and the days of abstinence every Friday of Lent, Catholics have traditionally chosen additional penitential practices for the whole Time of Lent. These practices are disciplinary in nature and often more effective if they are continuous, i.e., kept on Sundays as well. That being said, such practices are not regulated by the Church, but by individual conscience.

Q. I understand that all the Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence from meat, but I'm not sure what is classified as meat. Does meat include chicken and dairy products?

A. Abstinence laws consider that meat comes only from animals such as chickens, cows, sheep or pigs --- all of which live on land. Birds are also considered meat. Abstinence does not include meat juices and liquid foods made from meat. Thus, such foods as chicken broth, consomme, soups cooked or flavored with meat, meat gravies or sauces, as well as seasonings or condiments made from animal fat are technically not forbidden. However, moral theologians have traditionally taught that we should abstain from all animal-derived products (except foods such as gelatin, butter, cheese and eggs, which do not have any meat taste). Fish are a different category of animal. Salt and freshwater species of fish, amphibians, reptiles, (cold-blooded animals) and shellfish are permitted.

Q. I understand that Catholics ages 18 to 59 should fast on Ash Wednesday and on Good Friday, but what exactly are the rules for these fasts?

A. Fasting on these days means we can have only one full, meatless meal. Some food can be taken at the other regular meal times if necessary, but combined they should be less than a full meal. Liquids are allowed at any time, but no solid food should be consumed between meals.

Merciful and gracious is the LORD, slow to anger and abounding in kindness.
 — Psalm 103:8

Q. Are there exemptions other than for age from the requirement to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday?

A. Those that are excused from fast and abstinence outside the age limits include the physically or mentally ill including individuals suffering from chronic illnesses such as diabetes. Also excluded are pregnant or nursing women. In all cases, common sense should prevail, and ill persons should not further jeopardize their health by fasting.

May God Bless You,
 Fr. Bordonaro

Reflect on the Readings

LOVE AS GOD LOVES

Our Gospel today continues Jesus' Sermon on the Plain, in which we heard Luke's version of the Beatitudes. This week, Jesus gives us new "commandments," telling us how to live and act in the world as his disciples, rooted in the radical love of God for humanity. It reminds us of his later speech about loving one another as he loves us, in other words with a God-like love, the kind we see in today's psalm about God's mercy. How else could we do as Jesus tells us by loving our enemies, which seems impossible, until we remember that God gave us the example of Jesus, who is like God but also like us? David understands this merciful love when he spares the life of his enemy in the first reading. Finally, Paul tells us that we will become like Jesus if we act as he did, as God does. - Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co

St. Joseph Parish 100th Anniversary

Be Part of Our Celebration:
 Everyone has a story to tell.
 We want to hear yours. As part of St. Joseph Parish's 100th Anniversary, we invite parishioners to share what this church has meant to you and/or your family--some personal experience or meaningful memory about your time here at St. Joseph. The idea is to collect these thoughts from parishioners and produce a single book for everyone to look through.

A form entitled Memories from the Pew has been provided which contains sample thoughts to help you get started. Extra copies are located on the tables in the rear hallway or the back of Church.

The preferred method of response is by email, sent to the Rectory at sjc18976@verizon.net. But, if not possible, you may write on this form or type a separate letter which can be placed in the boxes marked "Completed SJ Parishioners' Memories" found at the same locations. All responses will be compiled into a single book entitled ST. JOSEPH PARISHIONERS' MEMORY BOOK and will eventually be on display for all to view in either paper form and possibly on the church website.

Please note this memory book will be a SINGLE stand-alone book that will not be for sale. Neither is it intended to be part of the formal Parish History which will appear in the Parish Photo Directory. For questions or assistance, call Rosemary Hronchak at 215-672-5739.

Parish Directory

If you had your picture taken for the directory, your complimentary portrait can be picked up at the Rectory during normal business hours.

Treasures from Our Tradition

This week's calendar appears at first to have a feast day for a piece of furniture: the Chair of Peter. In fact, it functions as a kind of ecclesial "Presidents' Day." The church day points to Peter, but just as Presidents' Day began with Washington's birthday and now includes all presidents, this day celebrates the Petrine ministry: Peter's apostolic presidency passed down in our tradition as an essential aspect of Catholic identity. Maybe the day should be subtitled "Popes' Day." As for the "chair" itself, it can be traced to the house of Priscilla and Aquila in ancient Rome. Peter sat there to instruct the faithful and to receive the newly baptized. When Christianity became legal, the house was transformed into a place for public prayer, and soon the chair was transported to the tomb of St. Peter on the Vatican hill. Over the centuries, the hill was leveled, but the tomb and the chair were preserved.

Today, it is said that the chair from that ancient Roman community is raised high above the altar in St. Peter's, clearly visible just beneath the oval window showing the descent of the Holy Spirit. The symbol of the chair reminds the current occupant of the Petrine office of his duties to shepherd the flock by clear teaching and by building up the unity of the Church. Last year, on this very day, Pope Benedict XVI named fifteen new cardinals as an expression of this pastoral care for the unity of the Church, drawing them from a variety of cultures everywhere around the globe. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Parish Registration

New parishioners are always welcome! To register see Fr. Bordonaro after any Mass. Please help us keep our records updated by notifying the Parish office if you are moving from the Parish or have changed your address, phone number, email address, etc. at 215-672-3020 or sjc18976@verizon.net.
