St. Joseph Church 100th Anniversary

Memories from the Pew

As part of our 100th Anniversary celebration, we invite past and current parishioners to share their personal thoughts, meaningful memories or experiences of their time at St. Joseph. For example, it could be a religious ceremony that impacted you in a special way; or your time as a student or teacher in our parish school or CCD; or a parish social event that you participated in or impressed you in a meaningful way. Everyone has a story...tell us yours. Join in the fun and learn something about the parish community.

We prefer that you email your response to the Rectory at sjc18976@verizon.net. If not possible, you may write on this form or type a separate letter if you prefer. If not emailing, place your completed information in the box marked “Completed SJ Parishioners’ Memories” found at the same locations.

All responses will be compiled into a Single, Stand-alone book entitled ST. JOSEPH PARISHIONERS' MEMORY BOOK and eventually be on display for everyone to view in either paper form and possibly on the church website.

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

A Note From The Pastor

From the Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,
Next week we will be celebrating our annual Triduum to St. Joseph. We invite all to join us for the 8:00 Morning Mass followed by some special prayers to St. Joseph on Thursday, March 17th, Friday, March 18th, and Saturday, March 19th. By the way, since Saturday is a Solemnity for the entire Church, it is valid to forgo whatever you have been fasting from as part of your Lenten repentance and celebrate the Holy Day, as is permitted during the Sunday's in Lent. So go ahead and enjoy your candy or your chocolate, just be sure to celebrate St. Joseph as well.

Next week there is a special collection for the church in Latin America. Archbishop Pérez asked that this letter be communicated through the parishes.

God Bless You,
Fr. Bordonaro

March, 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

For more than 50 years, the Collection for the Church in Latin America has been a concrete expression of unity and solidarity between Catholics in the United States and those in Latin America and the Caribbean. Through their contributions, Catholics from across the United States have supported the formation of priests and religious, the training of catechists and other pastoral ministers, the education of children and young people, and relief efforts in the wake of natural disasters.

In Haiti, for instance, the Diocese of Jacmel formed more than 600 youths from its 31 parishes in reading, praying, and living the Gospel over the course of a 21-day program. This same spirit of outreach was also at work across Haiti during the COVID-19 outbreak when the Haitian Episcopal Conference initiated a communication and pastoral ministry formation campaign to inform people, especially those in remote or marginalized areas, about the nature of the coronavirus pandemic and how to stop its spread.

By supporting the Collection for the Church in Latin America, you help local parishes address the immediate pastoral and material needs of these vulnerable families.

Our Archdiocese will take up this Collection the weekend of March 12 and 13, 2022. Please be generous in this Collection and take this opportunity to share your faith with the youth of Latin America and the Caribbean. Your support will truly make a difference. Thank you and God bless you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez, D.D.
Archbishop of Philadelphia

Reflect on the Readings IN THE DESERT

Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, and then the devil tested him. Moses and the Israelites had been in the desert for forty years before being led to the land of milk and honey. There were times when they called out to God, sure that, as Saint Paul wrote to the Romans, “everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.” We sometimes spend time in the desert as well. Not a literal desert most of the time, but a desert in which it seems difficult to perceive God’s presence, times when we face difficulty and are tempted to leave God’s ways behind. On this First Sunday of Lent, Jesus shows us what to do in these moments: stand firm and trust in God. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Lenten Bible Study

A Lenten Bible Study on “The Throne of Grace in the Letter to the Hebrews” will be offered on 5 Thursdays in Lent (March 10 - April 7), on Zoom, by the Mother Boniface Spirituality Center. The facilitator is Sister Sara Butler, M.S.B.T. The Letter to the Hebrews is a short New Testament book that invites us to place all our confidence and trust in the Lord. Discover why this Letter calls Jesus a High Priest, why it interprets his death on the cross as a sacrifice, and how it can strengthen our faith and encourage us. Register at www.msbt.org/mbsc/event/lentenbiblestudy/ or call 267-350-1833 for more information.

Holy Land Christians Display

Next weekend (March 12th & 13th) there will be a display of beautiful olivewood handmade carvings from the Holy Land for purchase. Please stop by Room 18 after Mass and support this worthwhile cause. Your purchase will help Christian families in the Holy Land. More information can be found at www.BethlehemCarvings.org.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Often, when a family keeps vigil around a person who is preparing for death, they may notice three interwoven activities. First, the dying person may become more prayerful and reflective than ever before, reviewing life’s journey in gratitude to God, or seeking forgiveness and making amends for wrongs. Second, as death approaches, the need to eat and drink is lessened until even an ice cube brushed against the lips is satisfying. Third, persons who are dying often make plans to give their possessions away, making bequests, handing treasures down, providing for favorite charities.

Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving: with these three “pillars” of Lent, we rehearse our death every year in this season, and anticipate the final work we will do in this life. And every year, at the end of our journey, is the joy of Easter and the experience of the victory of Christ over death’s darkness and power. Annually, we remind ourselves that the Christian experiences the same power and presence at the end of life’s journey: Christ to the rescue and the lasting joy of heaven. —James Field, Copyright © J. St. Joseph Parish 100th Anniversary

Be Part of Our Celebration: Everyone has a story to tell. We want to hear yours. As part of St. Joseph Parish's 100th Anniversary, we invite parishioners to share what this church has meant to you and/or your family--some personal experience or meaningful memory about your time here at St. Joseph. The idea is to collect these thoughts from parishioners and produce a single book for everyone to look through.

A form entitled Memories from the Pew has been provided which contains sample thoughts to help you get started. Extra copies are located on the tables in the rear hallway or the back of Church.

The preferred method of response is by email, sent to the Rectory at sjc18976@verizon.net. But, if not possible, you may write on this form or type a separate letter which can be placed in the boxes marked "Completed SJ Parishioners' Memories" found at the same locations. All responses will be compiled into a single book entitled ST. JOSEPH PARISHIONERS' MEMORY BOOK and will eventually be on display for all to view in either paper form and possibly on the church website.

Please note this memory book will be a SINGLE stand-alone book that will not be for sale. Neither is it intended to be part of the formal Parish History which will appear in the Parish Photo Directory. For questions or assistance, call Rosemary Hronchak at 215-672-5739
