In October 2021, Pope Francis launched a two-year Synod process with the theme “Communion, Participation and Mission.” A Synod is a Council of the Church. In the past, the popes have periodically convened the bishops of the world to consult with them on an important issue affecting all Catholics in the world. The most recent Synod took place in 2018 in Rome to focus on “Youth and the Family.”

We are now in the midst of preparing for the Synod, which will take place in Rome in October 2023. This Synod will listen to the collective voices of Catholics throughout the world. The collective voices will come from countless listening sessions, held in every diocese in the world in the next few months. Here in our archdiocese, we will provide both in-person and virtual sessions, conducted by trained facilitators. There will be 18 regional in-person archdiocesan sessions and 10 on-line gatherings. The results of these listening sessions in each diocese will be collected and summarized in a final report, which will be sent to the Vatican in 2022.

Archbishop Perez is inviting every Catholic in the Archdiocese to participate in the synodal process. The list of in-person sessions, dates and times, as well as on-line sessions from the comfort of your home can be found on the archdiocesan webpage, archphila.org/synod.

ON-LINE SURVEY NOW AVAILABLE.

Please help us by participating in a 10-15 minute survey online. The survey can be accessed through an online link from March 2 until April 4, 2022. The link will be on the homepage of the parish website – www.saintjosephchurch.us. The survey will reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish’s efforts to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as a whole. The survey can be also found on the Archdiocesan website: <https://portal.catholicleaders.org/dmi/survey/yag6d3>

We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. This information will be invaluable as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

If you prefer a paper copy you may pick one up after daily and Sunday Masses in the hallway. Please drop off completed surveys to the Rectory Office.

A Note From The Pastor

From the Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

On Saturday we celebrate the Feast of St. Joseph, the Husband of Mary. We will also be offering special prayers after the morning Masses on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. We call this a Triduum to St. Joseph. The word Triduum simply refers to three special days. Our St. Joseph Triduum sets aside some extra time to pray to our patron. St. Joseph is a great model for all people of faith, but especially for men, husbands, and fathers. Now is a good time to pray to St. Joseph, our protector as we face a number of challenges in our world. The triduum envelopes which represent your intentions for St. Joseph will remain on the reredos (back altar) for the entire Triduum.

We welcome the Bethlehem carving group this weekend with their beautiful olive wood carvings in support of the Christians in the Holy Land. This is the same group that will run our 100th Anniversary parish trip to the Holy Land and Jordan through their travel agency Terra Sancta Travel November 6 thru November 17th this year. If you are interested in going on the trip please take a sign-up sheet located at the exits. They will also be giving a brief presentation on the Holy Land trip in classroom 18 on this Sunday, March 13th at 1:00 p.m. In addition to learning more about the trip you will have an opportunity to ask questions.

The Holy Father has announced a Synod for the entire church. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission: "It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium." This journey, which follows in the wake of the Church's "renewal" proposed by the Second Vatican Council, is both a gift and a task: by journeying together and reflecting together on the journey that has been made, the Church will be able to learn through her experience which processes can help her to live communion, to achieve participation, to open herself to mission. (Courtesy of USCCB).

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia will host various listening sessions for the synod as well as ask parishioners throughout the Archdiocese to participate in a 10 – 15 minute Disciple Maker Survey. Please consider going to our parish website and clicking on the link to participate in the survey. The survey will only be active through April 4.

As another part of our Anniversary celebration, next week we are offering you the opportunity to attend Sunday Mass as it was first celebrated in our church in Latin. The Traditional Latin Mass will be celebrated on Sunday, March 20, 2022 at 2:00 p.m. This Mass will fulfill your usual Sunday obligation to attend Mass. The celebrant, Fr. Matt Biedrzycki, has sent us some more information on the Latin Mass. His article follows. God Bless You, Fr. Bordonaro with the Missal promulgated by St. John XXIII in 1962 is called the "Traditional Latin Mass". Because there are many who continue to celebrate the Mass according to this Roman Missal it is hard to say this is how Mass was celebrated in the "past." In 1970, St. Paul VI promulgated a new Roman Missal which included a number of innovations not previously seen in the former. Today, we want to consider a few things one might notice attending one and the other.

Language: Latin and the "Vernacular" (English)

The most apparent difference for those attending Mass as we celebrate it most commonly today (according to the Roman Missal of St. Paul VI) is the use of the vernacular. The vernacular refers to the common language of the people of a particular time and place; for most in the United States this is English. Permission was granted for the Liturgical Rites of the Church to be translated into the vernacular of the people while pride of place ought to still be given to the Latin language. Initially the great enthusiasm for "understanding" what is being said led to a loss of the Latin language altogether for many people. Fortunately, many have begun to incorporate the Latin language into their worship again as the Council Fathers of the Second Vatican Council envisioned.

Direction of Priest: Facing the People, Facing the East

Another thing that people will notice is that the priest in the Mass celebrated according to the newer Roman Missal is that the priest's orientation is toward the people. In the former Missal of 1962, the priest was ad orientem, "facing east." The direction of worship in the former Missal is oriented in such a way that both the priest and the faithful face the same direction. Rather than "turning his back to the people," the priest is in fact more naturally, or supernaturally, interceding on the people's behalf before God. The Mass according to 1970 may be celebrated in this way as well though many opt not to do this.

Reception of Holy Communion: Kneeling vs. Standing

Another distinct difference many people notice when they attend a Mass according to the Missal of 1962 is that for the reception of Holy Communion, the people will receive kneeling and on the tongue. As the priest distributes Holy Communion to the faithful he offers a short prayer over them as they receive. The faithful do not respond "Amen" but tilt their heads back and receive the host. In the Mass as we know it now, permission is given to receive either on the tongue or in the hand, ordinarily standing.

Given some of these differences, some people can feel overwhelmed attending their first "Traditional Latin Mass." Next week, we will consider how one might actively participate in the Holy Mass regardless of which form they attend. God bless you!

Reflect on the Readings A GLIMPSE OF GOD

Have you ever had a glimpse of God? Perhaps you perceived God's presence in a quiet moment of prayer, a tender conversation with a loved one, or a difficult situation that was resolved unexpectedly. Peter, James, and John in today's Gospel were given a glimpse of Christ's glory on the mountain, as Jesus was transfigured before them. Abram put his faith in God and saw God's power in a wondrous sign of covenant love. We have the promise of eternal life with God in heaven. This promise brings with it responsibility, as people who are called to live as Christ's very own in the world. Lent is the perfect time to resolve to listen more attentively to the Lord and follow God's ways, assured that in doing so, we put our faith in the one, true, and faithful God.

Treasures from Our Tradition

By now, many may have failed in Lenten discipline to some measure or another: the daily doughnut is simply too alluring, or a furtive puff on a cigarette irresistible. There is meaning even in the failure, though, a kind of reminder that we cannot save ourselves. Part of the power of Lent is that we do it together, and although individuals decide on different ways to keep it, it is fundamentally the same journey. We fall, we get up, we keep moving. The desire to “give something up” for Lent is an age-old impulse in the Christian heart. We get better at it over the years, and move more deeply into the meaning and message of acts of sacrifice; so there is no shame in stumbling, as long as we are not discouraged by the failure and give up. We are clearing space in our lives, after all, and some of the things we desire to give up are worth rooting out completely anyway.

What do we do with the space we have cleared out by our sacrifice? The Lenten question of giving up is balanced by the Easter question of our response to Christ's embrace of us in love: “What are you taking on for Easter?” —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
