In October 2021, Pope Francis launched a two-year Synod process with the theme “Communion, Participation and Mission.” A Synod is a Council of the Church. In the past, the popes have periodically convened the bishops of the world to consult with them on an important issue affecting all Catholics in the world. The most recent Synod took place in 2018 in Rome to focus on “Youth and the Family.”

We are now in the midst of preparing for the Synod, which will take place in Rome in October 2023. This Synod will listen to the collective voices of Catholics throughout the world. The collective voices will come from countless listening sessions, held in every diocese in the world in the next few months. Here in our archdiocese, we will provide both in-person and virtual sessions, conducted by trained facilitators. There will be 18 regional in-person archdiocesan sessions and 10 on-line gatherings. The results of these listening sessions in each diocese will be collected and summarized in a final report, which will be sent to the Vatican in 2022.

Archbishop Perez is inviting every Catholic in the Archdiocese to participate in the synodal process. The list of in-person sessions, dates and times, as well as on-line sessions from the comfort of your home can be found on the archdiocesan webpage, archphila.org/synod.

Listed below are some of the closer in-person locations for your consideration:

LOCATION	DATE	TIME
Our Lady of Guadalupe (Doylestown)	Saturday, April 2	2:00 – 4:00 p.m.
Mary, Mother of the Redeemer (North Wales)	Sunday, April 3	5:00 – 7:00 p.m.

The following are the dates and times for the virtual sessions:

DATE	TIME
Monday, March 28	6:30 – 8:30 p.m.
Tuesday, March 29	6:30 – 8:30 p.m.
Thursday, March 31	6:30 – 8:30 p.m.

To register for any of these sessions, please go to the Archdiocese of Philadelphia’s Synod resource page: www.archphila.org/synod

ON-LINE SURVEY NOW AVAILABLE.

Please help us by participating in a 10-15 minute survey online. The survey can be accessed through an online link from March 2 until April 4, 2022. The link will be on the homepage of the parish website – www.saintjosephchurch.us. The survey will reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish’s efforts to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as a whole. The survey can be also found on the Archdiocesan website: <https://portal.catholicleaders.org/dmi/survey/yag6d3>

We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. This information will be invaluable as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

If you prefer a paper copy you may pick one up after daily and Sunday Masses in the hallway. Please drop off completed surveys to the Rectory Office.

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

For several weeks we have been announcing that all parishes have been asked to have their members take a brief survey as a preparation for the Church's upcoming synod. In the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, we are working with the Catholic Leadership Institute to implement the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) survey at every parish in the Archdiocese from March 2 to April 4, 2022. The DMI survey is a nationally recognized survey administered at parishes around the United States and Canada since 2013 by The Catholic Leadership Institute. You can access our parish survey on the homepage of our website, www.saintjosephchurch.us. Please be sure to do so before the April 4th deadline.

To find out more about the synod itself you can go to the Archdiocesan website, www.archphila.org/synod.

God Bless You, Fr. Bordonaro

Here are some frequently asked questions about the synod.

- What is a synod?

A synod is a council of the Church, usually convened to decide an issue of doctrine, administration or application. The word synod is from the Greek sinodos meaning "assembly" or "meeting" and is similar to the Latin concilium meaning "council." Sometimes the phrase "general synod" or "general council" refers to an ecumenical council, like the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965).

- What is a Synod of Bishops and why do they happen?

At the end of the Second Vatican Council, Saint Pope Paul VI sensed the need for the Roman Pontiff to continue meeting periodically with the bishops of the world, which is why, on September 15, 1965, he established a new entity within the Church called the Synod of Bishops. The Synod of Bishops is a permanent institution that forms part of the Church's long tradition of organizing ecclesial assemblies to deliberate on the most pressing issues of a particular place and time. Since its establishment in 1965, the Popes have called for and led a total of 15 General Ordinary Assemblies, 3 General Extraordinary Assemblies, and 11 Special Assemblies of the Synod of Bishops. The topics of each assembly are selected by the Pope. The most recent General Assemblies have been on Youth, Family, New Evangelization, the Word of God, and the Eucharist.

- What is Synodality?

In the words of Pope Francis, a synodal Church is a "listening Church knowing that listening is more than feeling. It is a mutual listening in which everyone has something to learn. We must all listen to the Holy Spirit, the spirit of Truth to know what the Spirit is saying to the Church. [...] This is what the Lord expects from the Church of the third millennium." (Address at the commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the Synod of Bishops, 17 October 2015) (Continued on page 4...)

Synodality provides opportunities to listen to the Holy Spirit and the People of God in order to discern together and walk forward on a common path, accompanying each other on the spiritual journey as we live out our missionary call to personal discipleship with our Lord.

• What is the current Synod?

In the ceremony to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the institution of the Synod of Bishops in October 2015, Pope Francis declared that “the world in which we live, and which we are called to love and serve, even with its contradictions, demands that the Church strengthen cooperation in all areas of her mission.” (For a Synodal Church handbook) This call to cooperate in the mission of the Church is addressed to the entire People of God. In April 2021, Pope Francis initiated a synodal journey of the whole People of God, to begin in October 2021 in each local Church and culminating in October 2023 in the Assembly of the Synod of Bishops.

• What is the goal of this Synod?

The objective of this Synodal Process is not to provide a temporary or one-time experience of synodality, but rather to provide an opportunity for the entire People of God to discern together how to move forward on the path towards being a more synodal Church in the long-term. Pope Francis characterizes the two interrelated goals of this process of listening: “to listen to God, so that with him we may hear the cry of his people; to listen to his people until we are in harmony with the will to which God calls us.”

• Why are we participating in a Synod at this time?

In October 2015, Pope Francis stated that “the world in which we live, and which we are called to love and serve, even with its contradictions, demands that the Church strengthens cooperation in all areas of her mission.” This process is especially important during times of changes in Church and society. We must reflect on the signs of the times in light of the Gospel. “The decision to ‘journey together’ is a prophetic sign for the human family, which needs a shared project capable of pursuing the good of all... We need to let ourselves be educated by the Spirit to a truly synodal mentality, entering with courage and freedom of heart into a conversion process that is indispensable for the ‘continual reformation of which [the Church] always has need, in so far as she is a human institution” (Synod 2023 Preparatory Document, no. 9).

Reflect on the Readings

LOST AND FOUND

The parable of the father and his sons is one of the most familiar of all of Jesus’ stories. The father in the parable is lavish in forgiveness and revels in the return of his young son, who was lost and now is found. The older son is also lost—lost in his refusal to forgive, lost in his failure to grasp his father’s generous spirit. The Israelites spent many years lost in the desert, seeking the land of milk and honey, yet often failing to seek the God who delivered and fed them. We are sometimes lost as well. We lose sight of the Lord and the Lord’s ways. God never loses sight of us, however. God waits, ready for us to come to our senses, ready to welcome us back with open arms. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Living Stations of the Cross

Please join us for Living Stations on Friday, April 8th at 7:30 p.m. All are welcome to attend this beautiful spiritual meditation of Our Lord’s Passion.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Today, "Laetare Sunday," breaks the somberness of Lent for a little rejoicing, and the readings all summon us to an awareness of reconciliation. One of the best-loved stories of our tradition is today's Gospel story of the runaway son and the prodigal father. Prodigal, of course, is an adjective meaning "spendthrift or extravagant to a degree bordering on recklessness," and although the boy maxes out the credit cards, it is really the father who is prodigal with forgiveness. Part of the excitement of this Laetare Sunday is rooted in the ancient catechumenate. Long ago, midway through Lent, the "elect" were focusing more and more on the gift of reconciliation accomplished for them by Christ and about to be realized in the Easter sacraments they were preparing to celebrate. In some places, the elect were even bedecked with roses on this day. A person bedecked with roses sticks out in a crowd; a person formed by the Eucharist and committed to living a life of reconciliation does, too. That's you!
