In October 2021, Pope Francis launched a two-year Synod process with the theme “Communion, Participation and Mission.” A Synod is a Council of the Church. In the past, the popes have periodically convened the bishops of the world to consult with them on an important issue affecting all Catholics in the world. The most recent Synod took place in 2018 in Rome to focus on “Youth and the Family.”

We are now in the midst of preparing for the Synod, which will take place in Rome in October 2023. This Synod will listen to the collective voices of Catholics throughout the world. The collective voices will come from countless listening sessions, held in every diocese in the world in the next few months. Here in our archdiocese, we will provide both in-person and virtual sessions, conducted by trained facilitators. There will be 18 regional in-person archdiocesan sessions and 10 on-line gatherings. The results of these listening sessions in each diocese will be collected and summarized in a final report, which will be sent to the Vatican in 2022.

Archbishop Perez is inviting every Catholic in the Archdiocese to participate in the synodal process. The list of in-person sessions, dates and times, as well as on-line sessions from the comfort of your home can be found on the archdiocesan webpage, archphila.org/synod.

Listed below are some of the closer in-person locations for your consideration:

LOCATION	DATE	TIME
Our Lady of Guadalupe (Doylestown)	Saturday, April 2	2:00 – 4:00 p.m.
Mary, Mother of the Redeemer (North Wales)	Sunday, April 3	5:00 – 7:00 p.m.

To register for any of these sessions, please go to the Archdiocese of Philadelphia’s Synod resource page: www.archphila.org/synod

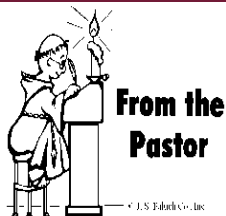

ON-LINE SURVEY NOW AVAILABLE.

Please help us by participating in a 10-15 minute survey online. The survey can be accessed through an online link from March 2 until April 4, 2022. The link will be on the homepage of the parish website – www.saintjosephchurch.us. The survey will reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish’s efforts to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as a whole. The survey can be also found on the Archdiocesan website: <https://portal.catholicleaders.org/dmi/survey/yag6d3>

We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. This information will be invaluable as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

If you prefer a paper copy you may pick one up after daily and Sunday Masses in the hallway. Please drop off completed surveys to the Rectory Office.

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

If you have not yet taken the Disciple Maker Index survey, please go to our parish website and click on the Disciple Maker link.

This will help us understand your needs and better serve you. The last day to do this survey is Monday, April 4th. If you took one of the printed surveys, they must be returned to the rectory by the same date.

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday, or sometimes called Passion Sunday. We mark the triumphal entrance of our Lord Jesus Christ into the Holy city of Jerusalem remembering that He was greeted with shouts of joy and adulation and the waving of palm branches as people of that day greeted royalty. The name Passion Sunday refers to the reading of the extended Gospel of the Passion. It is the first time that those coming into our Church hear that Gospel proclaimed at a Mass. It is also the beginning of the most sacred time of our Liturgical year, Holy Week. I invite all of you to make an extra effort to be present to Our Lord at this sacred time.

Our Second Collection today is taken up for the Easter Flowers. Thank you for your generous contributions to help beautify the Church during the Easter Season and beyond. Your envelopes with your prayer intentions written on them will remain on the reredos (back altar) throughout the Octave of Easter. Easter is so important and the most solemn feast in the Church year that we celebrate the one day of Easter for 8 days. The Octave concludes with Divine Mercy Sunday or the Second Sunday of Easter.

We tend to get a lot of extra visitors on Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday. Please be mindful of this when parking in the lots. If we could all be a little more considerate of others, especially when coming to Mass, the parking lot would not be left with large areas open and unable to be used because someone wanted to be the first one out. I know that parking single file can try your patience, but it is a good way to learn for ourselves and to teach our children to put others first.

We are in need of 12 people to volunteer for the "Washing of Feet." This is a beautifully symbolic ritual at the Holy Thursday, Mass of the Lord's Supper which is on April 14th at 7:30 p.m. Sign-up sheets are at the back entrances of the Church. It is always nice to get a representative group of people.

God Bless You,

Fr. Bordonaro

Reflect on the Readings

SOMETHING NEW IN CHRIST

Jesus knew that the scribes and Pharisees were trying to trap him. They put him in what seemed to be a no-win situation. Let the woman who was caught in adultery go, and he would have been accused of ignoring the law. Let her be stoned, and he would fail to show mercy toward her, contradicting his life's message. Jesus' response teaches three crucial lessons: none of us is free of sin; we are not the ultimate judges of others; Jesus is the mercy of God, in whom we can always trust. In Christ, God does something new. When we give our hearts to Christ, we have the hope of new life, a life in which mercy reigns. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Next weekend, many churches provide palms to be carried in the opening moments of the liturgy, as we gratefully recall Jesus' entry into the holy city of Jerusalem. The children who greeted him on that day used what was both handy and traditional, since palms were carried to inaugurate the joyful harvest feast of Succoth. To this day, faithful Jews are directed to take a beautiful palm branch, green and straight as possible, called a lulav, and bind it with three myrtle branches fifteen inches long, and two longer willow branches. At the end of the temple service, everyone carries the lulav, circling the sanctuary in a dance called the Hoshanot, singing hymns of joy.

In other climates, Jews and Christians alike have had to make accommodations over the years. In Italy, everyone carries olive branches today, often brought from their own garden. In England, forsythia branches are preferred, a relative of the olive, sign of peace. Germans prefer pussywillows, and others look for flowering spring branches. In our part of the world, what do you think would be the best choice to express joy and welcome, and to remind us of the joy of Christ's victory even as we prepare to commemorate his passion? —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
