For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne
will shepherd them
and lead them to springs of life-giving water.

Revelation 7:17

WE BELONG TO GOD

In the time of Jesus, when multiple flocks of sheep would be gathered, protecting the flock depended heavily on the shepherd's personal recognition of individual sheep, by sight and sound. In today's Gospel, Jesus uses this imagery to speak of how Jesus—with the Father—protects those whom God loves—that is, everyone. Forces that pull us away from God are ultimately no match for the fierce love that God has for us. Our favor with God does not depend on our behaving properly, or gaining theological knowledge, or holding precise beliefs. Our stance with God is primarily about God's insistence that we belong to God, and to no other. Belonging to God, we know that however much we mess up, we are not lost. Belonging to God eventually draws us into a life of care for each other. Belonging to God, we can safely grow into a fuller belonging.

LIGHT TO THE GENTILES

Today's passage from the Acts of the Apostles is one of several turning points in the self-understanding of the early Church. Paul evokes the image of "A light to the Gentiles." Some thought that Gentiles, non-Jews, were somehow marginal in God's eyes. The Gentiles in Paul's audience rejoice, because they now see that they are not "second class" members of God's family, but fully part of God's beloved people. The story continues by noting the resistance from those who enjoy "first class" status in the community, as inclusion of the Gentiles was perceived as a threat to their self-image and privilege.

The book of Acts continues to challenge today's societies, churches, and organizations. Luke's vision of God's family, united as equal heirs to the Kingdom of God, confronts our many barriers of wealth, race, gender, and much more. We are invited to give witness to this vision in our life together as the Church.

WHITE ROBES

Our reading from the Book of Revelation presents the image of God's people before God's throne, wearing robes that are washed white in the blood of the Lamb. A robe, especially when worn in God's presence, is meant to express the real truth about the person. A white robe indicates their purity. The washing in the blood of the Lamb (Jesus) suggests that the people have met much suffering and, in some manner, have participated in the suffering of Jesus.

These passages were written to a people experiencing great tribulations in living their faith. But the author of Revelation does not suggest that anyone should seek out suffering for its own sake. He does not make suffering somehow a necessary entry pass for salvation. Our sufferings come from many sources, and suffering is a profound mystery. The image of washing in blood suggests that God is present within our suffering. God accompanies our suffering, leads us toward refreshment, and will wipe every tear from our eyes.

TODAY'S READINGS

Acts 13:14, 43–52
Psalm 100:1–2, 3, 5
Revelation 7:9, 14b–17
John 10:27–30

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,
The principal of St. Joseph / St. Robert School recently had to resign his position and tend to some family matters and business. We are grateful for all that Mr. D'Andrea did to lead our school through the storm of Covid-19 and wish him well. I am happy to say that Mrs. Jaster, our former principal, was able to return as the interim principal. She very deftly guided our school through the Middle States reaccreditation process and I am happy to report that the visiting team seemed very impressed with our school and will be recommending that we receive reaccreditation. I am also very happy to announce that we have found a new principal. Our search committee reviewed several qualified candidates and we unanimously selected Mrs. Jennifer Durkin, our current Pre-K teacher, as principal beginning in July. Mrs. Durkin has taught either Kindergarten or Pre-Kindergarten at SJR for 12 years. Some of our parishioners would also recognize her as the woman who used to interpret the Sunday Mass into American Sign Language for the hearing impaired.

Happy Mother's Day! We give thanks to God for the special gift of love He has showered on us in our mothers. A mother's love is unlike any other. I hope you enjoy the day celebrating motherhood and families. We remember not only our mothers who are still loving us here on this earth, but also those who are loving us from heaven. We pray for their souls and any healing that they may need to enjoy the all-encompassing love of God. Your Mother's Day envelopes with their various intentions written on them will remain in front of the Blessed Mother Statue as a symbolic way of consistently praying for these women through the month of May. I found the Mother's Day prayer at the end of my column on a Jesuit website.

Thank you also to all those who remembered their loves ones by memorializing our Easter Flowers. This special collection helps us to pay for the flowers and decorations through the season. Once again I want to thank Mrs. Carla Venditti, Mrs. Karen Baranowski, and their team not only for the beautiful, and ever changing arrangements, but also for keeping them going by watering and pruning along the way. It takes a lot of effort and we appreciate all their help.

May God Bless you,
Fr. Bordonaro

A Note From The Pastor (continued...)

A Prayer in Gratitude for Our Mothers

Good and Gentle God,

We pray in gratitude for our mothers and for all the women of theory who have joined with you in the wonder of bringing forth new life. You who became human through a woman, grant to all mothers the courage they need to face the uncertain future that life with children always brings.

Give them the strength to live and to be loved in return, not perfectly, but humanly. Give them the faithful support of husband, family and friends as they care for the physical and spiritual growth of their children. Give them joy and delight in their children to sustain them through the trials of motherhood. Most of all, give them the wisdom to turn to you for help when they need it most.

Reflect on the Readings

GOD'S OVERFLOWING KINDNESS

The superabundance of God's kindness ties all of today's readings together. Especially when life overwhelms us, the Lord provides all we need, and then some. In the Acts of the Apostles, Peter takes the lead when facing the Sanhedrin. We might expect the man who denied Jesus to crumble under the imposing glare of the high priest. Instead, the Holy Spirit helps him testify to his faith in Jesus Christ. What Peter had lacked before, courage and conviction, God provides in abundance. Similarly, today's Gospel shows Jesus providing a surplus of fish for the disciples. They have no luck fishing until the Lord intercedes. Jesus supplies an almost ridiculous number of fish, and he cooks it for them, too. As our reading from Revelation affirms, the overflowing riches of God require constant praise. Countless creatures—"everything in the universe"—cry out to honor the Lord, forever and ever. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Congratulations

We would like to congratulate Kayla Rooney for receiving the ACMP Student Award for service in Liturgical music. The award was given to her at a short service in the Chapel at the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul in Philadelphia. It was followed by the 6:30 p.m.

Mass where Kayla and her sister were chosen to bring up the gifts at Offertory. The night ended with a small reception in the downstairs hall. Thank you to Kayla for her six (6) years of devoted service to Saint Joseph Parish as a member of our Music Ministry! Best of luck to Kayla in the future. Hopefully she will continue her ministry at churches near her college and here at St. Joseph on her summer and holiday school breaks.

CONGRATULATIONS

Treasures from Our Tradition

The reception of Holy Communion at Sunday Mass is such an expected feature of the Mass these days that it is surprising to realize that for many centuries, receiving Communion was a relatively rare event in the life of a faithful Christian. “Easter duty” means that Catholics must celebrate reconciliation if aware of serious sin, and receive Holy Communion during the Easter season. For a while, this was a requirement of Easter week, and later extended to the whole season of fifty days, and even beyond that by a few weeks. For the majority of people long ago, this meant Communion was a once-a-year moment. A rather complex bureaucracy grew up around this rule in the Middle Ages. Amazingly, people received a kind of token at confession admitting them to Communion in their home parish, which then kept careful records and reported them to the bishop.

Surviving records can tell us a great deal about our ancestors. In fact, people were encouraged to journey to the church of their baptism in order to fulfill their duty, and therefore the Easter duty includes in its origins a grateful pilgrimage to the font in which you were first embraced by Christ. If your “Holy Mother Church” is within a drive, why not make a pilgrimage to that font be a feature of your Easter celebration of these fifty days? —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
