ATTENTIVE TO GOD'S PRESENCE

Summer is in full swing and tent camping is often a memory-making part of it—sometimes just because of the difficulties of putting up the tent! In today's first reading we see Abraham sitting at the entrance to his tent and welcoming three unexpected strangers. By the end of the story God's covenant with Abraham is renewed with the promise that Sarah will give birth to a son. Psalm 15 answers the question, "Lord, who may abide in your tent?" The answer leaves little doubt about what is required to live in the presence of the Lord. In his letter to the Colossians Paul confirms that "the mystery" that was hidden from past ages is now being revealed. The Gospel account of Martha and Mary's ways of welcoming Jesus again emphasizes the central truth that God's promise of salvation is real and present—if only we would listen.

CHOOSING THE BETTER PART?

Is it possible to listen to the Gospel story about Mary and Martha without immediately "hearing between the lines" as Martha mutters to herself, "Why do I have to do all the work around here?" Or without always feeling the sting of Jesus' gentle reprimand of Martha? Without slotting our friends into either the "Martha" or "Mary" column? Without quickly "translating" the story into a lesson about the value of listening over action? Interestingly, Mary never says a word in this story. All of the dialogue is between Jesus and Martha. The importance of first listening to Jesus is, without a doubt, essential to discipleship. We need to be deeply rooted in the Word of God if we want to spread the Good News and stand firm in time of trial or temptation. Yet what does that mean when guests need to be fed?

WHEN WORK BECOMES OUR PRAYER

We know that hospitality to strangers was a central value in the cultural world of Jesus. Abraham's welcome of the three strangers at his tent was expected protocol for the time. Sarah's meal-making for the unexpected guests is blessed with welcome news of a son—and the keeping of God's promise to Abraham. Immediately before the Mary and Martha story in the Gospel of Luke is the story of the Good Samaritan. That parable is unwavering about the importance of action—of going out of our way for others. In the Abraham and the Good Samaritan stories, action predominates. Yet in the next chapter of Luke when a woman in the crowd shouts out, "Blessed is the womb that carried you . . .," Jesus responds, "Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it." Hymn-writer Herman Stuenkel expresses well the relationship between action and contemplation when he writes that we thank the Lord both for quiet time and for the Word that accompanies us in our work and helps make that work a prayer.

TODAY'S READINGS

Genesis 18:1–10a
Psalm 15: 2–3, 3–4, 5
Colossians 1:24–28
Luke 10:38–42

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

I apologize for the lack of our weekly bulletin last week. They were finally delivered to us on Monday morning of this week. Both bulletins are available this week. Our bulletin is always available on our website at www.saintjosephchurch.us. In a previous column I told you what a great success our Manna Food Drive was. Our July donations totaled 1,719 pounds. The Coordinating Council of Health and Welfare is very pleased with the donations. Thank you for all your generosity. Thank you also to all the regular monthly volunteers who transport our donations. It is heavy work and they do it faithfully. This year they filled 3 trucks to carry our Manna Food Drive donations.

I was also asked to remind you that donations are available for anyone in need regardless of whether it's temporary (1 or 2 months) or a longer period. Those receiving the food are as anonymous as the donors. They do not have to provide ID or proof of income/residence. To schedule a food pickup simply call 215-672-9422, Monday, Wednesday, or Friday between 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. Anyone calling to schedule a food pickup is asked for a name, a phone number (to verify a pickup or for clarification about the date/time), and an address which gives them an estimation of the distance they're traveling/how long it takes to drive if they're delayed. Anyone can pick up the food, just give the name of the person who requested it.

For more information please visit:
www.warminsterfoodbank.org.

God Bless you,
Fr. Bordonaro

Reflect on the Reading PRAYER AND SERVICE

How do we bring balance and joy to our lives of prayer and service to our loving God?

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells Martha that her concern about doing the right thing as dictated by Jewish tradition might not be the best use of her energies. Her sister, Mary, who sits in rapt attention at Jesus' feet, should not be rebuked. Is Jesus trying to show Martha that she needs to make time for her spiritual nourishment?

Abraham and Sarah in the first reading seem to be just like Martha. And yet Abraham's eager welcome and joyful serving of his "visitors" seems almost spiritual. How like Paul, in the second reading, rejoicing in his service to the gospel!

We hear in the psalm that those who do justice will live in the Lord's presence. Prayer and service—what greater joy could there be? Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Treasures from Our Tradition

There's a different pace to a summer Sunday, especially on those days when we dream of air conditioning and wave any available paper to stir the air. Yet we persist in gathering, even with so many breaks from the usual routines. We distance ourselves not only from routines, but from schedules and familiar well-worn paths. These are playful days and contemplative days. We see long-lost friends and visit almost-forgotten places. We have more leisure than any people before in the history of the world, and we need it because our lives are so care-worn and tiring. More of us walk barefoot and look up at the stars or dip our toes in the lake or sea, sing around campfires, read novels on the beach, and eat comfort food with our fingers. We see how beautiful life can be, and are more aware than usual of how God is always breaking in with signs of love.

In Genesis today, Abraham and Sarah practice hospitality to their visitors, who turn out to be God dropping in. During the summer months, God practices hospitality in return, inviting us into a season of celebration. Keeping Sunday holy is a good habit to cultivate in these days when our spirits are especially receptive to God's deep desire for us to know divine love. — James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Men's Malvern Retreat Weekend for St. Joseph Parishioners

Friday, September 9 (5 p.m.) - Sunday September 11 (noon)

School News

While reflecting on two of the themes shared during today's readings – hospitality and a balanced spiritual life that includes listening to Jesus and service - I thought about how SJR incorporates them into the life of the school so that children, faculty, and staff all grow in their relationship with God.

SJR is a warm, wonderful, and welcoming place. While it's important that children and school families feel welcome, it is also important that all parishioners feel welcome, too. You are welcome to attend open houses that are scheduled during the year and you are also welcome to share your time and talents with the school if you would like to volunteer in some capacity. SJR is your parish school and we're grateful for your prayers and support and would like you to know that there are many ways that you are welcome here.

SJR is a place of prayer and a place of service. Please know that we pray for you. We also incorporate various service projects throughout the school year. If there is a need that you want to make us aware of, please reach out to me.

I also wanted to take a moment to remind you that there are a very few places still available in the Pre-K and Kindergarten classrooms. If you are interested in registering a child, please do so as soon as possible.

Thank you and God bless you. Have a wonderful week.

Mrs. Durkin

You must be registered in St. Joseph parish before signing your child up for CCD and a copy of your child's Baptism certificate is required.

Registration is now open for children entering grades 1 through 7 in the Fall. Our CCD In-house Program is held on Tuesday evenings from 6:00 until 7:15. There is also an opportunity for Family Home Schooling.
