TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 21, 2022

COVENANT RELATIONSHIP

The term “fair-weather friend” might need a technological-era updating. Perhaps “short attention span friend” would work. In our world of multiple communication platforms, it somehow has become increasingly easy to lose track of friends. We shouldn’t be surprised when we reach out and they’ve moved on due to our indifference. The God who is love and whose covenant is one-hundred percent about relationship is depicted in the same way by Jesus today. Hey God, remember us? There was that one time we were really in trouble and you helped out; well, we’re in trouble again. But we may find that God has moved on since we turned out to be only foul-weather friends. The covenant relationship has two parties: God and us. If that covenant relationship falls apart, and we’re no longer “friended” by God, it’s not because God failed as a friend. Keeping up the friendship and relationship with God is equally our responsibility.

FROM EAST TO WEST

With our modern understanding of the world and its various cultures and religions, it’s hard to grasp how shocking Isaiah’s words today would have been to those who first encountered them. After all, they were the people God called “Chosen.” It was easy for them to presume that after the sufferings of exile that God’s freeing redemption would be for them and them alone. Yet here is Isaiah saying that the saving hand of God will extend to all nations, even those of varying ways and languages. Perhaps most shocking to Isaiah’s initial audience would have been today’s final line: that God would take these outsiders and fugitives, elevating them to the priesthood, to include them in the descendants of one of Jacob’s sons, Levi. It’s not difficult to imagine that this sweeping vision of God’s mercy and love beyond the bounds of the Chosen People was met with resistance, much as similar messages are met with resistance today.

FROM NORTH AND SOUTH

Jesus shows himself to be firmly in Israel’s prophetic tradition, a true son of Isaiah today, as he proclaims a similar message. Those who had been chosen as disciples could not presume that merely keeping physical proximity with Jesus or remaining in his company gave them any real claim to call themselves true disciples. As important as table fellowship is in Luke’s Gospel, even eating and drinking with Jesus does not guarantee an eventual seat at the table of God’s reign. Even being a “pureblood” (a descendant of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob) doesn’t make your final destination a sure thing. How the world has placed you into its categories—first or last—just might get scrambled too. It is those who follow Jesus through the “narrow gate” of discipleship, truly abiding by his example who are sure to find themselves reclining at table in the kingdom.

Strive to enter through the narrow gate,
for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough.

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

August is the time to look to the future and the resumption of the academic year for both our school and CCD programs. I hope that it has been and continues to be a restful and restorative summer vacation for all of you. In terms of Sacramental Preparation, St. Joseph Parish will continue participating in the combined program with St. Robert Parish as we have in the past. This cuts down on the number of meetings parents have to attend, providing both a good sacramental preparation for parents along with the opportunity to tailor specific instructions and questions to the individual parish situations.

Our Parent Sacramental Prep Class will be on Sunday, Sep. 25, 2022 at 1:00 p.m. here at St. Joseph. The afternoon is arranged so that every parent attends an opening prayer, and then proceeds to the specific class(es) that pertains to their child and their parish. This one afternoon of preparation will take place in our church and in our lower hall. The sessions are for the parents of children receiving Penance & First Holy Communion (3rd Grade), as well as parents of those making Confirmation (7th Grade). Both SJR school parents and St. Joseph CCD parents of children involved will be notified soon. Please note that St. Robert's parents from both SJR and their CCD classes will also be present.

While you are thinking about the sacraments of your children it is also a good time to remind parents of Confirmation students that you will soon be asked to provide a name of someone to act as a sponsor. A sponsor is someone who witnesses to the faith by the way they live their life. There are certain criteria that the Church uses for these purposes.

- They are 16 years of age or older (and not the parent of the one to be confirmed).
- They are fully initiated as Catholics which means they have received Baptism, First Holy Communion, and Confirmation in the Catholic Faith.

• They demonstrate an acceptance of, and willingness to abide by, the teachings of the Church, which include our marriage regulations (if married - it was celebrated in – or recognized as valid by the Catholic Church), and/or if the prospective sponsor has children, they are educating and forming them in the faith.

- They demonstrate their love and dedication to the faith by going to Sunday Mass weekly and celebrating Penance as needed.

The prospective sponsor will need to get a Letter of Eligibility from the parish where they live and practice their faith. If the sponsor is a member here at St. Joseph, they need to speak with me to receive their certificate. It is always a good idea to give your prospective sponsor enough time to get their letter in case they need to meet with their priest to discuss their situation.

God Bless You!
Fr. Bordonaro

Reflect on the Reading

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Our readings today remind us of the larger story of the Bible, of God's purposes and promises for the world. Because of humanity's rejection of God, as told in Genesis, human communities were first dispersed. Isaiah proclaims that one day God will gather these communities to be healed and reconciled with God. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus echoes Isaiah and teaches that all peoples in God's promised future "will recline at table in the kingdom of God." Notice that in Isaiah, the nations coming to God do not lose their ethnicity or unique identity. They bring their own distinct cultural gifts to God's table. Each people has its unique history with God, has received distinct blessings from God, and each is accountable to God. Today, we live in a global and multi-cultural Church. When God's diverse peoples gather in worship today, may we honor and celebrate each other's gifts and blessings.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Eastern Catholic and Orthodox Christians share a love for the Byzantine liturgy because it is during the Eucharist that the Church is most true to its identity, expresses its integrity, and discovers its vocation. Eastern Catholic and Orthodox Christians celebrate essentially the identical liturgy, with only very slight variations. It is a fairly complex ritual weaving together three separate layers of prayers: a liturgy prayed in the sanctuary by priests, often hidden by a curtain or screen; a liturgy sung by the assembly and led by a deacon in front of a screen formed of painted icons; and a third layer of private prayer by the priest, who prays in support of the deacon and the faithful. It is an eyes-wide-open experience, gorgeous in visuals, and filled with the sound of God's people singing prayer. The energy of the worship centers on the presence of Christ, largely through an awareness of heaven touching earth when the Church gathers to celebrate.

In the late twentieth century, Latin Rite Catholics were encouraged to embrace a style of worship that was "full, conscious, and active," a value that has never been lost in the East. The liturgy has great impact in its beauty, in its poetry and contemplation, and by the actions of bowing, signing with the cross, and chanting that are required of the assembly. Contact with the Eastern Church reveals some key values that have been obscured in our own Church and are slowly being recovered. —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Men's Malvern Retreat Weekend for St. Joseph Parishioners

Friday, September 9 (5 p.m.) - Sunday September 11 (noon) It could be said, "The world is a mess." Fathers are especially concerned about the situations their families face. We look to our Lord and His Mother Mary as spiritual guides to advise us. There is a quiet place nearby to begin the process – Malvern Retreat House. Consider joining several parish members and me in September. Call Paul Hottinger (215-675-4291) to answer any questions you may have. One of the things I love about teaching is the cycle of beginnings and endings. Especially the beginning - It's such a wonderful time to meet new students and families and welcome those that we already know. It's amazing and marvelous to see how much children grow over the course of a summer!

This past Wednesday I had the opportunity to be at the New Family Orientation for those whose children are new to our school this year. Our time together was designed to give families the information they need to start the year confident that their child is in good hands at SJR. It was exciting to look out into the room and anticipate all of the wonderful experiences we will share over the course of the next school year. I want to thank our Advancement Director, Kathy Williamson, our Home and School, and all of the wonderful SJR families who are serving as mentor families for their work in extending SJR hospitality!

This week, the faculty will be back at school preparing for the year ahead. It will be wonderful to have all of our returning and new faculty and staff together for the first time.

I can't help but think of Ecclesiastes 3:1, "There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens." Please keep our students, families, and faculty in your prayers as we begin preparations for the exciting year ahead. You will remain in mine.

God bless you and have a wonderful week!

Mrs. Jennifer Durkin
