in Ordinary Time

GOD OF SECOND CHANCES

If we were reflecting on all of today's scriptures and wanted to come up with one intimate name for God, perhaps it would be "God of Second Chances." Over and over we see examples of God offering just that. In Exodus, the Lord is frustrated by the behavior of the people, and Moses, speaking very boldly, has to talk God into calming down and recalling the covenant with Abraham and Sarah, Isaac and Israel. Psalm 51, "The Miserere," is the great psalm of repentance and cleansing. Take the time to read and pray with the whole psalm at your leisure. Paul confesses his own blasphemy and arrogance, and how Christ is using it now. In the extensive Gospel from Luke we experience Jesus using parables to tell about the widow and the lost coin, the shepherd and the lost sheep, and the lost son and a loving father's welcome.

TAKE ALL THE LOST HOME

In the seventies there was a popular Folk Mass song by Joe Wise, "Take All the Lost Home." It is like our Gospel reading today. For truly, we've all had moments when we have lost our way and needed others to get us back on track. Perhaps this means reconnecting with someone we once knew and making amends, or seeing a therapist to make things right. Maybe it means finally seeking help to stick with the diet and exercise plan, or joining a 12-step program to deal with an addiction. Could it be time to meet with a financial expert to manage credit card debt, or go to confession or meet with a spiritual director to find your way home spiritually? It is hard to ask for help or admit we are lost. We dread the reactions of others, thinking they will be angry, hurt, or defensive. We feel shame. Sometimes people hold grudges for years because neither they nor another will break down and make the first move. We feel fear. This sets us up for the classic story of the prodigal father, where we see two possible outcomes.

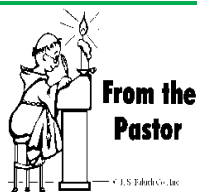

WELCOME HOME

The son returns home and, expecting the worst, confesses his sinfulness. His brother has an angry, self-righteous response, but the Father is full of joy and mercy. Such is the case in all the Gospel parables today. We hear God say, "You are the one who is important." There is another poignant song by Brian Flynn entitled "The Prodigal Father" that presents the perspective of the parent waiting and worrying about their lost child, watching the road and praying for the child's return. And if for some reason your own family will not accept you, you will find that there are many intentional families, friends, and parishes waiting with open arms to welcome you. Or perhaps you can offer the same welcome to another returning soul.

TODAY'S READINGS

Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14
Psalm 51:3-4, 12-13, 17, 19
1 Timothy 1:12-17
Luke 15:1-32 [1-10]

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,
I hope you enjoyed a good Labor Day holiday. Our SJR school children started back to school last week with all of the Archdiocesan guidelines in place.

For the past 4 weeks I have been following the doctor's advice to stay off my feet as much as possible after my knee surgery. Therefore I have not been able to make my regular Communion calls. I apologize to those who are homebound. I know how much they look forward to receiving Our Blessed Lord in the Eucharist. I am grateful to our "weekend" priests for their help saying the weekday and Sunday Masses and covering for any emergencies, but I cannot ask them to make my monthly communion visits. Some of our Extraordinary Ministers have resumed making home visits and I am grateful to them as well. I want to invite those who have not yet returned to making these visits to consider if now might be the time. If anyone is willing to become an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion and help with distributing Holy Communion both at Mass and to the homebound, please consider serving our community now. In order to be an Extraordinary Minister, one must be fully initiated, (Baptism, Communion, and Confirmation), abiding by the teachings of the Church (if married – in a marriage recognized by the Church, and living by the moral teachings of the Church) and regular in the practice of the faith (attends Sunday Mass and receives the Sacrament of Reconciliation regularly). If you are willing to help with this ministry there is a onetime training that is required, please contact me, call the rectory, or Ann Trotter and let us know.

Our team is also preparing to offer the RCIA or Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults again this year. This is the special program where those who are interested in becoming Catholic, whether they have never been baptized or were raised in another faith, can learn more about our faith and receive the sacraments to become a Catholic. Things will be different this year due to the virus, but please know that we will provide the opportunity to those interested in becoming Catholic or completing their Initiation. If you know someone interested, please have them contact the rectory about attending our Night of Inquiry on Wednesday, September 28th at 7:00 p.m. in classroom 18. No commitment is necessary, the meeting is just to find out what is involved. We will have to abide by all social distancing requirements, and we ask you to wear a mask.

We are also in real need of adults who are interested in our faith and willing to become members of our RCIA Team. You don't need to be a professional speaker or teacher, but just someone who is in love with our faith and willing to share that with others. This year we will be using a "leader friendly" DVD series. (Continued on page 4)

Team members will show the instructional video and then facilitate some discussion and sharing about the faith. Many times, the leaders tell me that they receive just as much from the work as the candidates and catechumens. If interested in joining our RCIA Team, please call me at the rectory 215-672-3020 and register.

God Bless You!
 Fr. Bordonaro

Reflect on the Reading

RELYING ON GOD'S LOVE

Imagine being among those who heard Jesus address the Pharisees and scribes in the encounter we hear in today's Gospel: "What man among you having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it?" Would you leave ninety-nine in the desert in order to find one lost sheep? In the parable, Jesus is showing us the depths of God's love, the illogical, incredible love God has for each of us. Moses counted on this loving mercy as he spoke for the wandering people; Saint Paul acknowledges his reliance on it in his letter to Timothy. God desires to draw you close, seeking you when you are lost. Are you ready to be drawn into God's loving embrace?

Treasures from Our Tradition

Although New Year's Day has been fixed firmly on January 1 for several hundred years, Labor Day has the feel of a great dividing line between leisure and routine. The pace of life has since picked up, and new schedules and commitments crowd us. In the background is God's call to consider the third commandment, still life-giving and binding, to make holy the Lord's Day by worship and rest. Jews see the Sabbath, Saturday, not so much as a day of worship, but as a day of rest, a day of renewing friendship with God by delighting in the beauty of creation and the joy of family and friends. It is a day for contemplating the wonder of God's creation, but not disturbing it.

For Christians in the first three centuries, the Lord's Day, Sunday, was not for rest, but worship. It was a regular work day. People met before dawn, and after Eucharist hurried off to daily routines. Today we come to Mass, but many hurry off to essential work, not a day of rest. The Lord's Day is not the Sabbath, but we can enhance Sunday's ability to transform us if we consider embracing some Sabbath values: having a family meal, going for a walk in a beautiful place, making room in our lives to open ourselves more fully to holiness of life in Christ. —James Field, Copyright © J. Mrs. Jennifer Durkin, Principal

There is nothing more exciting than the beginning of the school year! It is so wonderful to see the older students reconnecting with each other. And while our youngest learners begin that first day with trepidation, it’s delightful to see their smiling faces not very long after.

This coming Tuesday evening, September 13th, we will have our first Home and School Meeting of the year at 7:00 p.m. It will be a great opportunity for parents to find out a little bit more about upcoming events and to get information about preventing bullying behavior from our speaker, Mr. Ron Rolon, an Olweus certified trainer in this area. We live in a world that seems more and more uncivil each day. At SJR we teach Catholic values about the inherent dignity of each person. Bullying is never acceptable and to find ways for home and school to work together to be sure that it doesn’t become a problem is important. I’m looking forward to the discussion and hope to see a lot of parents there. Mr. Rolon will be an excellent resource and we can be a source of information, support, and prayer for each other throughout the year.

Tuesday is also our “Rita’s Spirit Night” Fundraiser. I encourage you go to the Rita’s at 611 & County Line Rd any time between 12:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. on Tuesday, September 13th. SJR will get a portion of the proceeds and you will get a delicious treat! Just be sure to mention SJR HSA (Home and School Association) Fundraiser.

The parishioners of St. Joseph and St. Roberts parishes were our announced intentions during our morning prayer this week as we opened school.

God bless you and have a wonderful week!
