A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

It's that time of year again when you will soon be receiving our Annual Stewardship Appeal letter. I ask you to give your donation serious thought and prayer. This is an important appeal for the running of your parish. All of the money raised as part of this appeal stays here at St. Joseph parish and helps to keep the parish operating. Ever since COVID hit, we never returned to full participation. There is no way that St. Joseph Parish could survive simply on the weekly contributions collected. We depend on your generosity throughout the year, but especially during this important outreach. Please believe me that your generosity is sincerely appreciated. If you are not able to make the requested contribution, please make whatever donation that you feel is appropriate and supportive of your parish and know that it does make a difference. I also want to remind you that the Family Update and Information form is included with this appeal. Please take the time to fill out the form so that our records can be as current as possible. If a child is away at college, but he/she still resides at home, please be sure to include them. If they have moved out of the house, please let us know that too.

This Wednesday September 28th we will have our Night of Inquiry for those interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith or considering entering it. If you know someone who might be inclined to find out more about the faith, perhaps God is using you to be His evangelist. The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) program meets on Wednesday evenings in classroom 18 through the Fall, Winter and Spring. If you or someone you know is considering it, please contact the rectory at 215-672-3020 and let us know you plan on attending.

This past week I met with the parents of our children attending CCD and this week will be their first classes. Please keep the young people and our catechists and volunteers in your prayers for a good and fruitful year.

As part of our 100th Anniversary celebration, we will celebrate our 40 Hours with a special "Eucharistic Retreat." Our Homilist for 40 Hours will be Fr. Pio Mandato, FMHJ. Fr. Pio is a Franciscan priest living as a missionary hermit. When summarizing his "Eucharistic Retreat" he says, "Jesus' whole life can be summarized as the offering of Himself in sacrifice on the cross so we could share in deep communion and intimacy with His Father in the Spirit (Hb. 10:12). Three words that synthesize this teaching which is embodied in the Eucharist are presence, sacrifice and communion. These words are the very core of any act of authentic love. The retreat will focus on these Eucharistic realities in the life of the Lord and pray for the grace so we may enter into them.

Our 40 Hours will be on Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday October 16, 17, and 18 at 7:00 p.m. Confessions will begin at 6:00 p.m. and the service will start at 7:00 p.m. There will be opportunities for confession, the celebration of Evening Prayer and benediction, and on Tuesday, a healing prayer service with the opportunity to be blessed with the glove of St. Padre Pio. ## A Note From The Pastor (continued)

Even though the unthinkable happened, that is, the Roe v. Wade decision legalizing abortion has been overturned, the work protecting life is not over. October is still Protect Life month. The U.S. Bishops Conference encourages us to continue praying and working to support life. This week it reflects on the Blessed Mother's support and inspiration. "The witness of our Blessed Mother invites us to become more aware of the needs of pregnant and parenting moms in our own parishes and communities... Following Mary's example, we can ask ourselves how to better know these mothers, listen to them, seek understanding, and help them obtain the necessities of life for themselves and their children. How can we, like the Blessed Mother, lovingly support mothers in welcoming and caring for God's gift of life?"

God Bless you,
Fr. Bordonaro

Reflect on the Reading

CARE FOR EACH OTHER

Don't delude yourselves, Jesus says through the parable of the rich man and Lazarus. We really are supposed to care for others. It is not enough to go to Mass and occasionally serve at a parish or outreach function. We cannot remain complacent and consider ourselves followers of Jesus. No matter how much or how little material wealth we have, we always have something to give—our time and attention, care, and, when possible, our money. The way we treat and care for others, especially the poor and vulnerable, is the manner in which we show our love of God. As disciples, we must "pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness." Jesus calls us to see and respond to the least among us, because, as God's children, we are all part of one another. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Movie Night

A new movie will be available on Oct. 3rd and 4th at 7 p.m. (2 nights only) at Warrington Crossing Regal cinema. The title of the movie is "Mother Teresa: No Greater Love." The movie was produced by the Knights of Columbus and focuses on Mother Teresa's singular vision to serve Christ in the poor, which continues to be realized through the Missionaries of Charity today.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Over the past century, a desire to recover a deep sense of unity among all believers in Christ has grown. The "ecumenical movement" (from the Greek word meaning the "the whole inhabited world") began among Protestant Christians, but was given great energy in 1920 with a letter from the Orthodox Patriarch of Constantinople, calling for closer dialogue and cooperation among Christians. In 1960, Pope John XXIII invited Protestant and Orthodox observers to the Second Vatican Council. In 1964, the Council's Decree on Ecumenism named these Christians "separated brethren," a huge leap forward from the time of labeling them as "outside the Church." A year later, a new pope, Paul VI, and the Orthodox Patriarch officially nullified the condemnations that walled off East from West for nine hundred years.

The pace and optimism of the 1960s has sadly waned, and the signs of progress toward unity are few; yet there are wider agreements on sharing Communion among various Christian denominations, and among Protestants agreements regarding sharing of ecclesiastical life and ministry. Among the success stories of the ecumenical movement are greater cooperation among Christian clergy, a similar Lectionary for Protestants and Catholics, and even experiments in the monastic life and common worship.

This week each class attended the annual Forty Hours Devotion at St. Robert's for some quiet time spent with Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament. It was a lovely way to begin the week and we were grateful for the opportunity.

Last week the Home and School hosted a Family Movie Night for the families at SJR! "Minions: The Rise of Gru" was enjoyed together on a beautiful night in the parking lot outside of school. These Home and School events are so much fun and such a wonderful way for new students and their families to meet others in the school community and for returning families to re-connect in this new school year. This week, there was an updated version of "The Covered Dish Dinner." We called it "It's so Sweet to Meet You!" It was a desserts only event with sweets, games, and balloon animals. This event was for the youngest learners in our school, many of whom are new to the community, to come out and spend time together socially. When members of a school community feel connected, students are more likely to engage fully at school, parents can support each other, and any future problems that may arise are more likely to be solved collaboratively. We are so blessed to have such an active and enthusiastic HSA to make our community so much fun and to provide such important opportunities to build relationships.

Our "Apple of My Eye" winners this week are Ryker
