A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

This Tuesday, October 4th, is the Church's feast of St. Francis of Assisi. St. Joseph Church will host our annual Blessing of the Animals in honor of St. Francis this Sunday, October 2nd at 1:00 p.m. Please bring your leashed animals to the grassy area between the two back parking lots for a brief prayer service and blessing.

October is also the time when we have our "October Count" during Masses. We count all those in attendance at all of our Saturday night and Sunday Masses and forward those numbers to the Archdiocese. Please pardon the additional clicking noise during Mass, and thank you to our ushers for taking the count.

As part of our 100th Anniversary celebration, we will celebrate our 40 Hours with a special "Eucharistic Retreat." Our Homilist for 40 Hours will be Fr. Pio Mandato, FMHJ. Fr. Pio is a Franciscan priest living as a missionary hermit. Fr. Pio was born in Italy and along with his brother Vincenzo, received his first holy communion from Saint Pio before coming to the USA. He grew up in New Jersey and entered the Capuchin Franciscans at the age of 17, and was ordained in 1985. In 1998 he was accepted in the diocese of Scranton, Pa., and now lives a life of solitude, prayer, and intercession. He is also Chaplain to the Capuchin Sisters of Nazareth and at times is engaged in the preaching apostolate. When summarizing his "Eucharistic Retreat" he says, "Jesus' whole life can be summarized as the offering of Himself in sacrifice on the cross so we could share in deep communion and intimacy with His Father in the Spirit (Hb. 10:12). Three words that synthesize this teaching which is embodied in the Eucharist are presence, sacrifice and communion. These words are the very core of any act of authentic love. The retreat will focus on these Eucharistic realities in the life of the Lord and pray for the grace so we may enter into them.

Our 40 Hours will be on Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday October 16, 17, and 18. There will be opportunities for confession, the celebration of Evening Prayer and benediction, and on Tuesday, a healing prayer service with the opportunity to be blessed with the glove of Padre Pio.

October is annually observed as Respect Life Month in Catholic Churches across our nation. Archbishop William Lori, the chairman of the U.S. Bishop's Conference Committee on Pro-Life activities has written a reflection, Building a Culture of Life in a Post-Roe World. Below is an excerpt of his letter.

God Bless you, Fr. Bordonaro

An Answer to Prayer

The Supreme Court's reversal of Roe v. Wade is, without question, an answer to prayer. In its opinion in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, the Justices ended the Court's nearly fifty-year nationwide regime of abortion on demand; a regime that was based on the indefensible view that the U.S. Constitution implicitly forbids government from protecting the preborn child in the womb from the violence of abortion. A Note From The Pastor (continued)

The Supreme Court in Dobbs concluded that there is nothing in the Constitution's text, history, American legal tradition, or the Court's precedents that justified the extreme holding of Roe. Therefore, it returned the issue of abortion to be decided by the people's elected representatives, who had exercised such authority from our nation's founding until the Roe decision in 1973. In so doing, the Supreme Court in Dobbs cleared the way for a paradigm shift in American law, allowing it to enlarge its boundaries to again welcome a segment of the human family that had been outside of its protections for close to half a century.

Dobbs, then, is a victory for justice, the rule of law, and self-governance. But for those of us who have prayed for this moment to arrive, it is the time for a renewal and rededication of our efforts to build a culture of life and civilization of love. Justice is, of course, essential to this end. But it is not sufficient. To build a world in which all are welcome requires not only justice, but compassion, healing, and above all, unconditional love.

Reflect on the Reading THE GIFT OF FAITH

Faith is a gift. When the disciples asked Jesus to increase their faith, they were going to the source of that faith with their request. God is the giver of all good gifts, including faith. When we put our faith in Christ, we believe that God is with us, even though we cannot physically see God. Or can we? If we are attentive, we see the evidence of God's presence in the love of family and friends, care poured out in service of our neighbors, the living beauty of creation. This is not blind faith, but rather is the result of seeing with the eyes of faith. Followers of Jesus look beyond what is apparent to see what is possible with the power and presence of the Holy Spirit within and among us. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Movie Night

A new movie will be available on Oct. 3rd and 4th at 7 p.m. (2 nights only) at Warrington Crossing Regal cinema. Treasures from Our Tradition

Sometimes human relationships go awry, but Christ's choice for us is irrevocable. In marriage celebrations, the Church always recalls God's faithfulness to help prepare married couples for enduring the inevitable rough spots. The Byzantine liturgy does this by adorning the couple with crowns that remind them of the martyr's crown. The couple therefore takes on a vocation of witnessing to the sacredness of life in all of its suffering and joy, and of keeping their eyes fixed on the banquet of heaven.

In Eastern theology, people have a liturgical vocation to give God praise, and marriage fits within that plan. It is not so much saying prayers that counts, but becoming prayer. Interestingly, in this liturgy the couple never utters a word other than joining in the community's chants; there are no marriage vows as such. There is therefore not a hint of our Western Christian sense that marriage is a legal contract. Rather, it is all about living out one's baptismal vocation, embracing the cross, pouring oneself out in love, and opening to the grace of the Holy Spirit. —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Mrs. Jennifer Durkin, Principal

When you are a part of a community, it's so wonderful to be able to celebrate the accomplishments of one another. There is so much to celebrate and so much to be grateful for!

We get to celebrate Ben W., a fifth grader at SJR who has been recognized as an Archdiocesan winner of the 2021-2022 Missionary Childhood Association Christmas Artwork Contest. As a winner, his artwork will be displayed at the Archdiocesan celebration of World Mission Sunday in October, in the Pontifical Mission Societies' annual Christmas card and communications, in the lobby of the Archdiocesan Pastoral Center during Advent, and on the website phillymissions.org. Congratulations to Ben and his family!

We can celebrate the families of students in the school and in the parishes who will be receiving sacraments this year. They gathered for Sacrament Sunday last week at St. Joseph Church. It was a lovely afternoon and an exciting glimpse of the wonderful gifts those students and families will be receiving this year. Please keep all of these students and their families in your prayers.

We're also happy to be able to celebrate the kind and helpful works of our Apple of My Eye winners this week: Bella G., Joey B., Paul K., Maddie M., and Emma R.

We're grateful for the large and small ways they contribute to the SJR community!

We are grateful for the support our community receives from outside agencies in the area. The Bucks County Intermediate Unit is a wealth of resources for us. Mr. Ron Rolon, an Olweus Bullying Prevention Specialist, spoke at our first Home and School meeting. This past week, he came in to speak with our third through fifth grade students about supporting each other and our sixth through eighth grade students about being a peer leader and role model. He has given us all much to think about and additional strategies for developing these important skills. As always, our school community is grateful for you, too, and we keep the members of our supporting parishes in our prayers. God bless you and have a wonderful week!
