A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

This week we welcome Fr. Pio Mandato as our homilist for our Parish celebration of Forty Hours. Fr. Pio is a Franciscan priest who received his first holy communion from St. Padre Pio before coming to the USA. He is known for his preaching about St. Padre Pio and the Eucharist. Our church will expose the Blessed Sacrament on the altar after the regular Masses on Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, starting today. We will celebrate Evening Prayer and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 7:00 p.m. each of these three nights. Priests will be available for confession starting at 6:00 p.m. each night. You can use these three days as a type of "mini-retreat." Please sign up for an hour on the sheets at the exits of the church. The Blessed Sacrament should not be unattended. Schedule some time to make a visit to the Blessed Sacrament during the day or early evening and pray. You can use the time to pray a rosary, or do some reading of scripture, or meditate about your life, or simply be present to God in whatever way inspires you. Just invite the Lord into your mind and heart and tell Him what is going on with you, or just rest in His presence. On Tuesday, a healing prayer service with the opportunity to be blessed with the glove of St. Padre Pio will follow Evening Prayer. Please note that we will not have the regular Monday Night Rosary on the 17th.

Please consider purchasing your tickets to our 100th Anniversary Parish Banquet at the Spring Mill Manor on Friday, October 21st. We really need your support to help make this celebration a success and we need to get an accurate count of those attending. You can purchase tickets after Sunday Masses, at the rectory, or on our parish website. Please note that you will not be able to purchase tickets the day of the banquet at the door.

Next week we will celebrate World Mission Sunday on October 23, 2022. Archbishop Pérez has asked that we communicate the following letter in preparation for the Collection. God Bless you, Fr. Bordonaro

October, 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On October 23rd, we will join Catholics around the world to celebrate World Mission Sunday to highlight and support the Missions of the Church.

This year's theme is "You shall be My Witnesses." (Acts 1: 8) Pope Francis has used this theme to call every Christian to bear witness to Christ, to participate in a Mission of universal evangelization, and to seek strength and guidance from the Holy Spirit.

Since its beginning in 1822, the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, one of the Pontifical Mission Societies, has provided millions of dollars to support new and growing Churches in the United States alone. Your prayers and generous support today sustain priests, religious, and lay pastoral leaders in 1,111 Mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, and the Pacific Islands as well as parts of Latin America and Europe. This support is essential to their (Continued on page 4) vital work among some of the poorest communities to proclaim the Gospel, build the Church, and serve a variety of temporal needs.

Blessed Pauline Jaricot began this work 200 years ago at the young age of seventeen. Pope Francis reminds us, “She accepted God’s inspiration to establish a network of prayer and collection for missionaries so that the faithful could actively participate in the mission ‘to the ends of the earth.’” Her vision would lead to World Mission Sunday, which helps the Pope support Missionary activity.

When you contribute to the World Mission Sunday collection, you make it possible for the Holy Father to provide for the formation of our seminarians and religious men and women. You assist in building the schools and orphanages that care for children in places few visit. Missionaries can build churches in areas with scarce resources, buy food and the bare essentials that make it possible to proclaim the Gospel and celebrate the Sacraments.

I personally encourage your generosity on World Mission Sunday and share my gratitude for your openhearted response on this special day. While your prayers remain your greatest gift, your financial support is life-giving to our brothers and sisters in the world’s most vulnerable communities. It enables missionaries to work and witness to Christ, as it enables each one of us to be the Lord’s witnesses.

Gratefully yours in Christ,

+Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez, D.D.

Archbishop of Philadelphia

Reflect on the Reading PERSISTENCE

Exodus recounts the journey of the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt to the land promised to their ancestors. It was not an easy journey. In today’s reading, they are attacked by Amalek and his soldiers, members of one of the peoples who live in the land through which the Israelites are traveling. Moses was on the hilltop with his arms raised to invoke the LORD’s assistance in the battle below, a powerful illustration of the LORD’s favor upon Israel. If the soldiers were to lift up their eyes to that hill (see Psalm 121:1), they would be reassured by Moses’s presence and posture. Paul urges the Thessalonians to persist in proclaiming the gospel, and Jesus likewise commends the widow for her persistence in pursuit of the justice due her. Whether they preach or pray, the followers of Jesus need persistence through periods of difficulty. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Although the hours of daylight are rapidly dwindling, many people would say that these October days bring the year's most splendid weather. Americans are riders and joggers, not strollers, and so the pleasures of the season are often lost on us. This is not the case with many Jewish people, who observe an ancient rule in walking to synagogue on the Sabbath. On city streets and suburban sidewalks in many cities, we may notice around sunset the nicely dressed families walking and chatting on Friday afternoon. After a short prayer at dusk, the families stroll home again for a relaxing and festive meal. They return to synagogue in the morning, and then spend an afternoon in family leisure until three stars appear in the night sky and Sabbath ends.

Catholics, on the other hand, pile into the car and drive even a short distance to Mass; some even divide the family to participate at different hours. For Jews, the leisurely walk marks a dividing line between hectic life commitments and a day of abundant joy and enrichment. Before we became an automobile culture, Catholics embraced a similar pace, and in most places walked to church. These lovely days of fall invite us to tap into an old and life-giving tradition. If you live within a mile of your church, walk next week. If you must drive, park at a good distance and walk the rest of the way. Talk about your life, greet strangers, notice the crunch of leaves under your shoes. You may be surprised at how different Sunday Mass feels when it is framed by leisure! James Field, Copyright © J. Mrs. Jennifer Durkin, Principal

In the first reading, we hear that Moses had an awesome task in holding up the staff of God to keep the battle in hand for the Israelites. "Moses' hands, however, grew tired; so, they put a rock in place for him to sit on. Meanwhile Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side and one on the other, so that his hands remained steady till sunset." God is good in that he places us in positions where we need each other. I had the wonderful opportunity to join this week with other principals from around the Archdiocese of Philadelphia for a conference and for communal prayer and retreat. I am so grateful for their prayers, support and assistance. I am grateful for yours as well.

While I was at the conference, teams of girls from 6th, 7th and 8th grade had the opportunity to support each other as they competed in The Sciathlon, an annual science competition held at Villa Joseph Marie High School, Holland, PA. I am looking forward to hearing all about their experience. Congratulations to our competitors, Adde, Nina, Emma, Ashely, Eloise, Angella, Abby, Bella, Nellie, Maddie, Emma, Lynette, and our alternates Hannah and Sophia.

Congratulations, too, to our Apple of My Eye winners this past week: Nellie, Liam, Addie, Olivia, and Giulianna! Thank you for making SJR such a special place to be and for providing such an excellent model to the rest of our school community!

Thanks to the generosity of our students and their families, we were able to donate over seven hundred dollars to the Red Cross for Hurricane Ian relief efforts for the people in Florida. The proceeds were raised by our Home and School from our first Dress Down Day of the school year. The people in Florida are in our daily prayers at school.

Thank you, too, to Connor, Danny, Colin, Emma, Declan, Bella, Hannah, Sammy, Adde, Gavin, and Peter for their help during Oktoberfest. They did a great job running some of the children's games. We're so lucky to have the service opportunities that a vibrant parish community provides!
