Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 30, 2022

“The Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost.”

Luke 19:10

GOD’S MERCY

It is difficult for us to comprehend God’s mercy. We are constrained by our own experience of and often-limited willingness to be patient and forgiving. God loves all of creation and desires that we fulfill our call, glorifying our Lord in all we do. Yet we often fall short of this great purpose. We get lost in the pursuit of worldly things and lose sight of what really matters. Then, when we realize our failings, we falter, uncertain that we can really be forgiven. Today’s readings invite us to deepen our trust in God’s great kindness with the assurance that, as Jesus did with Zacchaeus, God waits with open arms when we turn away from our sinfulness. Let us grow in belief in Christ who came to seek and to save what was lost.

THE LORD HEARS THE CRY OF THE POOR

Zacchaeus was a tax collector and a wealthy man; it is likely he had amassed his wealth by charging more taxes than were due. While materially wealthy, he was derided by his fellow Jews, known as a sinner, isolated from the company of his people. He had become curious about Jesus. So much so that he climbed a tree to see Jesus as he passed by. And from that vantage point, he saw his weaknesses and failings clearly. When Jesus called, he responded, a changed man. Are we ready to go up in a tree of prayer and reflection, peer into our hearts and lives, and grow in readiness to change?

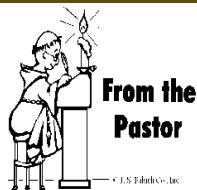

COME DOWN QUICKLY

“Come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house.” Jesus’ call to Zacchaeus was likely as surprising to Zacchaeus as it was to those who watched this encounter. The Gospel story is not only about Zacchaeus’ change of heart. It is also about Jesus’ eagerness to bring Zacchaeus into the fold, to show him mercy and forgiveness, to “seek and to save what was lost.” Jesus calls us out of our sinfulness, too. He is ready to forgive and to stay with us, to be near to us as we embrace new life as his disciples. Zacchaeus claimed his sinfulness and named what he would do to repair his relationship with God and others. This is what we do in the sacrament of Reconciliation—we name our sins, make a promise to do penance, repair our relationship with God and others, and receive forgiveness, restored in our relationship with Christ. Reflect on Zacchaeus’ example: what failings and sinfulness do you need to claim? Are you ready to hear Jesus’ call to you? Come down quickly. Receive the mercy of the Lord and know that salvation can be yours.

TODAY’S READINGS

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

Happy "All Hallows' Eve!"

While our young people enjoy the celebration of dressing in costume and collecting candy, it is good to remind them that part of the Christian roots of this secular holiday involved our belief in the saints in heaven praying for us. All Saints Day (Nov. 1st) is also known as All Hallows' Eve. The day before All Saints is known as All Hallows' Eve which is where we get the word Halloween from. The day after All Saints, Nov. 2nd, is All Souls Day. It is the day that we set aside to pray for all those souls that have experienced bodily death and are not yet united with God in heaven. We pray for the healing and purification of their souls so that they will be united with God. These holy days are good reminders that our Church (the Communion of Saints) is much bigger than just the here and now.

This year, because All Saints Day is on Tuesday and it is a Holy Day of Obligation our Mass schedule is: Vigil Mass on Monday Oct. 31st at 5:30 p.m., Masses on Tuesday are at 8:00 and 10:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. On Wednesday, All Souls Day, we will have Mass at 8:00 a.m. Of course we will remember and pray for all those who have been buried from St. Joseph parish since its founding and especially those we lost over this past year. Feel free to add the names of your deceased loved ones to our St. Joseph Book of the Dead. Your All Souls envelopes with your prayer intentions will be on the altar throughout the month of November.

Once again a special thank you for all those who helped with our closing out of the centennial year of St. Joseph parish. We had an awesome 40 Hours experience from Fr. Pio Mandato. Our Anniversary Banquet was a beautiful affair and our closing Mass with Archbishop Perez was truly magnificent.

Thanks to all those on the Anniversary Committee. They did a great job throughout the year. In particular I want to recognize Mrs. Rita Roley and her team who organized the various socials and other things. I also want to thank Mr. and Mrs. Bill and Rosemary Hronchak who worked so hard on compiling our parish history, and stories, and photographs. By the way if you were not able to see these items at the banquet they are on display in Classroom 18, which was beautifully renovated for the Anniversary. I also want to thank and recognize our tremendous choir led by Maria Lennon. They did an outstanding job providing our Anniversary liturgies with inspiring, uplifting and truly beautiful music throughout the yearlong celebration.

If you would like to have a commemorative 100th Anniversary mug you can purchase them at the rectory or after the Sunday Masses (they make great Christmas presents). Our personal St. Joseph Christmas cards can be purchased as well.

As you are doing your Christmas shopping I want to remind you to consider an opportunity that helps St. Joseph Parish. Amazon Smile is a way that people who usually buy things on Amazon can have a portion of the purchase price contributed to institutions that qualify as a 501c3, which our parish does. It costs the customer nothing and helps out the parish. AmazonSmile is a website operated by Amazon with the same products, prices, and shopping features as Amazon.com. The difference is that when you shop on AmazonSmile, the AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price of eligible products to the charitable organization of your choice. If you are an Amazon Prime member you can also use AmazonSmile. Go to www.smile.amazon.com. Sign up for an Amazon Smile account. To select your charity search for St. Joseph Parish, Warrington. Please note, use the word Parish, not Church. God Bless you, Fr. Bordonaro

Reflect on the Reading A COMPASSIONATE GOD

Today's reading from the book of Wisdom presents an image of a patient God who "rebuke[s] offenders little by little" (Wisdom 12:2), an image endorsed by the psalmist, singing of how the LORD is "slow to anger and of great kindness, and compassionate toward all his works" (Psalm 145:8, 9). The crowd with Jesus, however, grumbles when they see Jesus's kindness and compassion extended to Zacchaeus, who was not just a tax collector, but the "chief tax collector"—a title that surely emphasizes his standing as a sinner to be scorned. In the second reading, Saint Paul urges the Thessalonians to be "worthy" of God's calling, so that "the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you" (2 Thessalonians 1:12); such people, unlike the crowd in the Gospel, would rejoice at Zacchaeus's determination to change his life after encountering Jesus.

Treasures from Our Tradition

The Solemnity of All Saints and the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed fit well at the beginning of November. The liturgical readings of this final month in the Church year are keyed to the end of time and the fulfillment of Jesus' saving acts. Nowhere is this more fully celebrated than in Mexico, where November 2 is the "Day of the Dead." Missionaries moved an ancient Aztec festival from midsummer to November, linking the festival to Christian themes. Today, it is a time for remembering the dead and celebrating the continuity of life, principally by festive picnics in cemeteries. There are special foods and games, and people socialize with other families and tell favorite stories about their dear ones. The sweetness of life is honored by sugary desserts and treats. Flowers, music, lights, and feasting assure that the day is not at all morbid. Traditionally, the day begins with Mass, a procession to the cemetery, and a morning feast. Most families have a special dinner with the pan de muerto, or "bread of the dead." A toy skeleton is baked into the loaf, and the one who bites into it is considered lucky indeed. The dead are not feared, but deeply loved, and this joyful family feast points both to age-old customs and Resurrection faith. —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

ST. JOSEPH/ST. ROBERT SCHOOL
FOCUSED ON FAITH AND LEARNING

850 Euclid Avenue, Warrington, PA 18976

215-343-5100 www.stjstr.org

Mrs. Jennifer Durkin, Principal

What a busy and wonderful week at St. Joseph/St. Robert School! The early childhood students in Pre-K through 2nd grade had a visit from the firefighters to learn about fire safety, see and hear a firefighter in full gear to not be afraid should they ever need assistance from one, and, of course, to see the firetruck! The kindergarten through 2nd grade students were joined by parents for a pumpkin painting event. And the entire school was welcome to join in our Trunk or Treat! SJR was out in the community last weekend at the Valley Square Fall Fest to spread the word about our Fall Open House tours for prospective students on November 12th.

In today's gospel reading we are reminded of how an encounter with Jesus can change someone's life forever. This emphasizes the importance of being a missionary disciple and bringing Jesus to others, which is the mission of our school. In Archbishop Perez's homily to the women gathered for the Catholic Women's Conference last weekend I heard the words, "Be not afraid" and at Mass with principals from around the archdiocese at a recent conference I was reminded that missionary disciples must "Be bold, be truthful, and be not afraid." During this "scary" season when children are enjoying the spookiness of Halloween, I pray that we can "be not afraid" as we provide by our words and our actions how an encounter with Jesus continues to change lives.

As always, thank you to all of you who keep SJR in your prayers. It was wonderful to be at St. Joseph Parish 100th Anniversary Banquet. Thank you also to our Apple of My Eye winners - Drew, Emma, Colin, Navya, and Patrick - whose kindness and thoughtfulness make SJR such a wonderful place to be.

God bless you and have a wonderful week!
