A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

This week we will be celebrating Thanksgiving. You are invited to join us for a Mass on Thanksgiving morning, November 24th at 9:00 A.M. Please note the time change. There will be no 8:00 Mass that day. We will bless freshly baked bread at the Mass and then you can take it home to your Thanksgiving tables.

We have started our Giving Tree program. This is the annual opportunity to provide gifts to the less fortunate. We ask you to take a "gift tag" off the tree in the sanctuary, which identifies a specific need for the various charitable organizations that we help. Then you are asked to supply a gift card in the amount of $25 - $35 from a department store, or check to St. Joseph (for tuition) to help meet the particular need. We ask that you return the cards to the Giving Tree Box, placed at the base of the tree, by Dec. 12th so they may be distributed to those in need, with enough time to get their shopping done. The people of this parish have always been very generous with this program and we are very grateful for your support.

I found the following Thanksgiving reflection online <https://catholic-daily-reflections.com/2020/11/25/a-grateful-heart-2/> and I thought it was very appropriate.

Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Luke 17:17-18

Happy Thanksgiving! Though Thanksgiving Day is not specifically a Catholic holy day, it certainly goes hand in hand with our life of faith. Spiritually speaking, we all know that gratitude is central to the Gospel message. Thanksgiving Day presents us with the perfect opportunity to look at this particular aspect of our faith. We are called to be eternally and deeply grateful. How grateful to God are you?

Perhaps we all struggle in various ways with gratitude. It's fair to say that we will never be grateful enough until we are perfected in Heaven. But, for now, it's important to look at gratitude and to try to let it increase in our souls.

First, we will never be grateful unless we see clearly all that God has done for us. It's so easy in life to focus in on all the struggles we face and, as a result, to get down, depressed, frustrated and even angry at times. What's far more challenging is to look beyond the crosses and burdens we face each day to see the abundance of grace and mercy given to us by our Lord. Unless we see that mercy and grace, we will struggle greatly with authentic gratitude.

So on this Thanksgiving Day, reflect upon this simple question: Do I see all God has done for me? Do I see His abundance of mercy alive in my life? The Gospel passage above reveals that Jesus healed ten lepers, but only one of the ten returned in gratitude. Are you like one of the nine who failed in gratitude? If so, you most likely struggle with seeing all the true and abundant blessings from God.

He is a King with a saving and liberating mission: freeing us from all types of bondage, enabling us to live peacefully and happily on earth, and promising us an inheritance in the eternal life of heaven.

If you can humbly admit you struggle with total gratitude, you will have taken the first step to seeing more clearly and the first step to fostering the deeper gratitude you ought to have. Being grateful means you see the truth clearly. Be open to that truth and God will change your life as He fills you with joy!

Lord, please do fill my heart with an abundance of gratitude. Help me to turn my eyes to Your infinite grace and mercy. Help me to see beyond the struggles of life and the burdens that get me down. In place of these, help me to become increasingly aware of all You have done for me and all that You continue to do. Jesus, I trust in You.

God Bless you, Fr. Bordonaro

Reflect on the Reading

THE TRUE KINGSHIP OF JESUS CHRIST

What kind of King is Jesus? How do you envision him? Remembering that they were promised a king from the line of David, the Israelites hoped for a Messiah who would set their political problems aright and bring about a worldly kingdom of Judaic power. Even Psalm 122 seems to describe this type of ruler. Luke's Gospel today shreds that image after the whip of the Roman soldiers tore at Jesus' flesh. Still, the Romans flaunted the traditional notion with their ironic inscription above King Jesus' crown of thorns. Soldiers and ordinary people jeered the royal title at him. Yet the throne of Jesus was the cross of Christ, from which he dispensed kingly mercy and justice toward the humble criminal who shared his execution. Writing to the Colossians, Saint Paul describes the truth about Jesus and his kingship, using words like fullness, peace, and forgiveness. So let us go rejoicing!

Treasures from Our Tradition

Today's solemnity, the final feast of the Church year, is a youngster as feasts go. In 1925, Pope Pius XI was distressed by global political upheaval and the de-Christianizing of society. That year was a "Holy Year," keyed to the sixteen hundredth anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, when the words "and of his kingdom there will be no end" were added to the Creed. The Pope explained that although most feasts had developed over many centuries, the Church sometimes provided a new feast to address new needs. He pointed to the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, showing Christ's love and compassion in a time when many people embraced a cold and gloomy spirituality. Originally on the last Sunday of October, in the late 1960s the solemnity of Christ the King was moved to the last Sunday of the year.

Fresh from baptism's waters, we are anointed with chrism "as Christ was anointed priest, prophet, and king." This feast is a key to our identity. On this feast, we recognize Christ as a king who breaks the usual mold of kingship, and who shapes his kingdom with our hands, our words, our deeds of love and service. —James Field, Copyright © J. Mrs. Jennifer Durkin, Principal

As I write this, I'm looking forward to our Walkathon which was postponed a week due to weather. In addition to being our major fall fundraiser which supports our Health and Wellness program, it is a joyful celebration of our school community. Each time I've heard the archbishop speak this year he has emphasized the importance of missionary discipleship – of bringing Christ out to the world in an effort to lead others to Him. When we step off our campus to walk together, I can't help but to feel that we will be doing just that. We have raised just about $12,000 for our Walkathon to date. This is the same amount that we raised for the event last year. That means that every donation made from now until the end of the month will be matched dollar for dollar by our generous, and anonymous, donor!

For those of you who have traditionally supported the school through #iGiveCatholic on #GivingTuesday, our nation's Catholic day of giving! This year it will be Tuesday, November 29th from 12:00 AM to 11:59 PM. There is an Advanced Giving phase that is currently in progress! You can find that donation button on our website at www.stjstr.org or you can write a check with "iGiveCatholic" on the memo line.

Last weekend we hosted our Fall Open House for prospective students for next year. It was lovely to meet prospective families but even more wonderful to hear our Hawk Hosts, SJR parents who volunteer to lead tours, and our student ambassadors describe our school program to them. Their knowledge, enthusiasm, and positivity were a real testament to our community.

There is a quote by Blessed Solanus Casey that I meditate on quite frequently: "Thank God ahead of time." As we move into the season of Thanksgiving, I'd like to take the opportunity to thank you for all you do for SJR and to "thank God ahead of time" for being able to trust in His care for us through your continued kindness and generosity.

Congratulations to this week's Apple of My Eye winners:

Nikolas,
Caterina,
Robert,
McKenna, and Hannah
God bless you and have a wonderful week.
