A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

The Christmas Bazaar is this Sunday, Dec. 4th in the Church Hall. Please come down after Mass and get a jump on your Christmas shopping. There will be a number of vendors selling their crafts, raffle baskets and food. Our St. Joseph Christmas cards and 100th Anniversary Coffee mugs will also be for sale. Children can have their picture taken with Santa too. A special thank you goes to Mrs. Rita Roley, and her team of helpers. If you are planning to visit the Christmas Bazaar, please park in the rear lot off of Valley Road.

Congratulations to our St. Joseph/St. Robert student thespians! They will be putting on the show, Frozen, Jr. at Archbishop Wood High School this Sunday, Dec. 4th at 2:00 p.m. We are fortunate that the students can take advantage of the professional stage that our local high school offers. You can come to Mass, shop at the Christmas Bazaar, and then relax and enjoy the show by our students all this Sunday.

The Feast of the Immaculate Conception is on Thursday, Dec. 8th. It is a Holy Day of Obligation. The Vigil Mass will be Wednesday evening at 5:30 p.m. Masses on the Holy Day will be at 8:00 and 10:00 a.m. and also at 7:00 p.m.

The schedule for the remaining days of Advent is as follows: Our Parish Penance opportunity will be Thursday, Dec. 15th at 7:00 p.m. Additional priests will be on hand to hear confessions. Remember, there will be no actual penance service, but rather confessions will start being heard at 7:00 p.m. In addition to our regular Saturday confessions from 3:30 to 4:30, we will hear them on Wednesday evening Dec. 21st at 7:00 p.m. Please note that there will be no confessions scheduled on Sat. Dec. 24th. The best opportunity will be December 15th with several additional confessors.

The US Bishops have prepared a brief examination of conscience. I have copied it below from their website. The first reflection is based on the 10 Commandments.

#I - I am the Lord your God: you shall not have strange Gods before me: Have I treated people, events, or things as more important than God? #II. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain. Have my words, actively or passively, put down God, the Church, or people? #III Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day. Do I go to Mass every Sunday (or Saturday Vigil) and on Holy Days of Obligation? Do I avoid, when possible, work that impedes worship to God, joy for the Lord's Day, and proper relaxation of mind and body? Do I look for ways to spend time with family or in service on Sunday? #IV Honor your father and your mother. Do I show my parents due respect? Do I seek to maintain good communication with my parents where possible? Do I criticize them for lacking skills I think they should have? (Continued on page 4)

#V. You shall not kill. Have I harmed another through physical, verbal, or emotional means, including gossip or manipulation of any kind? #VI. You shall not commit adultery. Have I respected the physical and sexual dignity of others and of myself? #VII. You shall not steal. Have I taken or wasted time or resources that belonged to another? #VIII. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. Have I gossiped, told lies, or embellished stories at the expense of another? #IX. You shall not covet your neighbor's spouse. Have I honored my spouse with my full affection and exclusive love? #X. You shall not covet your neighbor's goods. Am I content with my own means and needs, or do I compare myself to others unnecessarily?

This second examination comes from Jesus' identification of the two greatest commandments.

How well do we love God and others? Do we love as Christ calls us to? In the Gospel of Matthew, Christ gives us Two Commandments: "He said to him, 'You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments'" (Mt 22:37-40).

Not sure what love is? St. Paul describes it for us in his Letter to the Corinthians. Is this how you love God and others? "Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, [love] is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quicktempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails" (1 Cor 13:4-8). Copyright © 2013, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Washington, DC.

May God Bless You, Fr. Bordonaro

Reflect on the Reading HARMONY

Have you ever known a moment when, just for a brief instant, you felt that all was right with the world? It is just such a moment, stretched into eternity that the writer of Isaiah describes in today's first reading: the perfection of everything, centered in God's spirit, where knowledge, justice, and awe in God's presence reign. In such a paradise, everyone sees eye to eye and thinks in harmony with each other, as Saint Paul describes in his letter to the Romans. Even animals with a natural animosity toward one another coexist peacefully. John the Baptist understood that such harmonious relationships do not simply happen. They are the fruit of living in right relationship with God and others.

Treasures from Our Tradition

“Outward signs instituted by Christ to give grace” is the often-memorized definition of sacrament, but through more than five decades of reform we have rediscovered the power of sacrament to bestow grace by reshaping our lives as individuals and communities. Not so long ago, most people were not attentive to the nature of sacrament as an act of the Church, a power that flows from the Body of Christ. Fifty years ago, we were inclined to see a sacrament as an encounter between Christ and an individual. Today, we see that definition does not go far enough. God’s grace is not a trickle, but a gushing torrent washing over the whole Church. Like a photographer pulling back the camera for a broader picture, today we are not only interested in the person who is being baptized, reconciled, or anointed. We think about how celebrating a sacrament transforms a community. We think about the grace given by Christ to the community that baptizes or marries or ordains or confirms. Sacraments are for the good of the community. Even when it appears to be a private, hidden moment, as in individual confession, a sacrament is always for the sake of the whole body, always more than “meets the eye.”—James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Service is a vital part of the school experience at SJR. The students and families have already participated in two of our annual holiday giving projects. After learning about what the needs of some children throughout the world, our students brought home shoeboxes to fill with their families for “Operation Christmas Child.” In addition to hygiene/grooming items and school supplies, each box had a “Wow!” gift – something that a child who received it would just love. In learning about the project and selecting gifts with their families, SJR students helped others while developing the skills to become more empathetic members of the church and global community. It’s an awesome project.

The SJR Service Corp also ran our annual holiday food drive – it was generously supported by all of the families at SJR and the food will be distributed to those in need at the holidays.

We’re very excited to present the SJR Thespian Club’s production of Frozen, Jr. at Archbishop Wood this weekend – Sunday, December 4th at 2:00 p.m. Tickets are available at the door. It will be wonderful and a great opportunity for the children in your life to have a great experience with the theater. I hope to see you there!

In closing, I’d like to congratulate our “Apple of My Eye” winners for this past week: Keegan, Tyson, Luke, Jake, and Danny! Their kind and helpful acts are some of the things that make SJR such a special place!
