FOURTH SUNDAY OF

Advent

DECEMBER 18, 2022

*Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son,
and they shall name him Emmanuel,
which means "God is with us."*

MATTHEW 1:23

TRUE GRATITUDE

Advent's four Sundays each have their own focus: "Stay awake!" (First); John the Baptist (Second); Rejoice! (Third); Joseph/Mary (Fourth). We might need to have a little pity on the Fourth Sunday, however, since the hectic realities of the secular calendar can overwhelm it, particularly in those years when there are only one or two (or zero!) days before Christmas. This year we have the luxury of a whole week! What shall we do with this gift from God? Perhaps a bit more charity or social action on behalf of God's poorest. Maybe take some time to listen for the voice of God in our dreams, as Joseph did. Attend daily Mass, Advent reconciliation, or pray the "O" antiphons (which began this Saturday evening). As with every gift, we show true gratitude by using it. Let us do so, as Paul tells us in Romans, for the sake of the name of Jesus, whose coming we await.

WHOSE HOUSE?

Interest in genealogy is much, much older than current fascination with using DNA analysis to trace our heritage. Matthew's Gospel opens with the genealogy of Jesus, going all the way back to Abraham, Israel's father in faith. This is what immediately precedes today's Gospel reading, and is crucial to how we hear the opening sentence: "Now this is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about." It's not so much as a starting point, but a pivot point that places Jesus firmly in the "house of David" through Joseph (in first-century Judaism, lineage and heritage was traced solely through males). An essential understanding of the Messiah was that he would come from the house and lineage of King David. For those of us who follow Jesus in faith, it's important to recall that it was through Joseph that Jesus both came from the house of David and was made a son of the covenant of Moses.

WHOSE HOME?

Matthew's Gospel also contains an angelic annunciation scene; we hear from it today. Another pivot point is presented, when the angel says "Do not be afraid to take Mary into your home." As with most angelic appearances in scripture, the angel provides an instruction not to fear. More importantly, Joseph is instructed by God's messenger to take Mary into his home. When Joseph and Mary were betrothed, they were officially constituted as husband and wife; the next step—approved by an angel—would have been for Joseph to take Mary into his home. So he provided a safe place for a young woman in a troubled pregnancy, and offered her child a home, a heritage, and a lineage. This rather difficult and risky move on Joseph's part might inspire us in this season to seek out and help out in those places where people are longing to have a house and—more importantly—a home.

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

I am sorry to have to tell you that there seem to be a lot of fraudulent email scams going around this time of year and it has been reported to me that my name is being used by some of them as a means to ask for money or gift cards. This is similar to what happened in the past. Please be advised that I am not soliciting any donations over the internet. If you have any doubt, please call the rectory to check.

I am happy to report that our Casino Night realized a net profit to the church of $5,057.64 and our recent Christmas Bazaar brought us a net profit of $2,006.00. The 100th Anniversary Banquet was not run as a fundraiser and we were able to break even on it.

I take the opportunity on behalf of Msgr. McCoy, Msgr. Bolger, Fr. Connors, and myself, and all those who minister here at St. Joseph to wish you all a very Blessed and joyous Christmas. We celebrate Jesus' dwelling among us as a human being, but Christmas is also about anticipating Jesus' return at the end of the world when we will be given the opportunity to live with Him in eternal happiness. We are grateful for the extreme love God shows us in wanting to save us, but also in wanting to be with us forever. Please accept my prayers for you and your family to experience a sacred renewal of the life that the Christ child brings at this time of year. I also pray that your New Year is filled with God's many blessings. I thank all of you for the opportunity to serve as your pastor and also for the witness and inspiration you provide me.

I also want to thank you for your extremely generous support of our Advent Giving Tree. We were able to help many families in our local area directly with their Christmas celebrations. In addition, we were able to help the following charities: Guiding Star ministries in Philadelphia, which helps pregnant women and children; Gift of Mary, which provides a similar ministry in Chester; Blessed Margaret of Castello Home, which is a crisis pregnancy center in Bensalem; St. Ignatius/Our Mother of Sorrows Church, which is a merged church in West Philadelphia and provides outreach to many families in need; and Mother of Mercy House which provides outreach to those in North Philadelphia. We are also able to help many more families in the future through our own Hope Committee and also through the tuition assistance provided. The majority of the remaining gifts and cards were given to Catholic Social Services located in Levittown, PA.

I also take this opportunity to offer my annual reminder to our "regulars" that we will probably have a number of visitors for Christmas. I certainly know that this can try our patience but I ask your help in making all our worshipers feel welcome. Please do your best to follow our parking procedures to allow us to accommodate as many cars as possible. (Continued on page 4)

If you are parking in the lot nearest the church, the design is that you would enter from 611 and pull all the way up to County Line Road leaving the fire lane and also the walking path (yellow crosswalk) clear of cars, so that people may safely travel to the further back parking lot. A little bit of cooperation will go a long way in helping us all celebrate the Birth of our Savior in a calm and peaceful state of mind. Thank you for your understanding. If anyone is willing and available to assist people with parking, especially for the vigil Masses, please contact me. Saturday, our Christmas Eve Masses will be at 4:30, 6:30 p.m. and 12 Midnight. Sunday, Christmas Day the Masses will be at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. Please note that there will be no evening confessions on Saturday. January 1, 2023 is the Solemnity of Mary the Mother of God and we will follow our usual Sunday schedule.

May God Bless You,
Fr. Bordonaro

HOPE Committee

We would like to thank everyone who brought in diapers/wipes for the babies in need. They were donated to St. Margaret of Castello Home, Catholic Social Services, and Bucks County Housing Group. Your generosity was very much appreciated!

Reflect on the Reading

GOD WANTS TO BE ONE WITH US

What great lengths God will go to in loving and saving us! Think of the most outlandish circumstance you might conceive. That seems to be what the Lord is saying to Ahaz in today's first reading. "A virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall name him Emmanuel." Not only is the idea of a virgin conceiving beyond comprehension in Ahaz's time, so would the concept of God wanting to be with us be, as the name Emmanuel indicates. And yet, this is what we celebrate in the Incarnation—God wants so completely to be one with us that God came to be with us in a son born to a virgin, the Blessed Virgin Mary. There is more to this story than even these amazing and outlandish occurrences, however. God wants to be one with us so deeply that God partners with us to make God's presence known. Copyright © J. Monday Evenings, 8 p.m.

Join hundreds of people throughout the Archdiocese who have regularly been praying the ROSARY LIVE! United in this most powerful prayer, we ask for the miraculous intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary to hear our intentions and renew our Catholic faith as we pray in unity for our brothers and sisters in mission lands world-wide. On Mission Mondays, we pray the World Mission Rosary, created by Venerable Fulton Sheen, in which we offer each decade for one of five Mission areas, including the US. Use this Zoom link to join each Monday: <https://zoom.us/j/494480541>
Sponsored by the Pontifical Missions Societies (phillymissions.org)

The RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE will be held on Thursday, January 5, in the Church Hall. Please consider donating. For information and to schedule a donation time call Mary (215-674-4612).

A Transport Wheelchair and a First Aid Kit have been provided by the Health and Help Ministry. Hopefully these will never be needed BUT, IF a need arises while in Church, these supplies can be found in the closet in the back of church on The Blessed Mother's side.

Treasures from Our Tradition

We make transitions along life's journey, and search for meaning. Watch an infant take those first wobbly steps. Inevitably they are toward the arms of a dear one, and the gleeful smile and wordless laughter let us know that the baby understands that the whole world is renewed in an instant. Parents may see that wide-eyed smile again some years later as they flip car keys in the teenager's direction, and by God's grace at in-between moments of forgiveness and affirmation.

Sacraments open a window to the blessings of everyday life and help us claim their deep meaning. A voice from a fiery bush warned Moses to take off his shoes because he stood on "holy ground." Your first steps, your first word, taking your place at the family table, stirring to new love, forgiving and being forgiven: all of this is holy, laden with meaning, full of possibilities. Sacraments are not escape pods from the realities of the everyday; rather they invest us ever more deeply in life and recruit us for the kingdom inaugurated by Jesus. We take baby steps all our life long. In the world of sacrament, they are always directed toward the arms of a loving God, and always on the common holy ground of a community's life. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Our first ever SJR Tree Lighting event was full of the sounds of Christmas! Thank you so much to our school choir members who were there to lead the crowd in some traditional Christmas hymns. They didn't even mind being interrupted by Santa's arrival on a fire truck as he came to flip the switch and light the tree outside of school. Thank you to Santa and his friends in the Warrington Fire Company and thank you to our wonderful Home and School Association! I'm still smiling! There's nothing like some cocoa, children singing, and even some “snow” to get you into the Christmas spirit.

The Christmas holidays will bring a change to one of our Pre-K classrooms. Mrs. Katie McGettigan will be stepping down as the lead teacher to attend to some personal matters. We are so grateful to her for all she has meant to the faculty, staff, and students over the past several years. Though we will miss her daily on faculty, we'll see Mrs. McGettigan as she and her children will remain part of our SJR community. Best wishes, Mrs. McGettigan! You will remain in our prayers. We have begun the hiring process for the next teacher and are now considering resumes and setting up interviews. If you or someone you know is interested in joining our early childhood faculty, please contact me at jdurkin@stjstr.org or 215-343-5100.

As always, “Thank you!” to the Apple of My Eye winners this week, Jake W., Sean P., Ben W., Sammy P., and Colin P. for making our school such a wonderful place to be!

God bless you and have a wonderful week!
 Sincerely,
 Mrs. Jennifer Durkin
