GIFTS OF GOLD, FRANKINCENSE, AND MYRRH.

Matthew 2:11

January 8, 2023 • The Epiphany of the Lord

SPREAD THE GOOD NEWS

Epiphany is a day when popular customs mostly overshadow scriptural accuracy. Matthew's Gospel never refers to kings coming to see Christ, nor to their number (only the gifts are enumerated), nor to their names. Matthew tells us only that some "magi" came with gold, frankincense, and myrrh. Magos referred to members of the Persian priestly class; later it had the connotation of magicians and astrologers. Matthew's magi report that they have seen a star rising; its light was visible to them far beyond the boundaries of Israel, an early and significant symbol for Jesus, the Light of the World. At the end of Matthew's Gospel (chapter 28), the followers of Jesus worship him, an act foretold in the actions of the Magi today. The eleven are told to make disciples of "all nations," nations symbolized by the Magi. Today we hear our own mission: to worship Jesus Christ, and to spread his Good News everywhere, every day.

STAR OF WONDER

In our day-to-day lives, we can experience epiphanies: new perceptions, unexpected insights, sudden changes in direction. In the liturgical year, Epiphany celebrates the appearance of a star in the heavens, a remarkable star followed by the Magi to Jesus, Mary and Joseph. They are not so different, our daily epiphanies and the Epiphany celebrated today. The arrival of the Magi certainly changed Mary and Joseph's perceptions of the world, the same way a helpless, tiny baby likely altered the Magi's insights as to what a star in the heavens would reveal. The story of the Magi—and the story of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph—is filled with unexpected changes in direction, as God's plan continues to vary when it encounters people who cooperate with it, and others who attempt to thwart it. A deep and long reflection on this day we call Epiphany will uncover numerous epiphanies.

STAR OF LOVE

Like all of the Christmas season, Epiphany celebrates God's eternal and infinite love. In a special way, this day shows how God's love is truly all-inclusive. The magi were not Jews, not part of the Chosen People who expected that the Messiah was coming to save only them. Early on in his Gospel, Matthew tells us that God's love will not be limited by our human presumptions or boundaries. We still struggle with the fact that God is constantly epiphan-izing us to grow beyond the limits of our experience or expectations, to move beyond the boundaries of the world around us. Let us pray that we might be given epiphanies to help us find grace where we didn't believe it existed, to aid us in understanding that God's love is most often shown by who is included, not who is excluded. May we open our eyes and hearts to know that the Christ-light shines everywhere.

A Note From The Pastor

From the Pastor

© J. S. Palach Co., Inc.

My Dear Parishioners,

Happy New Year! I hope that you had a peaceful celebration of Christmas and the New Year. I also want to thank all those who made our celebrations as beautiful as they were. I especially want to thank our musicians, vocalists and all those in the Music Ministry, our Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. Thank you as well to our Altar Society (all those who care for the altar by washing the linens also providing, caring for, and watering the plants and flowers). I especially want to thank those who regularly help to clean and decorate our church. Your work has truly beautified this sacred space. Thanks also to those who contributed to our "Christmas Flowers" collection. You and your loved ones are remembered in prayer throughout the season. Now is also a good time to thank those that operate "behind the scenes" by seeing to it that our weekend celebrations run smoothly. This list also includes our ushers, sacristans, collection counters, and the "Scrip Sellers" in support of our school.

The list of volunteers and those to thank extends beyond our Sunday celebration. I want to also thank all those who work in the formation and education of the people at St. Joseph. This includes the superb faculty, staff and volunteers at St. Joseph/St. Robert School, in the CCD program and Adult Faith Formation, and RCIA. As pastor I am grateful for the advice provided by the Finance Council. I also appreciate the parish nurses and those associated with the Health and Help Ministry, and St. Joseph HOPE committee, Food for the Poor, and the rectory volunteers. Thank you for all you do to make St. Joseph a loving and hospitable place. I am grateful to all those who assist with the running of the parish facility including our rectory and maintenance staff. All volunteers are invited to classroom 18 to pick a small token of our appreciation. This year we are offering a 100th Anniversary engraved pen and flashlight/keychain set as the featured gift. If you prefer, please take another one of the Anniversary coffee mugs.

This week our young people will be celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the very first time. Please keep them in your prayers as they come to experience the love and mercy of the Lord Jesus. Hopefully, we will see this as a reminder that we need to stay close to the Lord, and that whenever we have placed an obstacle in our relationship with God, He gives us the opportunity to have that obstacle removed.

Archbishop Perez has asked that the following letter be communicated this weekend.

May God Bless You in the New Year, Fr. Bordonaro.

A Note From The Pastor (continued...)

January 2023

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The Catholic Relief Services (CRS) collection funds Catholic agencies that work for the benefit of our brothers and sisters around the world who are marginalized and in critical need of assistance. By providing humanitarian aid, resettling those displaced by warfare or strife, and advocating on behalf of victims of atrocities such as human trafficking, beneficiaries of the CRS collection fulfill the Church's mission of mercy. They respond affirmatively to the Gospel's call to love others as we love God and proclaim our fundamental belief that every human life is sacred in a concrete way.

The annual Catholic Relief Services collection challenges American Catholics to put their faith into action and to see the presence of Christ in the faces of the poor and to demonstrate love for Christ by responding to their needs. A small amount from the collection is retained by the Archdiocese to help cover local efforts to promote the collection.

This year's collection will be taken up in the parishes of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia during the weekend of January 14-15, 2023. The American Catholic community, and the Archdiocese of Philadelphia in particular, have always responded very generously to this annual collection. The majority of funds collected support relief efforts overseas and a small amount is retained locally for charitable endeavors undertaken by our local Church.

I am grateful for your compassionate response in past years and ask that you be generous once again. Be assured of my prayers for you and your intentions. May God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez, D.D.

Archbishop of Philadelphia

Reflect on the Reading

ALL SHARE IN THE PROMISE

Picture a nativity scene in your mind's eye. The scene likely includes figures arriving on camels, some elaborately dressed, with jeweled boxes containing precious gifts. These magi arrived from distant lands to pay homage to the Christ Child. We know little about the magi, but we do know that these visitors were not Jews. They represent people of all nations who will be drawn to the Lord. "Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance." The Good News of Jesus cannot be limited to one people; all share in the promise of God's mercy through our Lord Jesus Christ. -Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Life hands us many epiphanies or “wake-up calls.” A few years ago, a young couple adopted a two-year-old child in a morass of red tape, complications, and court hearings. At the baby’s baptism, the priest suggested appending an “adoption blessing,” wherein the new relationship was expressed and affirmed. There is a place in that rite for the child to speak, and instead the priest said, “Can you give Daddy a kiss?” Standing in the midst of his church, the young adoptive father suddenly welled up with tears as he embraced the child. Afterward, he explained that through all the hassles and legal struggles he never until that moment in church understood that he was the parent of this child. The ritual claimed them for each other, gave expression to their relationship that the legal documents never could, and firmly cemented this child into the heart of a community as everyone erupted into heartfelt applause. This assembly witnessed in a powerful way what happens in every baptism: the mystery of adoption, the free flow of grace, the overwhelming sense of God’s presence at the heart of our life’s journey. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Our Fascinating Faith Epiphany House Blessing

If you wish, you can celebrate Epiphany at home with a blessing using the initials of the magi’s traditional names (Casper, Melchior, Balthasar), four crosses, and the new year’s numerals. Materials: a piece of chalk and a small container of holy water. Gather with family members, friends, and perhaps some neighbors at the front door. Leader: In the (+) name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. We sign this doorway with four crosses and the numerals of the New Year. [20 + C + M + B + 23]

Let us pray: May Christ bless this house! ALL: Amen!

Each room of the house is sprinkled with holy water.

Living room: Where two or three are gathered in your name, Lord, you are present. Bless this room, O Lord.

ALL: Amen!

Kitchen: Give us this day our daily bread.

Bless this room, O Lord. ALL: Amen!

Dining room: Prepare us for the heavenly banquet.

Bless this room, O Lord. ALL: Amen!

Bedrooms: Stay with us Lord, when night has come.

Bless this room, O Lord. ALL: Amen!

Bathroom: Cleanse us from all sin. Bless this room, O Lord. ALL: Amen!

All return to the front door to pray together.

Leader: Let us pray as Jesus taught us: Our Father . . .

The leader sprinkles all present with holy water.

Bless this household through all days to come,

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, forever and ever.

ALL: Amen! -Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Catholic Men’s Conference

The 15th Annual Archdiocesan Catholic Men’s Conference will be held on Saturday March 4, 2023, on the campus of Cardinal O’Hara in Springfield, PA at the St. John Vianney Hall Theater. We have a number of first-time speakers to celebrate our 15th event! We welcome for the first time: His Eminence, Timothy Cardinal Dolan - Archbishop of New York. Cardinal Dolan is a writer and is often heard on the Catholic Channel in his Conversations with Cardinal Dolan Podcast series. Deacon James Mahoney - Permanent Deacon of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia assigned to St. Athanasius Parish. Deacon James is currently employed as the Associate Director of the Shrine of the Miraculous Medal and an instructor in Homiletics for the Permanent Diaconate Program. Jim Wahlberg - Producer, Writer, and Film Director. Jim is the fifth oldest Wahlberg. Like his brothers Donnie and Mark, Jim recovered from his tough upbringing in the streets of Dorchester to become a producer, writer, and director of films. His recently published autobiography, The Big Hustle, tells how in prison he was befriended by a priest-chaplain, Fr. Jim Fratus, who had a major impact on his life. We welcome back acclaimed Irish tenor, Mark Forrest, who will again provide inspirational accompaniment during a special Eucharistic Adoration. The Conference will conclude with Saturday Mass (not the Sunday Vigil) celebrated by Archbishop Nelson J. Perez.

Restore: A Women’s Healing Retreat

Thursday March 16 - Sunday, March 19, 2023
St. Mary of Providence Center in Elverson, PA

God longs for us to believe that we indeed are who He says we are: His beloved daughters, carefully created, infinitely loved and valued beyond measure. Through unique, facilitated healing encounters, we listen deeply for the Holy Spirit’s promptings as He reveals the memories, the moments, the circumstances that caused dis-integration within us. With Him, we will untwist distortions, renounce lies, expose the habitual ways we get stuck in anxiety, fear or overwhelm and, most importantly, open to Jesus’ Love, which is the true balm for our wounded hearts. Come...and let Him Restore you!

It's wonderful to be back in school and to be standing at the beginning of a whole new year! January looks to be a very exciting month here at SJR. We are beginning two new clubs – a Science Club to provide extra time in the lab at school for our growing scientists and an American Sign Language Club which, through lots of fun games and activities, will explore the nature of language and communication.

Our wonderful Home and School is also planning some exciting events for the New Year. It is hosting a Martin Luther King Day of Service event where school families will be creating Jared Boxes for the Doylestown Hospital. Jared Boxes are small shoe-sized boxes filled with toys, games, crayons, etc. that will hopefully brighten a child's hospital stay.

The HSA Bingo Night will be on January 20th. This is a night for the ladies to come out and play bingo, win wonderful prizes, all while supporting the students at SJR! Tickets are on sale on the school's website and you are welcome to join in the fun!

And, as I described last week, the end of the month brings Catholic Schools Week – a week-long celebration of our Catholic identity at SJR. You are welcome to our Open House on Sunday, January 29th which runs from 10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. Join us in the cafeteria for some light refreshments after Mass and take the opportunity to tour the school. It would be a pleasure to have you visit!

As the New Year begins, I continue to pray for peace for all of us. Thank you for all you do for St. Joseph's, St. Robert's and our parish school!

God bless you and have a wonderful week!

Mrs. Durkin
