FIFTH Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 5, 2023

“Your light must shine before others,
that they may see your good deeds
and glorify your heavenly Father.”

Matthew 5:16

COMMUNITY OF LIGHT

Today’s readings from Isaiah and Matthew evoke the powerful metaphor of light as an image of the community gathered by God. Jesus speaks of his followers as “light of the world”: they are not the source of light, but a mirror reflecting the brightness of God. This light does not call attention to itself, but enables beauty to be revealed and celebrated, and sinfulness to be exposed and healed. The light of this community is not primarily for itself, but fulfills its purpose when it shines upon the world. The light that we the Church bring to our world can be hidden by “bushels” sometimes imposed by others and sometimes of our own making. Our lights may flicker and die under stress. What might sustain the brightness of our own small light? Our ongoing practices of community prayer, discernment, and action allow God to illumine our Church, day by day.

LEARNING HOW TO BE CHURCH

Following last week’s passage from Matthew with the Beatitudes, today we continue Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount with his images of salt, light, and a city. Jesus moves from describing the core identity of the community he has gathered to considering its impact on the world. He wanted his community not just to claim its identity, but to live it out. He wanted his community to journey with him, to fully learn what this might mean.

For us, being salt for others may mean engaging and enriching the lives of our neighbors. Being light may mean illuminating and addressing the world’s systems that sustain social sins of violence, racism, and vast inequalities of wealth and opportunity. Being a city set high may mean holding to high standards of transparency, respect, and care for each other. Like Jesus’ first followers, we are invited to travel the difficult and joy-filled road of learning and re-learning how to be the Church.

CROSS-SHAPED MINISTRY

Saint Paul, in today’s passage from First Corinthians, admits he is not a salesman. He did not come to Corinth with a sales pitch, with skilled rhetoric and worldly wisdom. Paul says that he simply came to speak of Christ crucified. For Paul, the cross is God’s primary self-revelation, and the whole life of following Christ is marked by it. Paul describes this cross-shaped ministry by how he first preached it: with humility and fear. He was a messenger who looked weak by the standards of society, in order that the Spirit might break through to his listeners.

We may know or have read of those who spoke or lived with a cross-shaped presence. Perhaps a missionary who humbly served a community while preaching Christ. Or a group of protesters against injustice, who faced violent resistance with dignity and persistence. They open a space for the Spirit to transform hearts. Paul suggests that making ourselves vulnerable makes love possible.

My Dear Parishioners,

Today we launch the 2023 Catholic Charities Appeal: Giving Hope to All 2023. The Catholic Charities Appeal is the Archdiocese of Philadelphia's single most important annual fundraising initiative, and we're counting on your support. This year, the Catholic Charities Appeal will be a channel of hope for tens of thousands of people through countless organizations and ministries in the Archdiocese, and a positive source for good in all facets of the Church in Philadelphia. We ask you to look deep in your heart and be as generous as you can to help us reach our $12.5 million goal. So many people are counting on us. So we're counting on you to give hope this year to those who need it the most. It is important that every parishioner and every parish do their part to help raise this $12.5 million, because we are one family in Christ. Taking care of those who need help the most is one of the most important things we can do as Catholics. The Archdiocese of Philadelphia has set an Appeal Goal for St. Joseph Parish at $38,677. I would also like to reassure you that any gift you make to the Catholic Charities Appeal will be appropriately stewarded and spent only in accordance with the case statement published by the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. The Catholic Charities Appeal Board is there to ensure your funds are spent according to the purpose you donated towards. Thank you for your sacrifice. To see the Catholic Charities Appeal video, please go to www.catholiccharitiesappeal.org.

Prayer for the Catholic Charities Appeal

God, our Father,

We thank you for all the gifts and blessings that you give out of your love for us all. You call us to open our hearts to share what we have been given. Grant that through giving to the Catholic Charities Appeal, we may bring joy, hope and strength to those most in need. Our charity towards those in need is a real way in which we show our gratitude and love for you.

Through this year's Catholic Charities Appeal, may we help as many people as we can, including a young person striving to learn and grow in Faith; a deaf child receiving a quality Catholic Education; a veteran who is struggling with homelessness; a parish carrying out vital local missionary work; a retired priest who has dedicated his life to the needs of the faithful.

Help us to do all we can to make sure the "poor have their fill" of your blessings. We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

Next week we will have a second collection to help support the Care of Aging and Ill Priests. Archbishop Perez has asked that the following letter be communicated through the Archdiocese this weekend. (Continued on page 4)

May God Bless You,
Fr. Bordonaro

A Note From The Pastor (continued...)

February 2023

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Over the past year Pope Francis offered a series of catecheses on old age during his Wednesday Audiences. The Holy Father said, “With these catecheses, I encourage everyone to invest their thoughts and affections in the gifts old age carries with it and to the other stages of life. Old age is a gift for all stages of life. It is a gift of maturity, of wisdom.” Pope Francis’ words about the dignity, value, and wisdom that the elderly contribute to society underscores the gift of our retired and infirmed priests in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

During their many years of active ministry, they brought the presence of Christ to countless individuals through the celebration of the Sacraments, preaching, teaching, and charitable actions with great devotion. In retirement, they continue to be a great source of support for our local Church, through their prayers, the celebration of Holy Mass, and their wise council.

Today, one-third of our Archdiocesan priests are retired. Many generously continue in active service to our parishes to the extent their health allows. Others, due to advanced age and medical conditions, live quietly and offer prayers for you, the faithful.

The annual Collection for the Care of Aging and Infirm Priests of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia will be taken in all parishes during the weekend of February 11-12, 2023. This initiative provides a meaningful opportunity for you to express gratitude for the many sacrifices made by our retired priests who gave fully of themselves to fulfill the pastoral and temporal needs of those entrusted to their care over the course of many years.

Please remember all our priests, active and retired, in your daily prayers and consider donating generously to the Collection for the Care of Aging and Infirm Priests this year. May the Lord bless you and all those whom you love abundantly. Please be assured of my prayers for you and your intentions.

Sincerely in Christ Jesus,

+Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez, D.D.
Archbishop of Philadelphia

Reflect on the Reading THE LIGHT OF SERVICE

The prophet Isaiah inspires us with these words: “Light shall rise for you in the darkness, and the gloom shall become for you like midday.” All of us celebrating the liturgy today praise God for these words of encouragement. Surely each of us knows the gloomy side of life, but today’s readings propose a brilliant antidote to misery: the light of service. Isaiah focuses on physical suffering, telling us to provide food, clothing, housing, and equal opportunity to those with limited resources. Moving beyond material needs, Saint Paul demonstrates how to proceed humbly when attending to people’s spiritual needs. Saint Matthew’s Gospel stirs us to bold action: whatever gifts we have, we must put them at the service of our communities. As Christians, we must engage with one another without holding back, letting our light shine before all. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Job Opportunity FACILITIES ASSISTANT

Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Doylestown, is seeking an experienced, motivated individual to join our staff as a Facilities Assistant. As part of our facilities team, you will assist with daily operations on the campus, and help maintain all equipment. You will report to the Facilities Manager as you perform routine and preventative maintenance, grounds keeping, and janitorial duties. This is a physically demanding position. You must be able to stand, walk, and lift items throughout a standard shift. Our ideal candidate has a strong work ethic, and excellent time management skills. Experience with plumbing and facilities maintenance is a plus, but not required. This is a full time position which includes a generous medical benefit, a 403(b) Retirement plan as well as paid vacation. Interested qualified candidates should forward resume and/or letter of interest to Lyle Benner busmgr@ourladymtcarmel.org. Our Lady of Mount Carmel, 235 East State St., Doylestown 215-348-4190.

National Conference for Single Catholics

A Study Series for single Catholics! NCSC will be hosting a 6-week study series (starting Feb. 6th) - “Relationship Ready: A Single Catholic’s Roadmap to Marriage” that will cover topics such as the meaning of love, communication, conflict resolution, male/female complementarity and much more. To sign up, visit NationalCatholicSingles.com.

Go Forth: Deepen Your Discipleship, Grow in Mission - Archbishop Pérez wants to text you!

Join Archbishop Pérez in his mission to create a culture of missionary disciples in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia! Through the Go Forth initiative, you can subscribe to receive a weekly text from the Archbishop with one action step you can take that week to deepen your friendship with Jesus or grow in your mission to bring Jesus to others. There are two ways to subscribe to receive the texts: (1) use your phone to text goforth to the number 84576 or (2) visit the website phillydisciples.org/goforth. Texts begin Ash Wednesday, Feb 22, 2023 and will continue weekly for one year.

Treasures from Our Tradition

As soon as Christmas ends, people begin planning for Easter! Originally, the source of our Paschal Triduum was but a single liturgy extending from Saturday sundown to sunrise on Easter Sunday. The two days leading up to the liturgy were days of fast, not only for the elect, but for the church preparing to baptize them. A fifth-century pope explained that the church imitated the apostles, who were in hiding with their grief from the arrest of Jesus, and therefore sacraments, even penance, were forbidden. Inevitably, though, people wanted to come together, and so eventually a Liturgy of the Word developed for Good Friday. This was the first step toward today’s shape of the Triduum, and gradually new ideas were embraced, including the veneration of the cross and a simple Communion service. Interestingly, the Word remained central, since we know that in those days the pope did not receive Communion at this liturgy, even though the faithful had that option. In the other churches of Rome, priests and people received Communion under both species. Although the custom of Communion on Good Friday took hold, it did not endure past the Middle Ages. The central liturgies of the year slowly unraveled and disappeared from parish life. Remember that there were no seminaries in those days, and books were a rare luxury. Most priests could only manage to celebrate a simple “low” Mass, and few parishes could afford the ritual books that would guide a priest through the complex forms. Holy Week remained important in private devotion, but for a time the liturgies virtually disappeared.

Our Fascinating Faith

Our Lady of Lourdes (February 11)

On February 11, 1858, fourteen-year-old Bernadette Soubirous, the oldest of nine children in a poor family from Lourdes, France, saw Our Lady in the first of eighteen apparitions. At the grotto of Massabielle, Bernadette saw “a small lady in white” who invited her to return each day. During the visions the Lady communicated a message of penance, instructed Bernadette to dig so that a spring of water began to flow, requested that a chapel be built there at the grotto, and eventually identified herself by saying “I am the Immaculate Conception.” Throughout these apparitions, Our Lady addressed Bernadette in a formal way, treating the humble girl with dignity. In 1862 the authenticity of the apparitions was confirmed by Church authorities. The Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes was recognized worldwide in 1907. Lourdes became a place of pilgrimage for thousands of the faithful; their faith and the faith of many others was revitalized through the story of a simple young girl from rural France. Copyright © J. We’ve seen so many letting their light shine this week at SJR both metaphorically and literally! We had a wonderful presentation on Monday about The Next Steps Program. Its mission is to provide young adults with disabilities with job training and support as they work toward a fulfilling work and social life after high school. To hear Mr. Josh Fields speak about his motivation to begin this project when he was a student in high school himself was inspiring. And to hear the students share their experience and questions about people with disabilities was really wonderful. We were able to donate over $800 to the program from the proceeds from our last bake sale and this week’s dress down day.

SJR also hosted our second annual “Luminary Walk” this week. Each student, teacher, and staff member decorated a luminary bag with a prayer intention and the school community gathered to walk among them, pray the intentions, and then enjoy some hot chocolate. To walk among the lights and read the intentions of little children was quite moving. My intention included you and your families so you were in our prayers that evening.

And, as always, our Apple of My Eye winners were recognized for letting their light shine in large and small ways around the school. Congratulations to Emma, Tatum, Eleanor, Nikolas, and Henry!

It was delightful to see so many of you at our open house last Sunday! Thank you.

God bless you and have a wonderful week!

Mrs. Durkin
