SECOND SUNDAY OF Lent

MARCH 5, 2023

From the cloud came a voice that said,
"This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased;
listen to him."

Matthew 17:5

LISTEN

Listen. Abram listened and, certain of God's blessing, set out for an unknown future in response to God's call. Awestruck Peter, James, and John heard a voice from a cloud tell them to listen to Jesus. When we listen to the Lord, we are assured of and find strength in God's presence. Listening deeply, we perceive the Lord's call and find the grace to respond to it, finding the assurance we need to live and share the gospel of Jesus Christ, even when it is challenging to do so. When we listen, we hear Jesus say to us as he did to the disciples on the mountain, "Rise, and do not be afraid."

LISTEN WHILE ON THE JOURNEY

Have you ever taken a long trip with a family member or friend and found yourself talking about the deeper things of life? Given time, the mundane can give way to topics of meaning and purpose. We sometimes speak of our movement through life and faith as a journey. The metaphor of a journey is fitting, since we are not only to make our way from one point to another the way we take a quick trip or a walk around the block—the process of living in faith is one of growth and change over time. On the journey of life and faith, we can find the grace to talk deeply with the Lord and listen to the voice of God, who strengthens us to face the challenges of living as followers of Christ.

GOD IS WITH US

It can be hard to grasp that the God of glory and power and undying love is always with us. Truly, this is one of the great mysteries of our Christian faith. Every time we make the sign of the cross, we are reminded of the life that is brought to light in Christ. The very life, passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus is evidence of the determination of God to love us through it all. Not only is Jesus proof of God's love, Christ's very presence with and within us is an outpouring of that love. This Lent, take time to listen to the Lord and allow what you hear to help you turn away from sin and toward the life and immortality of the Christian disciple.

A Note From The Pastor*From the Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

A special thank you to the members of our Health and Help Ministry for sponsoring the Blood Pressure screening last week. A parishioner told me that they were very grateful because that was how they found out about her husband's high blood pressure a few years ago.

On Thursday of this week, Auxiliary Bishop for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, Bishop Michael Fitzgerald, will be here to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on 11 of our young people. Please join me in welcoming Bishop Fitzgerald to our church. Please pray for our young people making the sacrament of Confirmation and their families.

Next Sunday, March 12th we will have the Archdiocesan collection for the Church in Latin America. Archbishop Pérez has asked that we publish the following letter.

God Bless You,
Fr. Bordonaro

March 2023

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Soon our Archdiocese will take up the Annual Collection for the Church in Latin America. For more than 50 years, this collection has been a way for Catholics in the United States to unite more closely with our brothers and sisters in faith throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. Funds generated from this initiative support diocesan pastoral catechetical and family life ministries, seminary studies, and formation programs for religious sisters and brothers. This collection also helps the poorest dioceses obtain basic necessities that they would not be able to afford otherwise. Without your help they would not be able to meet the pastoral and temporal needs of those who count on them.

At the far eastern end of the island of Cuba, the priests in the Diocese of Guantánamo-Baracoa traverse bad roads over rough terrain to bring the sacraments and the Word of God to the faithful living in that remote region. The mountainous territory that makes up 75% of the diocese's total land area makes travel not only difficult but also more expensive for priests due to higher fuel consumption, vehicle maintenance, and repair costs when compared to other regions.

Catholics like you who generously contribute to the Collection for the Church in Latin America help Guantánamo-Baracoa's priests stay on the road with funds given to the diocese to offset fuel and vehicle repair costs. In places such as Cuba, you help bring the Good News to the poor when you participate in the collection. (Continued on page 4)

A Note From The Pastor (continued...)

Our Archdiocese will take up this Collection the weekend of March 11 and 12, 2023. Please be generous and take this opportunity to share your faith with the families of Latin America and the Caribbean. Your support will truly make a difference. Thank you and God bless you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
 +Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez, D.D.
 Archbishop of Philadelphia

Reflect on the Reading TURNING POINTS

Our readings today describe turning points for those whom God has chosen. In Genesis, God calls Abram to leave his homeland, with the promise of forming a people in a new land. In the Gospel, the disciples see Jesus literally in a new light, the bright light of Jesus' transfiguration. They begin to see Jesus, and themselves, in a new way. These are times when God presents a new way forward, providing new purpose and energy. Our lives too have their own turning points, where God is working (usually in less spectacular fashion) to lead us into fuller maturity, and into deeper unity with God and others. The road ahead, as with Abram, Jesus, and the disciples, may be long and difficult. Lent can be a time when we reflect upon these turning points in our past, and consider how God may be stirring something new in us today. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Olive oil looms large in the vocabulary of baptism. There are other oils in the pantry closet, from grapeseed to safflower to canola, but only olives yield the proper meanings. Olives don't just happen; they are cultivated, nurtured, pruned, and fussed over; they are a sign of human and divine cooperation. Olives can thrive in poor soil, but they cannot survive without human ingenuity, planting shoots and pruning branches. They can't be popped from a tree and munched like apples: they are inedible without long curing; neither do they yield their oil to hand pressure alone, but only to huge stone mills. Abundant patience is needed as sediment sinks to the bottom of storage barrels and pure oil rises to the surface.

Olive oil is a byproduct of peace: war keeps harvesters, planters, and pruners within city walls and turns millers into soldiers. To obtain oil from olives you need vast measures of hope, patience, faith, and ingenuity. Olive oil is a sign of God's bounty and the way we human beings collaborate with God to bring about impossibly wonderful results. It is creation at its finest. Some people give chocolate eggs for Easter; perhaps olive oil is a more appropriate gift! -Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Our Fascinating Faith The Scrutinies

Next Sunday, if your parish is blessed with catechumens (now called "elect" during Lent) who are preparing for baptism at the Easter Vigil, you will likely celebrate with them the first of three scrutinies. These are rites integral to final Lenten preparations made by the elect, and they are celebrated on three successive Sundays, starting with the Third Sunday of Lent. The Church tells us that the scrutinies are meant to uncover and heal all that is weak and sinful in the lives of the elect. During the week leading up to each celebration, the elect engage in prayerful preparation involving deep reflection on their own lives and the new life to which they are called. The rites themselves use a special form of intercessions specifically directed to the lives of the elect, and include a prayer of exorcism.

It is essential that these rites be celebrated in the midst of the community, so that the elect experience the support of the parish members on this profound journey of faith. But it is equally important that the parish members witness the growing faith of the elect so they may be inspired by it for their Lenten journey of reflection on their own baptism in preparation for Easter. - Copyright © J. ## Health and Help Ministry

CPR classes offered at St. Joseph Church April 5, 2023- 7:00 p.m. in the Church Hall

The Family & Friends CPR Course teaches the lifesaving skills of adult Hands-Only CPR, child CPR with breaths, adult and child AED use, infant CPR and relief of choking in an adult, child or infant. Skills are taught in a dynamic group environment by using the AHA's research-proven practice-while-watching technique, which provides students with the most hands-on CPR practice time possible. Family & Friends CPR is for people who want to learn CPR but do not need a course completion card in CPR for their job. This course is ideal for schools and students, new parents, grandparents, babysitters and others interested in learning how to save a life. All are welcome. *Does not include certification card* Donations accepted. Proceeds will be used towards a replacement AED and first aid supplies. Proceeds from the last CPR course were used for a transport wheelchair for the church.

Brothers of Borromeo Vocation Camp

Thank you so much to those of you who were able to attend the Education Improvement Tax Credit information session with Mr. Kevin Kelly last week. Any time I hear him speak, I'm amazed all over again at the remarkable program and at the remarkable people who divert their Pennsylvania tax dollars to Catholic Education through their participation. Thank you! If you were unable to make the session but are interested in learning more, please call over to school at 215-343-5100 or email me at jdurkin@stjstr.org.

After attending the session, I went over to Thunderbird Lanes for SJR's Mother/Son Bowling event. It was so much fun! There were twenty-two lanes full of SJR families. The PreK - 4th grade mother/son winning team went to Connor and his mom. The 5th - 8th grade mother/son winning team went to Luke and his mom. Congratulations!

There are so many things to love about SJR. In an essay the fourth graders wrote earlier in the year about what they thought was really special about SJR, they mentioned, among other things, the following:

- That we're so close to church and can go any day!
- The teachers!
- Field trips!
- Mrs. Ewald, our school secretary!
- CYO basketball!
- After school clubs!
- Being in the Thespian Club and the school play!

And they all listed their favorite activities that are hosted by the Home and School... our upcoming Phillies Home Opener Ballpark Lunch, Trunk or Treat, The Sweetheart Dance, the Water Ice Dance Party and more! The Mother/Son Bowling event was awesome and I'm truly grateful for all that the Home and School offers to our students.

We are keeping you in our daily prayers at school this Lent. God bless you and have a wonderful week!

Mrs. Durkin
