FIFTH SUNDAY OF Lent

MARCH 26, 2023

He cried out in a loud voice,
“Lazarus, come out!”

John 11:43

THE NEW LIFE TO COME

Death does not have the final say. This is the great mystery we ponder on this Fifth Sunday of Lent. Martha and Mary were good friends of Jesus. They did not hide their confusion and grief from the Lord; they voiced their conviction that if Jesus had been with them during their brother's illness, he would not have died. Jesus entered into their grief and more—he overturned it. Lazarus' death became the occasion for Jesus to show all who had gathered the mercy of God who cries out, “Oh my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them.” In this moment, the world was given a sign of the new life to come through Christ, the Risen One.

FROM DEATH TO NEW LIFE

There really is no way around it. Eventually, we will grapple with the death of a loved one, a parent, sibling, spouse, or dear friend. As we mature, we also begin to come to terms with our own mortality. Our Sunday readings this Lent have invited our reflection on the big questions of life and faith. We have resolved to turn away from sin and toward God, listening to the Lord and responding with open minds and hearts. We have acknowledged and perhaps heightened our thirst for the Lord and have committed ourselves to walk in the light of God's grace. Today, we journey from death to new life, reflecting on the mystery of Christ who is the resurrection and the life.

COME TO BELIEVE

Martha had a uniquely personal relationship with Jesus. She spoke with him honestly, baring her heart to Jesus, openly expressing her confusion and sorrow at her brother's death. Jesus' response led Martha to a deep declaration of faith, “I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world.” We, too, can have a uniquely personal relationship with Jesus. We can speak honestly to the Lord, baring our hearts, expressing the truth of each moment of our lives, whether in joy or sorrow, happiness, grief, confusion, or times of fulfillment. In such honesty and trust, we may find deeper faith as well, coming to believe that Christ is our all, our way, truth, and life.

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

Easter is almost here. This week a group of young people are presenting the Living Stations of the Cross, accompanied by music from our Contemporary Music Group, led by Mr. Bill Monaghan. The Living Stations help us to remember that Jesus truly suffered in his humanity. We have a tendency to treat the way of the cross as “a necessary evil on the way to our salvation.” We take this opportunity to recall that Jesus was not acting out some part of a Divine Play, He was a real human being and He responded to His suffering and those around Him in a truly unique way, a way that has something to teach us. Our musicians and students worked hard on this presentation and I recommend making it a part of your Lenten spiritual preparation; it is a nice way to put yourself in the footsteps of Christ. The Living Stations will be on Friday, March 31st at 7:30 p.m.

Lenten confessions are heard Wednesday evenings from 7:00 – 8:00 p.m. Our Saturday confessions are regularly from 3:30 – 4:30 p.m. During Holy Week we will hear confessions on Tuesday, April 4 from 4:00 – 5:00 p.m. and Wednesday, April 5 from 7:00 – 8:00 p.m. (please note this is the last opportunity to go to confession before Easter).

The Sacred Triduum starts on Thursday, April 6th. We will have Morning Prayer at 8:00 a.m. and the Traditional Mass of the Lord's Supper at 7:30 p.m. At this Mass we usually remember when, as recounted in the Gospel of St. John, that Jesus washed the feet of his disciples as a sign of our call to serve one another. This year we will not have the optional washing of feet because neither I nor the weekend assistants are able to get down on the ground to do so. The Mass of the Lord's Supper is a great opportunity to join as a family and celebrate the dual occasions when Jesus instituted both the Eucharist and the Priesthood. After Mass on Thursday, there will be the traditional procession with the Eucharist to the altar of reposicion and church will be open for adoration until Midnight. Friday, April 7th is Good Friday, a day of Fast and Abstaining from meat. Morning Prayer will be at 8:00 a.m. and we will have the Solemn Commemoration of Our Lord's Passion (with Holy Communion) at 3:00 p.m. Holy Saturday, April 8th we have Morning Prayer at 8:00 a.m. and the Vigil Mass will be at 7:30 p.m. Masses on Easter Sunday follow the regular Sunday schedule: 7:30, 9:30, and 11:30 a.m.

Please help spread the Good News of Easter by welcoming those who may be visitors to our church and welcoming back any who may have stayed away due to COVID concerns. We want them to feel like they belong and are accepted. Also please be mindful of the parking lots. I know you get tired of the reminders, but efficient parking is really necessary to allow the most number of people the chance to park. The Valley Road lot is for single space parking. The lot closest to the church is for head in or “bumper to bumper” parking. Please do not leave open spaces because that effectively boxes out others from entering. Thank you for your assistance.

God Bless You, Fr. Bordonaro

Reflect on the Reading      *LIFE FROM GOD

As we approach Holy Week, our readings speak of a God who, in the midst of death, brings new life to the people. In Ezekiel, we hear that God will open the graves of the people of Israel, who faced near extinction. In the Gospel of John, Jesus gives new life to Lazarus in a manner that prefigures the resurrection of Jesus. Paul tells the Romans that in Christ, God will not only give life to our bodies after death, but God offers us abundant life here and now. We observe that the external conditions for the people described in these readings did not radically change. Israel was still in exile. Lazarus would eventually face death again. But now God's presence and power are revealed. Even when our situation in life is difficult and perhaps not likely to change soon, we remember that the Spirit dwells within us. Copyright © J. S. ## Treasures from Our Tradition

Today, we know more about the beginnings of Lent than our ancestors did. We know that Lent is first of all about baptism, and secondly that it is about the desire of all the baptized to renew the power and potential of that sacrament at Easter. For centuries, this deep truth was largely obscured, but today documents have come to light to reshape the Church's thinking and practice.

One source, discovered in the 1880s, is the pilgrim diary of a Spanish nun, Egeria, writing her sisters a detailed travelogue of a fourth-century sojourn in Jerusalem during Holy Week. She describes in vivid detail her participation in liturgies that are close cousins of our own Holy Week prayer, from a festive procession with palms to a procession to the cross. Her greatest delight is in the huge number of elect: men, women, and children who experience a time of deep retreat and identification with Christ's cross, guided by the bishop and supported by their godparents' constant nurture. The discovery of Egeria's diary proved to be a moment of grace for the Church; after a long period of "ecclesial amnesia," we know at last that baptism is really the work of a whole community of faith, convened by God.

Our Fascinating Faith

The Three Lenten Disciplines: Almsgiving

In addition to prayer and fasting, Lent gives us the chance to give alms to those who are most needy. By helping others, we practice charity and social justice. We look to carry our own cross and help others carry theirs as well. In other words, we practice the same generosity as God, who makes the rain to fall on the good and on the bad and loves people without distinction. To help others is to confront the poverty of this world with the hope of the kingdom of God. Charity is a Christian virtue because Jesus is the best example of what charity is. Charity is more than giving alms; it is love and justice. It is complying with the commandment to love one another in a world where most people are poor and abandoned. To be charitable is to give to the needy what they need from our time, talent, and treasure; it is to work for social changes that promote human dignity and the economic wellbeing of all. Charity is love and God is love. May we live in that love. —Friar Gilberto Cavazos-González, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Spring is such a wonderful time to be at SJR! In addition to the beautiful weather and the growing buds, we joyfully begin to celebrate the sacraments of Confirmation and First Communion with our students.

Our seventh graders were confirmed by Bishop Fitzgerald earlier this month. He prayed that God send the Holy Spirit to be their helper and guide and give them the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence. It was lovely to see these young adults renew the baptismal promises that were made for them as infants. We are grateful to Bishop Fitzgerald.

Beginning in April, the third graders will begin to make their First Communion during Sunday Masses at St. Robert Church. First Holy Communion at St. Joseph Church is Saturday, May 6th at 10:00 a.m. We look forward to celebrating those liturgies with you. Please keep them and their families in your prayers as they make final preparations.

In addition to the celebration of the sacraments, we are also looking forward to some spring events. We would love to invite you to join in our 5K on Friday, May 12th – I like to say it's an event that really puts the "fun" into fundraising! The children LOVE the fun run that starts at 6:00 p.m. There is also a fitness walk for the family and a professionally timed 5K run through Palomino Farms for the runners in our community. There are awards and snacks and lots of fun! Please consider joining us and making it a family tradition! Please go to the school's website for all the details.

God bless you and have a wonderful week!
