A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

On Sunday, June 10th the Archbishop of Philadelphia ordained 4 men as Permanent Deacons. They are: Deacon Paul A. Fisher who has been assigned to Our Lady of the Assumption Parish, Strafford, Deacon James J. McGonigal who has been assigned to Saint Francis of Assisi Parish, Springfield, Deacon David M. McGovern who has been assigned to Saint Michael the Archangel Parish, Levittown, and Deacon Christopher Parker who has been assigned to Mary, Mother of the Redeemer Parish, North Wales. I saw the following column written by Fr. Matt Guckin as an explanation of the Diaconate and I thought you might be interested.

God Bless you,
Fr. Bordonaro

WHO IS THE DEACON?

Saint Stephen was murdered because he was a Christian, and Saul gave his consent to the stoning. Stephen's love for Jesus helped inspire Saul to become a Christian and martyr, and we now honor him as Saint Paul.

Saint Lawrence was told to hand over the treasures of the Church to officials of the Roman Empire ... or else. So, he brought them to the poor, old, and sick and told officials that they are "the treasures of the Church." For this Lawrence was roasted alive.

And then, there is Saint Francis of Assisi. Francis willingly chose to live in extreme poverty as a way of imitating Christ, Who surrendered heavenly riches to be born in a cave and die on a cross.

The spiritual tissue which connects Stephen and Lawrence and Francis together is that they were all permanent deacons.

The role of the deacon is outlined in Acts of the Apostles, Chapter 6, as Saint Peter famously declared that it was not proper for the Apostles to give up preaching to wait on tables. After prayer and worship, the first concern of the Apostles was for the poor and marginalized. Accordingly, they ordained seven deacons to serve the early Christian community so the Apostles could focus their energy on prayer and ministry of the Word.

Deacons are not "junior priests" nor are they "glorified laymen." They are very special in the life of the Church and have a Divine call of their own. Interestingly, of the thirty seven popes between 432 and 684 A.D., only three were priests while the rest were deacons. And by the end of the ancient world, deacons took care of Church property and administrative affairs.

A Deacon's role is to proclaim God's Word, assist at Mass, baptize, lead prayer, instruct the faithful, and witness marriages. All this while being a husband and raising a family! Let us give thanks to our deacons and pray for them. And ask God to send us more!

God bless you,
Father Matthew Guckin
Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish, Doylestown

Treasures from Our Tradition

Most parishes are now aware of the catechumenate and the journey of new faithful in the RCIA, but this form of sacramental initiation disappeared from view in the thirteenth century along with many other ancient practices. Life back then was hard, and often too short, and priests were increasingly insistent about the responsibility of parents to baptize children in danger of death. Since everyone in that society was under unimaginable threat from famine, warfare, and plague, the liturgical rites changed quickly. Everyone was in danger of death all the time. No longer were babies immersed in fonts, being lowered into the water, although the ritual books never backed down from immersion. Infusion was the new way, a simple pouring of a few drops of water on the child's forehead.

The catechumenate collapsed, being reduced to the recitation of the Creed and an Our Father at every baptism. Amazingly, any provision for adult baptism was shelved, so that as late as the 1950s, a person being baptized was presumed to be an infant, unable to answer for him or herself. Questions of creed and commitment were put to the godparents, not to the person being baptized. Even Dorothy Day and Thomas Merton, famous adult converts, remained mute at their baptisms while their sponsors answered for them. In hindsight all this appears strikingly odd, yet it was accepted as the way things were. We have good reason to give thanks for the vigorous reforms of the last fifty years! -Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

 FOCUSED ON FAITH AND LEARNING

Mrs. Jennifer Durkin, Principal
 850 Euclid Avenue, Warrington, PA 18976
 215-343-5100 www.stjstr.org

It's hard to believe we're moving into August! As all of the hard work my family did in our vegetable garden in April and May is coming to fruition now, I know that all of the work that is being done this summer will yield a wonderful beginning of our school year at the end of August. I'd like to thank our maintenance supervisor, Mr. Jim Crumlish, for his continued work. In addition, I'd like to thank Mr. John Adams for installing additional bottle filling water stations and Mr. Ed Dixon and the group of volunteers he's assembled who will begin sprucing up the school hallways with a fresh coat of paint. Thank you!

As we've been preparing the building, we've also had the opportunity this month to begin applying some of the Educational Improvement Tax Credit or EITC money generously supplied by parishioners and other donors to families for tuition assistance. I just wanted to take this opportunity now to thank those of you who have supported our school and school families in this way.

There are a few positions left for kindergarten and pre-kindergarten students who are in the parish. Please contact the school as soon as possible if you are interested in enrolling your child. We continue to fill staffing positions and are excited to be welcoming Mrs. Carolyn Armani and Mrs. Fran Puleo on board to staff our before and after school program. We continue to interview qualified candidates for the middle school math teaching position this month if you would like to share that information with the teachers that you know.

Summer is a busy and wonderful time! Hope you are having a lovely summer, too!

God bless you!
 Mrs. Jennifer Durkin
