A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

This week we welcome Fr. Raju Pilla to speak to our parish about the Missions in his home diocese of Trivandrum, India. Fr. Raju is a friend of mine. He has been the chaplain at St. Mary Hospital for a long time and he also helped out at St. Michael the Archangel in Levittown, where I was an assistant in 1993. I am very happy to host him now that I am pastor.

I went on his home diocese's website and found this description of the people that make up that church.

The Archdiocese of Trivandrum (Thiruvananthapuram) is one of the biggest dioceses of Kerala having a Catholic population of nearly 250,000 people, even after the bifurcation of the Diocese of Neyyattinkara a few years ago.

As much as 90 percent of the faithful in our Diocese of Trivandrum hails from the community of fisher folk. This community as a whole is impoverished and is classified by the Government itself as one of the backward communities. In social stratification, fishermen find their place at the lowest rank of the ladder of social setup.

These people may be poor in material resources. But they are rich in faith. 450 years ago, St. Francis Xavier was walking along this sea-coast preaching the Gospel. In one of his letters addressed to St. Ignatious, St. Francis Xavier writes about this people as follows: "This region is utterly barren and poverty – stricken. Since I came here, I have had no rest. I have been going from village to village. The children would not let me stay at my office or eat or rest till I had taught them some prayer. It was then that I really began to feel that such is the kingdom of heaven. I started to teach them catechism and I saw immediately that they were very intelligent."

It is time to start thinking about inviting someone to our RCIA program. The RCIA stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. It is the process by which an adult becomes a member of the Catholic Faith. Full Initiation into our faith is marked by the reception of the sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion, and Confirmation. The RCIA is a formation and instruction program to help them learn about and experience a deeper faith.

I am very grateful to all those who have been members of the team over the years, they have provided a valuable and much needed service to our parish. (Continued on page 4)

But we need more people who are willing to learn, teach and support those interested. You do not need to be a professional teacher or have a degree in theology, you simply need to be willing to follow a lesson and share your own experience. Those who have been involved have commented that their own faith has grown and developed as a result of being involved.

This year I am excited that we will be using some of the excellent resources on the FORMED website. If you are already fully initiated, you might consider coming to a couple of sessions as a Catholic refresher course. We had a very positive response to our Bible Study class. I have previewed the resources and they are inspiring and exciting. I am asking that you please consider joining our team. Even if you only feel like you can participate in two or three sessions, it will help the overall program, and expose our candidates and catechumens to more people and more experiences. Our sessions are weekly starting in the fall. The meetings are generally an hour, to an hour and a half. Please contact me if you are interested.

Our Night of Inquiry for those interested in becoming fully initiated in our church will be Wed. Sept. 20, 2023 at 7:30 p.m. Please call the rectory to register. God Bless you.
Fr. Bordonaro

Be Encouraged:

Catholic Support for Mental Health

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia has launched a website with resources to support those who are experiencing mental health struggles and those who love them. The website offers links to find Catholic clinicians, local crisis response phone numbers and ministries that can assist with recovery and healing. In addition, there are tools to help parishes, schools and institutions cultivate a deeper awareness of and responsiveness to these realities, suffered by so many. Visit the Be Encouraged website at archphila.org/support.

Padre Pio Festival

Eighth Annual Padre Pio Festival

St. Bede the Venerable Parish

September 16-17, 2023

Saint Bede the Venerable Church, located in Holland, Pennsylvania (Bucks County, Northampton Township), welcomes all to its Eighth Annual Festival to honor St. Pio of Pietrelcina, better known as "Padre Pio," on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 16 and 17. The two-day event begins with Saturday's All-American Picnic Buffet (tickets will be sold at the event), featuring games and amusements for children, food and craft vendors, and live music. The highlight will be a 5:30 p.m. Vigil Mass, followed by blessings with holy relics of Padre Pio.

The Sunday 12:30 p.m. Solemn Mass will be extra special this year, as it will be celebrated by Most Reverend Nelson J. Perez, Archbishop of Philadelphia. The Mass is followed by a street procession with a statue of Padre Pio through the surrounding neighborhood. After the procession, there will be a healing service with confessions and veneration of holy relics. All day there will be specialty food and craft vendors, amusements for children, and live musical entertainment.

Plenty of free parking will be available, and pilgrim buses are welcome. For more information, go online to padrepiofestivalhollandpa.com, or call the St. Bede parish office at 215-357-5720.

This past Wednesday I had the opportunity to be at the New Family Orientation for those whose children are new to our school this year. Our time together was designed to give families the information they need to start the year confident that their child is in good hands at SJR. It was exciting to look out into the room and anticipate all of the wonderful experiences we will share over the course of the next school year. I want to thank our Advancement Director, Kathy Williamson, our Home and School, and all of the wonderful SJR families who are serving as mentor families for their work in extending SJR hospitality!

This week, the faculty will be back at school preparing for the year ahead. It will be wonderful to have all of our returning and new faculty and staff together for the first time.

I can't help but think of Ecclesiastes 3:1, "There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens." Please keep our students, families, and faculty in your prayers as we begin preparations for the exciting year ahead. You will remain in mine.

God bless you and have a wonderful week!

Mrs. Jennifer Durkin
