He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon, son of Jonah.

For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

Last week we welcomed my friend, Fr. Raju Pilla to speak to us about the Missions in his home diocese of Trivandrum, India. Thank you for your generous support of the Missions. Next week we will have another mission collection. I realize that it is awkward running two mission collections so close together but we can only work with the schedule that the Archdiocese and the Pontifical Mission Society provide us. So next week will be another important second collection, for the Black and Indian Missions.

Now is also the time to think about adults who might be interested in learning more about our faith. If you know someone who you think might be interested, please have them give me a call. The RCIA or Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a program offered by the church to instruct those that are not of our faith. In addition, we have combined these classes with those who may have been baptized in the Catholic faith, but never completed their catechesis. We are always looking for new team members willing to share their faith and walk with others on their journey. If you can help us, please contact me. RCIA Night of Inquiry is Wed. Sept. 20th at 7:00 p.m. Please call the rectory to register.

Archbishop Pérez has asked that the following letter be communicated to all the parishes.

God Bless you,
Fr. Bordonaro

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Thank you for your generous support of the Black and Indian Mission Collection each year! This fundraising initiative was established as the first national collection for the Catholic Church in the United States in 1874. Since that time, it has proven itself to be a successful vehicle for sharing the resources of the Church's members to provide for the unique cultural, pastoral, and temporal needs of our African American, Native American, and Alaskan Native sisters and brothers.

Pope Francis reminds us that all are called to evangelize with the zealous heart of a Missionary Disciple. As we embark on another year of evangelization in the communities benefitting from this endeavor, I invite you to make a difference by offering prayers and a financial contribution to support these missions.

Your support provides the presence of missionaries here in African American, Native American, and Alaskan Native missions, parishes, schools, religious education programs and the many, many diocesan programs and projects that strengthen the work of the Gospel. Your partnership places Bibles and catechetical materials in the hands of priests, consecrated men and women, and lay leaders. Your sacrifice impacts pastoral work across the country and addresses the

Treasures from Our Tradition

One of the most memorable images from the pontificate of Pope John Paul II is not his shocked expression as he is hit by a bullet, but rather his tender meeting with his assailant, and his forgiveness. It is far more compelling because, although people are struck by bullets every day, true reconciliation is in relatively short supply. An outside observer might list attempting to kill the pope as an unforgiveable sin, but of course we know that forgiveness of sin is woven deeply into our tradition of living as Christ did. Interestingly enough, the Church took a hard line on these matters early on. Until the second century, people expected Christ's return in the near future, so they deferred judgment to him. Soon, however, bishops began to grant forgiveness for sin after baptism, but only once. What we know as the sacrament of penance takes its life from Jesus' work of reconciliation, but just as scripture shows Jesus forgiving people in one life-changing encounter, so the church granted one chance only. Great sins were the target, such as idolatry, adultery, and murder. Penance was lengthy, difficult, and public, and the bishop was in charge of the process. For the next several weeks, we'll look at subsequent creative and helpful changes in the celebration of this sacrament. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Monthly Food Drive

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Our monthly Food Drive will be held next weekend, September 2nd & 3rd. Items will be collected through September 5th. Non-perishables only. No expired food please Items currently needed: Beef Stew, Chili, Instant Oatmeal, Tuna Helper, Taco Shells, Ketchup/Mustard, Instant Mashed Potatoes, Coffee/Tea, Supermarket Gift Cards. Non Food items: Laundry Detergent (Bottle or Pods), Bar Soap, Paper Towels, Toilet Paper. Thank you for the generous donation of 892 pounds collected in August.

The USDA defines food insecurity as a lack of consistent access to enough food for every person in a household to live an active, healthy life. This can be a temporary situation for a family or can last a long time. Food insecurity is one way we measure how many people can't afford food.

More than 34 million people, including 9 million children experience food insecurity in the United States. Unfortunately, many people in America struggle to meet their basic needs, which increases their risk of food insecurity. For example, lay-offs at work, unexpected car maintenance, a medical emergency, or an accident can suddenly force a family to choose between buying food and paying bills. Thanks for all your support, the fight is a long way from over, but together we are making a difference. Neighbors helping neighbors.

CONGRATULATIONS - BIANCA COHEN!

We are honored to announce that the Association of Church Musicians of Phila. (ACMP) has selected our cantor, Bianca Cohen to receive both the Peter LaManna Scholarship and the Service Award for 2020.

The Peter LaManna $2,000. Scholarship is awarded each year to only one student who is involved in their Parish Liturgy singing as a cantor, choir member, or playing an instrument. In order to receive this Scholarship, the recipient must have acceptable grades in school. They must be approved by their Music Director, Pastor, and Principal, and must continue studies in Liturgical Music. Application for this Scholarship also involves a formal interview and audition. Each year ACMP also presents a $200 Student Award to five outstanding High School seniors and a $100 Student Award to five 8th graders for service to their parish Music Ministry. The goal is to foster a love of liturgy and music as well as encourage active and enthusiastic participation among our youth. This Service Award recognizes outstanding participation in parish Music Ministry programs in any capacity; the outstanding student is highly engaged, dedicated, teaches and leads others, and embodies a spirit of leadership and prayer that inspires others.

We are proud that our cantor here at St. Joseph Church, Bianca Cohen, was selected to receive both of these distinguished awards. There were many other applicants, but Bianca's commitment, hard work, beautiful talent and faith shone through! We would like to thank Bianca for volunteering so much of her time to her Parish. All her hard work practicing is evident in the beauty she adds to our liturgies as she leads the assembly in song. Congratulations, Bianca! Well deserved!! Mrs. Maria Lennon, Music Director
