My Dear Parishioners,
This Wednesday, October 4th, is the Church's feast of St. Francis of Assisi. St. Joseph Church will host our annual Blessing of the Animals, in honor of St. Francis this Sunday, October 1st at 1:00 p.m. Please bring your leashed animals to the grassy area between the two back parking lots for a brief prayer service and blessing.

October is also the time when we have our "October Count" during Masses. We count all those in attendance at all of our Saturday night and Sunday Masses and forward those numbers to the Archdiocese. Please pardon the additional clicking noise during Mass, and thank you to our ushers for taking the count.

We continue our Eucharistic Formation series Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist on Tuesday Oct. 3 and 10th at 6:30 in the parish Lower Hall. Please join us.

Our 40 Hours will be on Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday October 15, 16, and 17. There will be Evening Prayer and Benediction each of the three nights and opportunities for confession on Tuesday. Please sign up for an hour adoration, so that Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament will not be left unattended. Sign-up sheets are at the tables at the church exits.

October is annually observed as Respect Life Month in Catholic Churches across our nation. Bishop Michael F. Burbidge (a former Philadelphia priest and Auxiliary Bishop), Chairman, USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities has written a reflection, here is a portion of the text. To read his full statement go to: www.usccb.org/resources/rfp-23-RLM-Statement.pdf

God Bless you, Fr. Bordonaro

Since 1973, the year the Supreme Court legalized abortion nationwide in Roe v. Wade, the month of October has been set aside by the U.S. bishops as a time to focus on protecting God's precious gift of human life. While we thank God that the terrible reign of Roe has ended, we also recognize that abortion still continues in most states and is aggressively promoted at the federal level. A great many prayers, sacrifices, and good works are still desperately needed to transform a culture of death into a culture of life. Our public witness, our marching, and our advocacy must continue, yet laws alone will not end the tragedy of abortion.

While ending legalized abortion remains our preeminent priority, the most immediate way to save babies and mothers from abortion is to thoroughly surround mothers in need with life-giving support and personal accompaniment. This is radical solidarity. (Continued on page 4.....)

St. John Paul II first defined “radical solidarity” in this way: “In firmly rejecting ‘pro-choice’ it is necessary to become courageously ‘pro woman,’ promoting a choice that is truly in favor of women. ... The only honest stance, in these cases, is that of radical solidarity with the woman. It is not right to leave her alone.”

Being in radical solidarity with women who are pregnant or raising children in difficult circumstances means putting our love for them into action and putting their needs before our own. Pope Francis reminds us that solidarity “refers to something more than a few sporadic acts of generosity. It presumes the creation of a new mindset,” a transformation within our own hearts.

This new mindset requires that we come alongside vulnerable mothers in profound friendship, compassion, and support for both them and their preborn children. It means addressing the fundamental challenges that lead an expectant mother to believe she is unable to welcome the child God has entrusted to her.

This includes collective efforts within our dioceses, parishes, schools and local communities, engagement in the public square, and pursuit of policies that help support both women and their preborn babies. It all the more so requires our individual, personal commitment to helping mothers in our own communities secure material, emotional, and spiritual support for embracing the gift of life. Radical solidarity means moving beyond the status quo and out of our comfort zones.

I want to congratulate the SJR CYO and Home and School Association for a fun and successful golf outing last week. In an era in which childhood anxiety is reported to be on the rise, I couldn't be more grateful for the work that the CYO and HSA do to promote a strong, Catholic community in which children feel welcomed and supported. Team sports and fun activities outside of the school day are important ways to build feelings of social connectedness which have been shown to have positive impacts on reducing stress and increasing overall feelings of satisfaction.

We were blessed this year that during our first Home and School meeting, in addition to our regular Home and School business, Dr. Mary Coakley presented information about anxiety in children. She explained what anxiety can look like in children and gave parents practical tools and strategies to help their children manage their fears and increase their confidence. It was a helpful evening for all who attended.

Thank you to our CYO, the Home and School Association, and Dr. Coakley for helping us as we strive to meet both the academic and social needs of the students in our school. Thank you, too, to all of the parishioners at St. Joseph's and St. Robert's for your continued prayers and support.

God bless you and have a wonderful week!

Mrs. Durkin

American Sign Language Masses

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel will have a Sign Language Interpreter on the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 5th (when applicable) Sundays of the Month at the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

St. Stanislaus Church in Lansdale has a "Deaf Community Mass" at 11:45 a.m. on the 4th Sunday of each month.

Catholics believe that all people are made in the image and likeness of God, and that all the Baptized share in the life and mission of the Church. This includes people with disabilities. A "Sensory Friendly Mass" is one way that a parish can assist in destigmatizing the experience of attending Mass for individuals and families with members with Autism and other disabilities. Across the Archdiocese there are a number of Sensory Friendly Masses that are taking place. To find a Sensory Friendly Mass near you, visit <https://opdarchphilly.org/sfm/>.

Reminder

Please remember to make all checks for the Special and Second Collections payable to St. Joseph Church, not the individual charity. All donations received are then forwarded to the appropriate organization.
