40 Hours Devotion

Sunday, October 15 through Tuesday, October 17

Homilist - Fr. Jerome Braken

7:00 pm

Plan on spending some time with our Lord and give thanks for His blessings

A Note From The Pastor

From the Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

You are invited to join us for some communal and quiet prayer during our 40 Hours celebration. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed in the monstrance on our altar during the day and evening Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, October 15, 16, and 17th. You are also invited to join us for Evening Prayer and Benediction each of those nights at 7:00 p.m. Please take the opportunity to sign up to cover a 30 minute or 60 minute period of time praying before the Blessed Sacrament. The sign-up sheets are at the 3 church exits. The United States Catholic Conference of Bishops says, "(Eucharistic Adoration) is an extension of the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which occurs in every Mass: 'Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.' Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament flows from the sacrifice of the Mass and serves to deepen our hunger for Communion with Christ and the rest of the Church. The Rite concludes with the ordained minister blessing the faithful with the Blessed Sacrament."

As a nation we are trying to strengthen our appreciation of and devotion to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. The U.S Bishops call us to this task on the Eucharistic Revival website. Jesus is calling us deeper: He promises to restore and renew his people. Our world is hurting. We all need healing, yet many of us are separated from the very source of our strength. Jesus Christ invites us to return to the source and summit of our faith in the celebration of the Eucharist. The National Eucharistic Revival is a movement to restore understanding and devotion to this great mystery here in the United States by helping us renew our worship of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist.

At the recent "Eucharistic Congress" we were told that the term Eucharistic Revival may be misleading. The Eucharist is the Living Risen Body of Jesus Christ. It does not need "reviving." However our understanding, respect, and devotion do. The Revival is for us, not for Jesus.

Please note that we will not have the regular Monday Night Rosary on the 16th. Tuesday, our evening prayers will also include a procession with the Blessed Sacrament. The procession is a symbol of the Church on pilgrimage. We are all hopefully making our way towards God's Kingdom and the short walk reminds us that we are called to be moving in faith towards heaven. This year we welcome a Passionist priest, Rev. W. Jerome Bracken as our guest homilist. Our Forty Hours will be a great opportunity to revive our understanding and appreciation of the Eucharist. (Continued on page 4.....)

A Note From The Pastor (continued)

We are also in need of reviving our various liturgical ministries. Through COVID and natural attrition we are in serious need of people willing to act as Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. To participate in these ministries you should be a regular practicing Catholic and if married, in a marriage recognized by the Church. You do not need to be a "living saint" but should be striving to live the Lord's call to conversion. Many people are afraid to take on the responsibility because they say that they are not worthy, but the truth is, no one is worthy, but God still calls. We are also in need of Altar Servers (adult and student), Cantors, Choir Members, and Ushers. If anyone is interested, please contact me or the person in charge of the respective ministries.

God Bless you,
Fr. Bordonaro

Treasures from Our Tradition

The confessional is a familiar setting in literature and drama. Everyone from Doestoevsky and Shakespeare down the line to Seinfeld has used the sacrament to tragic or comic effect or to reveal aspects of character otherwise hidden. All of this theater, from world classics to slapstick, has had a numbing effect on our own expectations, and has skewed how the culture looks at us and our struggle with sin and forgiveness, hope and healing.

Yet the artists are on to something. The reconciliation chapel is a place where hearts are laid bare, where honesty is the watchword, and people confess their deepest needs. It is also a place of rebirth, or at least realignment. It is, like the baptismal font, a place where something dies, and where something else is born. Today, although literature has barely caught up, the place is usually not the dark and gloomy cabinet of old; rather it is a chapel that speaks of peace, serenity, and the comfort of a welcome home. People in one parish were astonished recently to see their children skipping with delight as they left the place of their first confession. We have to wait a bit for world literature to catch up with this reality, but at least we can experience the joy of penance, the thrill of a new beginning, the assurance of God's love. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

It's been a wonderful week at SJR. On Monday, our school community was invited by the Archbishop to attend a special liturgy for all of the schools that are Blue Ribbon Schools of Achievement. It was an honor to be at the Shrine of St. John Neumann and to represent SJR with three of our students, Hannah, Henry, and Derek.

On Friday, we installed our Service Corp Leadership and Representatives following the First Friday Mass. The Service Corp provides an excellent model to our school by assisting in the coordination of service projects in which the entire school can participate. The Service Corp homeroom representatives facilitate communication about these events. In addition, whenever a need arises, the Service Corp is ready to directly lend a hand to the faculty, students, and staff. Congratulations to all involved in our Service Corp!

We are gearing up for our fall open house! If someone in your family or neighborhood is looking for an awesome school experience for their child next year, please have them go to our website and click on the link to attend our open house on Sunday, November 5th.

God bless you and thank you for all you do for our school community!

St. Stanislaus Church in Lansdale has a "Deaf Community Mass" at 11:45 a.m. on the 4th Sunday of each month.

Catholics believe that all people are made in the image and likeness of God, and that all the Baptized share in the life and mission of the Church. This includes people with disabilities. A "Sensory Friendly Mass" is one way that a parish can assist in destigmatizing the experience of attending Mass for individuals and families with members with Autism and other disabilities. Across the Archdiocese there are a number of Sensory Friendly Masses that are taking place. To find a Sensory Friendly Mass near you, visit <https://opdarchphilly.org/sfm/>.

Reminder

Please remember to make all checks for the Special and Second Collections payable to St. Joseph Church, not the individual charity. All donations received are then forwarded to the appropriate organization.
