40 Hours Devotion

Sunday, October 15 through Tuesday, October 17

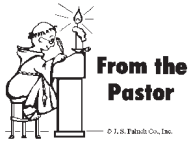

Homilist - Fr. Jerome Bracken

7:00 pm

Plan on spending some time with our Lord and give thanks for His blessings

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

Please pray for our young people who will be receiving the sacraments of Penance, Eucharist, and Confirmation this school year. We present them to the community at the 11:30 Mass this Sunday. We pray that their families will nurture their faith by consistently bringing them to Mass to grow in love of Our Lord Jesus Christ. I am also happy to let you know that we have two adult candidates for our RCIA program. Please pray for them as well as our team and all teachers and catechists in our school, CCD, and RCIA program.

This week we welcome Fr. Jerome Bracken, C.P. as our homilist for our Parish celebration of Forty Hours. Fr. Bracken is a Passionist priest from Queens, NY. He has also been my Spiritual Director since my seminary days. He has taught Moral Theology at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia and also for Seton Hall for a total of over 30 years. I am very pleased to welcome him to St. Joseph for our 40 Hours. This devotion to Jesus present in the Eucharist traces its origins back to the time of St. John Neumann. Here in Philadelphia, it is the special time that a parish sets aside to worship Jesus truly present Body and Blood, soul and divinity in the Holy Eucharist. Our church will expose the Blessed Sacrament on the altar Sunday, Monday and Tuesday October 15, 16, & 17 (after the 11:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday and after the 8:00 a.m. Mass on Monday and Tuesday). We will celebrate Evening Prayer and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 7:00 p.m. You can use these three days as a type of "mini-retreat." Please sign up for an hour on the sheets at the exits of the church. The Blessed Sacrament should not be unattended. Schedule some time to make a visit to the Blessed Sacrament during the day or early evening and pray. You can use the time to pray a rosary, or do some reading of scripture, or meditate about your life, or simply be present to God in whatever way inspires you. Just invite the Lord into your mind and heart and tell Him what is going on with you, or just rest in His presence.

Next week we will celebrate World Mission Sunday on October 22, 2023. Archbishop Pérez has asked that we communicate the following letter in preparation for the Collection.

God Bless you, Fr. Bordonaro

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On October 22, we will join Catholics worldwide to observe World Mission Sunday by celebrating the love of the Lord and help bring the Good news to all corners of the Earth.

Inspired by the story of the disciples on the way to Emmaus, Pope Francis chose this year's theme: "Hearts on fire, feet on the move." He invites us to reflect on these images, "their hearts burned within them as they heard the Scriptures explained by Jesus, their eyes were opened as they recognized him and, ultimately, their feet set out on the way." As Missionary disciples, we seek inspiration in the Scriptures. We also look to the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist as the source and summit of the Church's Mission so we can evangelize with zeal and urgency.

As we celebrate World Mission Sunday, we call to mind a Missionary disciple whose heart burned with the Gospel,

Blessed Pauline Jaricot, foundress of the Pontifical Mission Societies. She recognized that all are called to participate in the Missionary work of the Church through spiritual and material offerings. Her vision led to World Mission Sunday, which helps the Pope support Missionary activity.

The World Mission Sunday collection assists the Holy Father in proclaiming the Gospel and celebrating the Sacraments in over 1,111 Mission dioceses and areas that are young and in need of resources. Your gifts help build and operate schools and orphanages, construct churches, train catechists and educate Mission seminarians and Religious men and women.

I urge you to keep your hearts aflame and your feet moving this World Mission Sunday and every day. Working together with that spirit, we can bring everyone to recognize Jesus in the Word and the Eucharist. Your prayers are invaluable, and your financial support provides life-giving aid to our brothers and sisters around the world.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez, D.D.,

Archbishop of Philadelphia

Treasures from Our Tradition

When the fathers of the Second Vatican Council met to discuss the sacrament of penance, they were required to draw up a new rite, including several forms. The hot button for debate was so-called “general absolution,” by which a penitent could be absolved of sin without confessing to a priest. This was a difficult debate, compounded by widely varying traditions in both East and West. Some were surprised to learn that the Holy See had already given permission, during the First and Second World Wars, for this form. In 1944 the Vatican issued a decree saying this form was valid under extreme conditions, which bishops in mission lands and Latin America took as a kind of “blanket permission.” Thus, the fathers of the Council were alarmed to find this practice fairly widespread, not only in war, but in peaceful places with huge numbers of faithful and few priests. Although they eventually produced a ritual with three different forms, the forms are not considered equal, and the enriched and revised individual form is preferred. The enrichments include a welcome of the penitent, a sign of the cross with an encouragement to trust in God’s compassion, new texts rich in the Word of God, praise for God’s mercy, and a dismissal —Rev. I had the wonderful opportunity to join this week with other principals from around the Archdiocese of Philadelphia for a conference and for communal prayer and retreat. I am so grateful for their prayers, support and assistance. I am grateful for yours as well.

While I was at the conference, teams of girls from 6th, 7th and 8th grade had the opportunity to support each other as they competed in The Sciathlon, an annual science competition held at Villa Joseph Marie High School, Holland, PA. I am looking forward to hearing all about their experience. Congratulations to our competitors, Kelsey, Charlotte, Hannah, Meredith, Maggie, Maddie, Emma, Hannah, Kylie, Angella, Ashley, and Bella!

Congratulations, too, to our Apple of My Eye winners this past week: Callaway, Robbie, Olivia, and Isabella! Thank you for making SJR such a special place to be and for providing such an excellent model to the rest of our school community with your acts of kindness and generosity!

Our first Admissions Open House for the 2024 - 2025 school year is Sunday, November 5th from 11:30 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. We look forward to sharing our mission and vision with interested families as we welcome them into our school. American Sign Language Masses

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel will have a Sign Language Interpreter on the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 5th (when applicable) Sundays of the Month at the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

St. Stanislaus Church in Lansdale has a "Deaf Community Mass" at 11:45 a.m. on the 4th Sunday of each month.

Catholics believe that all people are made in the image and likeness of God, and that all the Baptized share in the life and mission of the Church. This includes people with disabilities. A "Sensory Friendly Mass" is one way that a parish can assist in destigmatizing the experience of attending Mass for individuals and families with members with Autism and other disabilities. Across the Archdiocese there are a number of Sensory Friendly Masses that are taking place. To find a Sensory Friendly Mass near you, visit <https://opdarchphilly.org/sfm/>.

Reminder

Please remember to make all checks for the Special and Second Collections payable to St. Joseph Church, not the individual charity. All donations received are then forwarded to the appropriate organization.
