A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

As we enter the holiday season, the parish has beautiful religious Christmas cards based on our amazing stained glass window of the Nativity.

You can purchase them at the rectory office or at the St. Joseph / St. Robert school office. They are in packs of 25 cards and envelopes for $15.00.

Our parish calendars for the year 2024 are now available at the church exits. Please take one home with you. They are the gift of the Louis Swift Plunkett Funeral Home.

This weekend the Archdiocese is kicking off its annual seminary appeal. The Seminary Rector, Fr. Keith Chylinski has written a letter discussing the importance of this appeal. Here is the Rector's Letter.

God Bless you, Fr. Bordonaro

As the Rector of Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary, it is my privilege and joy to accompany our seminarians and students as they follow the call to holiness and service. Daily I, along with my brother priests, faculty and staff, witness the joy of the Gospel unfolding as they strive to embody the meaning of servant leadership and missionary discipleship. Formation at Saint Charles goes beyond academic study; it is a deliberate and loving process nurturing the whole person, encompassing spiritual, human, pastoral, and intellectual dimensions of growth. Your support of the Seminary Appeal enables us to provide our seminarians and students with the necessary resources for the journey ~ theological education; spiritual guidance; pastoral experience; a supportive community.

Through your support of the annual Appeal, you participate in the seminary's mission to prepare future generations of priestly, pastoral leaders of our Catholic faith. Your contributions are not only a gift to the seminary but also a gift to the entire Church. Together, we can continue to spread the message of Christ and make a lasting impact on countless lives.

As Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary relocates to a new campus in Lower Gwynedd next fall, we are deeply aware that the seminary is more than a beautiful property and iconic buildings. Our commitment to core mission and values, our strong academic curriculum and pastoral internship programs, and our hope-filled enthusiasm for the work of formation endure. Your generosity has been instrumental in sustaining our operations and ensuring that our mission thrives. We are deeply grateful for your past contributions and ask you to consider supporting our annual Seminary Appeal once again. We invite you to partner with us in keeping the mission alive, providing the resources necessary for the formation and education of future priests, deacons and pastoral leaders.

On behalf of the entire seminary community, I extend prayerful gratitude for your generosity and support.

Rev. Keith A. Chylinski

Treasures From Our Tradition

For several weeks, we have considered penance as a sacrament of forgiveness, and yet there are two other sacraments in this category. The first, of course, is the Eucharist itself. The other is the sacrament of the sick, long associated with penance.

The Letter of James sets out the deep tradition for caring for the sick: sending for the priests, who will pray and lay their hands on the sick ones, anointing them with oil, and giving them forgiveness. Long before other rites of penance developed, the sacrament of the sick was therefore a profound experience of forgiveness. Jesus often healed the sick, nearly always as a visible sign of forgiveness of sin. The tradition didn’t unfold smoothly, however, and within a few centuries the oil of the sick was taken home to be applied by caregivers as a salve, or even to be drunk as a medicine. As early as the second century, bishops were therefore urging that priests should be the ones to visit those separated by illness from the Sunday assembly. Thus the practice of consigning the Eucharist and the oil of the sick to the non-ordained faithful to bring home was relatively short-lived. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

I love this time of year, from the start of sweater weather to football season to our third graders in the Saint Parade in honor of All Saints Day! Fall also means it is time for our favorite fundraising event, the Annual St. Joseph/St. Robert School Walkathon!

The SJR Walkathon, which this year takes place on Friday, November 10th, is a long-standing and very important tradition as our school community takes a walk in God's beautiful world in order to raise money for our Health and Wellness Program. This program is critical for our students as it funds our daily school nurse, ongoing safety training for the faculty including CPR and First Aid and other safety needs.

I am also thrilled to share the news that a very generous anonymous donor has offered a matching grant of up to $15,000.00 for our SJR Fall Giving Campaign! This means that every gift to the school during the fall will be matched dollar-for-dollar up to $15,000.00! So, this year in addition to supporting our Health and Wellness program, the matching donation will allow us to support the long-term health of our school by investing in our early childhood program as well.

If you would like to contribute to our walkathon, please go to the school's website at www.stjstr.org or contact me directly at jdurkin@stjstr.org.

God bless you and have a wonderful week!

St. Stanislaus Church in Lansdale has a "Deaf Community Mass" at 11:45 a.m. on the 4th Sunday of each month.

Catholics believe that all people are made in the image and likeness of God, and that all the Baptized share in the life and mission of the Church. This includes people with disabilities. A "Sensory Friendly Mass" is one way that a parish can assist in destigmatizing the experience of attending Mass for individuals and families with members with Autism and other disabilities. Across the Archdiocese there are a number of Sensory Friendly Masses that are taking place. To find a Sensory Friendly Mass near you, visit <https://opdarchphilly.org/sfm/>.
