A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

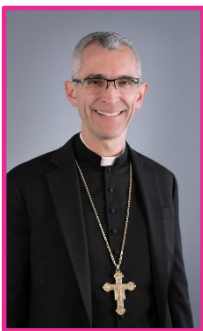

On March 7, 2024 Archbishop Perez will ordain three Philadelphia priests as Auxiliary Bishops for the Archdiocese. This has never happened in all my time in Philadelphia. It is very exciting for our local church. Our 2024 Confirmation class will be the first class ever confirmed by Bishop-elect Chylinski. In case you would like to know more about our newest bishops, I took the following from the Archdiocesan website. Please pray for them as they respond to God's call.

Biographical Information Regarding Bishop-elect Keith J. Chylinski

Bishop-elect Keith J. Chylinski was born on July 23, 1971 to Edmund Chylinski and the late Kelly Donovan. A native of Schenectady, New York, he attended West Woods Elementary and Middle School in Hamden, Connecticut, and Conestoga High School in Berwyn, Pennsylvania.

Prior to entering the program of priestly formation at Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary, he earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Temple University. While studying at the Seminary, he earned a Master of Divinity Degree in 2006 and a Master of Arts Degree in 2007. He was ordained to the Priesthood by Cardinal Justin Rigali on May 19, 2007. Bishop-elect Chylinski served as Parochial Vicar of Saint Anselm Parish (Philadelphia) from 2007 to 2011; Parochial Vicar of Mary Mother of the Redeemer Parish (North Wales) from 2011 to 2012; and a faculty member at Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary from 2014 to 2022. He also served as a Board Member of the Council of Priests from 2009 to 2011 and assisted with weekend ministry at Saint Joseph Parish (Downingtown) from 2014 to 2017. He has served as a weekend assistant at Saint Alphonsus Parish (Maple Glen) since 2017. Since 2022, Bishop-elect Chylinski has served as the Rector of Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary.

Biographical Information Regarding Bishop-elect Christopher R. Cooke

Don't let these sunny days fool you. It's still winter and flu season extends to May. Good health habits often can help stop the spread of germs and prevent respiratory illnesses like flu.

1. Avoid close contact with people who are sick.
2. Stay home when you are sick.
3. Clean your hands.
4. Avoid touching your eyes, nose or mouth.
5. Practice other good health habits. Clean and disinfect frequently touched surfaces, especially when someone is ill.
6. Get plenty of sleep, be physically active, manage your stress, drink plenty of fluids, and eat nutritious food.

I've had the opportunity in the past week or so to spend some quality time with SJR's middle schoolers. They had been working on some science projects and I was delighted to sit in on their presentations. The project for the 7th and 8th graders was to investigate and compare the structure of three different organisms' hearts and create a poster about them and present the information to the class. The 6th graders researched the "heart of the earth" or the earth's core, created a model and a poster and presented them to the class. Of course, the presentations began on Valentine's Day! Science is such a wonderful opportunity to grow in knowledge about the world and to grow in awe of the God who created it. SJR adopted a new science program in the fall which required a lot of extra work for the teachers and an adjustment for the students. It was wonderful to see the fruits of their labor!

On Monday, I had the pleasure of traveling to the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul and the Shrine of Saint Katharine Drexel in Philadelphia with the 7th graders from St. Joseph's Parish who will be making their Confirmation next month. It was an awesome experience that combined the discussion of fascinating history, beautiful art and architecture, and the faith that inspired it. I was so impressed by the tour but so much more by the discussion and contributions by the young ladies and gentlemen! It was wonderful to hear them make connections between what they were seeing and hearing in the cathedral and what they had been studying in preparation for Confirmation. Please continue to keep them in your prayers. If you have never been on a tour of the cathedral, I highly recommend it.

Thanks for all you do for SJR!

Gratefully,
 Mrs. Durkin
