A Note From The Pastor

From the Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,
 I hope that you had a peace filled, spiritually beneficial, and Blessed Easter. When we celebrate the Lord's resurrection, it is not just His personal victory over death that we celebrate, but also the fact that He has won salvation for all of us. This Second Sunday of Easter, or the Octave Day of Easter, is also known as Divine Mercy Sunday. I thought it would be important to remind ourselves about this feast. Here are some excerpts I have taken from the Divine Mercy website. You can see the full text at www.thedivinemercy.org.

The feast of Divine Mercy Sunday is the result of a revelation to St. Maria Faustina. Our Lord's explicit desire is that this feast be celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Pope John Paul II in his homily at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000 declared: "It is important then that we accept the whole message that comes to us from the word of God on this Second Sunday of Easter, which from now on throughout the Church, will be called 'Divine Mercy Sunday.'"

By the words "the whole message," Pope John Paul II was referring to the connection between the "Easter Mystery of the Redemption" — in other words, the suffering, death, burial, resurrection, and ascension of Christ, followed by the sending of the Holy Spirit — and this Feast of Divine Mercy, the Octave Day of Easter, which fulfills the grace of atonement as lived through by Christ Jesus and offered to all who come to Him with trust.

As part of our devotion, we honor an image of Jesus as revealed to St. Maria Faustina (a copy is placed in our sanctuary). Pope John Paul II also made clear that the Image of The Divine Mercy St. Faustina saw, which is to be venerated on Divine Mercy Sunday, represents the Risen Christ bringing mercy to the world. Pope John Paul II said: "Jesus shows His hands and His side [to the Apostles]. He points, that is, to the wounds of the Passion, especially the wound in His Heart, the source from which flows the great wave of mercy poured out on humanity. St. Faustina saw two rays of light shining from that Heart and illuminating the world: 'The two rays,' Jesus Himself explained to her one day, 'represent blood and water' (Diary, 299).

Clearly, Divine Mercy Sunday is not a feast established to celebrate St. Faustina's revelations. Indeed, it is not primarily about St. Faustina at all — nor is it altogether a new feast! As many commentators have pointed out, The Second Sunday of Easter was already a solemnity as the Octave Day of Easter; nevertheless, the title "Divine Mercy Sunday" does highlight and amplify the meaning of the day. In this way, it recovers an ancient liturgical tradition, reflected in a teaching attributed to St. Augustine about the Easter Octave, which he called "the days of mercy and pardon," (Continued on page 4) and the Octave Day itself "the compendium of the days of mercy." As Pope John Paul II pointed out in his Regina Coeli address on Divine Mercy Sunday, 1995: "the whole octave of Easter is like a single day," and the Octave Sunday is meant to be the day of "thanksgiving for the goodness God has shown to man in the whole Easter mystery."

On Monday of this week, we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord. Normally celebrated on March 25th, it was preempted by Holy Week this year so it was transferred to the first available day. This feast marks the Incarnation of Our Lord, when the angel announced to Mary that she would give birth to God's Son, and she said YES!

God Bless You!

SJR's Home and School Association inspired our students to "Make change worth dancing about" by rallying their support for The Next Step Program, an organization in Doylestown dedicated to empowering students and young adults with disabilities. The program provides valuable opportunities for growth, learning, and fun, equipping individuals with the essential skills for a successful transition from school to work.

Between January and March, our students, families, and staff joined together to contribute over 25,000 coins to further The Next Step Program's mission. Then, on March 22nd, the joyful vibes of the 1950s filled the gym as our school community, with representatives from The Next Step Program, came together in retro attire for SJR's inaugural sock hop! It was an afternoon filled with fun and dancing and it also gave us an opportunity to present a check for $2,000 to The Next Step Program. We hope our contribution assists the great work that they are doing in the community!

God bless you and have a wonderful week.
