A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

I am so happy to be with you and thank you so much for the warm welcome. Just a little about myself. I am 57 and was raised in the Upper Perkiomen Valley area of Montgomery County.

I have a brother and a sister and one niece (who is in high school). Both of my parents are deceased.

I attended St. Philip Neri grade school in East Greenville and graduated from Upper Perkiomen High School in 1985. After high school I did quality assurance work for a company in Sellersville for many years.

After I started to feel the call to the priesthood, I entered St. Charles Seminary in 2002 and was ordained a priest by Justin Cardinal Rigali in 2010 at the age of 43.

My first assignment was as Parochial Vicar at Our Lady of Good Counsel in Southampton. This was followed by an assignment as Parochial Vicar at St. Eleanor in Collegeville. From 2014 to 2019 I served as Parochial Vicar of St. Joseph Parish in Aston. In 2019, I was appointed Pastor of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart Parish in Hilltown.

Now, I am so very happy that I have been appointed your Pastor. St. Joseph Parish has a rich history and is widely known as a warm and friendly community. The people of this part of Bucks and Montgomery Counties are the best! I am certain that we will have many happy years together.

Just a little note on this weekend's first reading. The reading comes from the Book of Job. The sufferings of Job foreshadow the sufferings of Christ. Moreover, the restoration of Job's health and wealth foreshadow the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

The version of this letter on our website includes a teaching by St. Zeno on the life of Job being a foreshadowing of the Life of Christ.

The version of the letter on the website also includes a Litany to St. John the Baptist, who's Nativity we celebrate on Monday.

May the Good Lord, through the intercession of our Patron, St. Joseph, grant us many happy years together.

St. Joseph, Patron of the Church, pray for us!

Fr. Michael J Pawelko, Pastor.

From a sermon by Saint Zeno on Job
Zeno (d. 371) + Bishop of Verona, Italy, theological writer. A native of Africa, he was named bishop in 362 and proved an ardent opponent of Arianism. He also promoted discipline among the clergy and in liturgical life, built a cathedral, and founded a convent. Zeno wrote extensively on the virgin birth of Christ and other theological matters. He was the subject of numerous legends. Feast day: April 12. (From Catholic.org)

Is Job a type of Christ? If I am right, he is, and the comparison will reveal the truth of my claim. But while Job was called a just man by God, God himself is the fountain of justice from whom all the saints drink. See what Scripture says: The sun of justice will arise for you. Job was called truthful, but the Lord is, as he says in the Gospel, the way, the truth and the life. And while Job was rich, the Lord is far richer, for the earth is the Lord's and everything in it; the world and all who dwell in it. All rich men are his servants, and the whole world and all of nature as well.

But we may compare Job and Christ in many ways. As Job was tempted by the devil three times, so too Christ was tempted three times. The Lord set aside his riches out of love for us and chose poverty so that we might become rich, while Job lost all that he possessed. A violent wind killed Job's sons, while the sons of God, the prophets, were killed by the fury of the Pharisees. Job became ulcerated and disfigured, while the Lord, by becoming man, took on the defilement of the sins committed by all mankind. The wife of Job tempted him to sin, much as the synagogue tried to force the Lord to yield to corrupt leadership. (Continued on page 4)

Sun: Wis 1:13-15; 2:23-24; Ps 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13; 2 Cor 8:7, 9, 13-15; Mk 5:21-43 or 5:21-24, 35b-43

Thus he was insulted by the priests, the servants of his altar, as Job was insulted by his friends. And as Job sat on a dunghill of worms, so all the evil of the world is really a dunghill which became the Lord's dwelling place, while men that abound in every sort of crime and base desire are really worms.

The restoration of health and riches to Job prefigures the resurrection, which gives health and eternal life to those who believe in Christ. Regaining lordship over all the world, Christ says: All things have been given to me by my Father. And just as Job fathered other sons, so too did Christ, for the apostles, the sons of the Lord, succeeded the prophets.

Job died happily and in peace, but there is no death for the Lord. He is praised for ever, just as he was before time began, and as he always will be as time continues and moves into eternity.

Summer has begun on a lovely note! It will take a moment to adjust to the quiet in the building, but soon enough, the sounds of children's laughter from our early childhood play groups will fill the air on the playground. If your child is enrolled in Pre-K through 1st grade for next year, you should have received a schedule for our summer play groups. If not, please don't hesitate to contact Kathy Williamson at kwilliamson@stjstr.org.

Our Summer Reading Challenge for students entering Kindergarten through 8th grade has begun! We kicked it off with a wonderful evening at The Doylestown Book Shop last week. This challenge is a fun opportunity for students to log the minutes they spend reading through our app, encouraging reading while keeping track of their progress. The logged minutes pave the way to exciting prizes and recognition in the fall!

I'm thrilled to announce that we have hired an SJR alum and St. Joseph's parishioner, Ms. Katlynn Razler to join our faculty for the new school year! She will be one of three kindergarten teachers. There are a few remaining spots for students to enroll in kindergarten with either a half day or full day option. You can find the application or request more information through our website at www.stjstr.org.

God bless you and have a wonderful week!

Gratefully, Mrs. Durkin
