Catechetical Sunday

Parents are truly
the primary catechists of their children.

They prepare the soil and plant the first seeds of faith. On Catechetical Sunday, we not only highlight the work of catechists in parishes and schools, but we also commend parents and guardians and encourage them to take seriously their role of making their Catholic households a place where faith is passed on to the next generation.

A Note From The Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

Our children and grandchildren are now back to school. This past weekend we had a little taste of autumn. Fall routines are now starting.

This week, our Religious Education Program begins its Fall Semester. We certainly thank our catechists and their aids, and we pray that our students and catechists will all have a very blessed academic year.

We are in the planning stages of our annual Forty Hours Devotions, which will be on Sunday, Oct 13, Monday, Oct. 14, and Tuesday, Oct 15. Our homilist this year is Fr. Christopher Picollo. Fr. Picollo is a priest of the Diocese of Trenton and pastor of the Church of the Nativity in Fair Haven, NJ. We are all looking forward to having some quality time with Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament, and we are also looking forward to welcoming Fr. Picollo to our parish.

We are also preparing to welcome Mrs. Kathleen McCarthy to St. Joseph's. Mark your calendars--she will be with us on Thursday, November 7, at 7:00. Kathleen is in much demand as a speaker. Kathleen will be speaking with us on her love of the Most Holy Eucharist. She will do so in the context of a Holy Hour that evening. The Holy Hour will conclude with Benediction. Everyone is encouraged to attend, and please, do feel free to bring a friend.

Just an update on our promise to install security cameras. We have had two contractors out so far, and we have received one estimate back. The estimate was for 16 cameras along with the control and monitoring equipment, hard wiring, and labor. The estimate came in at just over $15,000. We are waiting for the other estimate and are also looking for one more vendor in order that we will have one more estimate. We will keep you updated.

This Tuesday, we wish our friends at St. Robert Bellarmine Parish a Happy Feast Day. This Tuesday is also the close of their Forty Hours Devotion, and I will be attending.

This Thursday is also the Feast of Our Lady of La Salette. This Feast recalls her appearance to shepherd's children in France in 1846. As with all of her appearances, the Blessed Mother called us to continued conversion and constant faithfulness to her Son and His Catholic Church. I have included a Litany to her with this bulletin.

May you and your families continue to experience many blessings and have a truly wonderful week.

St. Joseph, Patron of the Church and Our Patron, pray for us!

Fr. Michael J Pawelko, Pastor

Treasures From Our Tradition

In this country, we don't name our churches "The Fourth Avenue Catholic Church," but rather seek a patron saint or mystery of faith. We inherit this tradition from an old Roman custom via medieval England. Interestingly, that has not been the practice elsewhere, and parishes abroad often do carry just the name of the neighborhood. In Ireland, the Roman (English) practices didn't take hold, and so churches are known simply by the street they are on, or by a nickname. Saint Francis of Assisi in Dublin is often called "Adam and Eve" after a pub in the same street. The pub sign is an interesting carving of our first parents, so they become patrons by default.

Increasingly in the United States, we are seeing a familiar European pattern emerge when a few churches, each bearing the name of a patron saint or mystery, are gathered into one parish that bears a different name. Thus, we might hear of a parish of "Midvalley City" comprised of Saint Mary, Saint Francis, and Saint Ursula churches. Once a church has been consecrated, its name may not normally be changed. Therefore, when parishes are merged, a new name is given to the parish, which may or may not be that of a heavenly patron, but the church buildings retain their names. In the process, we have lost sight of some worthy patrons of old, but have also seen new parishes open dedicated to twentieth-century saints like Edith Stein, Katharine Drexel, and Mother Teresa. —Rev. James Field

ST. JOSEPH/ST. ROBERT SCHOOL
FOCUSED ON FAITH AND LEARNING

Mrs. Jennifer Durkin, Principal
850 Euclid Avenue, Warrington, PA 18976
215-343-5100 www.stjstr.org

We are thrilled to announce a new and exciting club for our school this year! Our students will be diving into the world of robotics with the launch of our Robotics Club, which will be competing in the First Lego League's "Submerged" challenge.

This year's theme invites teams to explore the layers of the ocean using creative thinking and Lego technology. It's a fantastic opportunity for them to engage in hands-on STEM learning and apply their creativity to real-world problems.

We are grateful to Tom Molz, a devoted parishioner of St. Joseph Parish, who has generously volunteered as our team's coach and is working to establish our club. We are confident that our team members, who are in grades six through eight, will have a great experience.

A heartfelt thank you also goes to Alliance Holdings in Horsham for their generous sponsorship. Their support is helping us provide the necessary resources and tools for our students to make the most of this challenge.

We would welcome anyone interested in helping as an assistant coach. If you have a passion for the ocean, robotics, engineering, or simply want to help inspire young scientists, please contact me for more details.

We are excited to see the incredible ideas and solutions our students will develop as they embark on this adventure. Thank you for your continued support and prayers as we dive into this exciting opportunity!

Blessings,

Mrs. Durkin
