My Dear Parishioners,

As we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, we are also preparing for Thanksgiving Day. I am certain there is still much to do as we either get ready to host, or we prepare ourselves to travel to someone else's home for Thanksgiving.

I myself will be hosting my family in our rectory on Thanksgiving Day. This is something that I have been doing annually, and I am looking forward to my first Thanksgiving with you, and my first Thanksgiving with my family in my new home of St. Joseph.

It is good that this Feast of Christ the King coincides with Thanksgiving Day, because we have a King who gave thanks for us: that time Jesus said in reply, "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the childlike. Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him" (Matthew 11: 25-27).

Then at the Last Supper, He gave additional thanks for the gift to able to share Himself with us through the Most Holy Eucharist: "For, I tell you, I shall not eat it [again] until there is fulfillment in the kingdom of God." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and said, "Take this and share it among yourselves; for I tell you [that] from this time on I shall not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes." Then he took the bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of me." And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which will be shed for you." (Luke 22: 16-20).

Jesus Our King is so good and so loving! As we count our blessings this Thanksgiving Day and give thanks for our family and friends and reminisce about Thanksgivings past and family and friends who are no longer with us, let us continue to give praise and thanksgiving for Jesus's thanksgiving for us!

Our Thanksgiving Day Mass is at 9:00.

I have included President George Washington's Thanksgiving Day Proclamation. I have loved this Proclamation, because it is a reminder from a civil authority that we owe all good things to God.

On behalf of our faithful staff, I do wish everyone a very Happy Thanksgiving!

St. Joseph, Patron of the Church, and our Patron, pray for us!

Fr. Michael J Pawelko, Pastor

From the Desk of Fr. Pawelko (continued)George Washington's Thanksgiving Proclamation

Smithsonian Institution Transcript of President George Washington's Thanksgiving Proclamation from October 3, 1789.

By the President of the United States of America—

A Proclamation

Whereas it is the duty of all Nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey his will, to be grateful for his benefits, and humbly to implore his protection and favor—and Whereas both Houses of Congress have by their Joint Committee requested me "to recommend to the People of the United States a day of public thanksgiving and prayer to be observed by acknowledging with grateful hearts the many signal favors of Almighty God, especially by affording them an opportunity peaceably to establish a form of government for their safety and happiness."

Now therefore I do recommend and assign Thursday the 26th day of November next to be devoted by the People of these States to the service of that great and glorious Being, who is the beneficent Author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be—That we may then all unite in rendering unto him our sincere and humble thanks—for his kind care and protection of the People of this country previous to their becoming a Nation—for the signal and manifold mercies, and the favorable interpositions of his providence, which we experienced in the course and conclusion of the late war—for the great degree of tranquility, union, and plenty, which we have since enjoyed—for the peaceable and rational manner in which we have been enabled to establish constitutions of government for our safety and happiness, and particularly the national One now lately instituted, for the civil and religious liberty with which we are blessed, and the means we have of acquiring and diffusing useful knowledge; and in general for all the great and various favors which he hath been pleased to confer upon us.

And also that we may then unite in most humbly offering our prayers and supplications to the great Lord and Ruler of Nations and beseech him to pardon our national and other transgressions—to enable us all, whether in public or private stations, to perform our several and relative duties properly and punctually—to render our national government a blessing to all the People, by constantly being a government of wise, just, and constitutional laws, discreetly and faithfully executed and obeyed—to protect and guide all Sovereigns and Nations (especially such as have shown kindness unto us) and to bless them with good government, peace, and concord—To promote the knowledge and practice of true religion and virtue, and the increase of science among them and Us—and generally to grant unto all mankind such a degree of temporal prosperity as he alone knows to be best.

Given under my hand at the City of New York the third day of October in the year of our Lord 1789.

Geo. Washington

Treasures From Our Tradition

Despite the fact that the feast of Christ the King was established less than a century ago, it has already undergone a shift in focus. When Pope Pius XI established this feast in 1925, nationalism and fascism were on the rise. The pope intended that it be a "vehicle for spiritual teaching," one that would recognize the ultimate authority of Christ over all political and social scheming. The last Sunday of October was chosen as the date for the feast because of its proximity to the feast of All Saints, those men and women who bore witness to Christ's reign in so many different ways.

The calendar reforms of 1969 moved the feast to the last Sunday of the liturgical year. There, in the context of November's focus on the end times, Christ's second coming at the end of all time is highlighted. The threefold cycle of readings also expands our imaginations in regard to this feast. In this year's Gospel, Christ stands before Pilate, whose own power blinds him to the truth of the Lord's kingdom. In a world where oppression still holds sway over too many people, this feast is somehow still as timely as when Pope Pius XI first established it. —Rev. James Field

This year's Walkathon was a joyful celebration of one of SJR's favorite traditions, blending faith, community, and support for our Health and Wellness Program. This vital initiative provides daily nursing services and essential training for our faculty and staff, ensuring the well-being of our students.

The Walkathon was more than just a fun event and important fundraiser; it was a powerful opportunity to be missionary disciples. As we walked through the neighborhood last Friday, we became visible reminders of the Catholic school tradition and God's invitation to follow Jesus. Our transformational encounters with Christ inspire everything we do, and this event was no exception.

We were blessed with beautiful weather and an incredible turnout. Families, students, and staff came together to share in this meaningful day. We are deeply grateful for the generosity and participation of everyone involved, especially our faculty, our Home and School Association, and Mrs. Debby Perks, who chaired the event.

As we move into this Thanksgiving week, please know that our community is also very grateful for your prayers and the support of our parishes. I hope you have a blessed week and a wonderful Thanksgiving with family and friends.

Sincerely,
 Mrs. Durkin

Visit with Our Lady of Guadalupe

“The Pilgrim Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe” is brought to your home by a parishioner on Sunday. Our Lady wants to come and visit with you in a personal way for a whole week. Welcome her with love and gratitude. Gather each day to pray, speak to her about your concerns. Empty your heart out to her then in silence let her fill it with her maternal love, guidance and graces she obtains for you. Let her renew you in the spirit of her Son, Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior. Then on the following Sunday the picture of “Our Lady of Guadalupe” will be picked up and continue on to her next family visit. To schedule a visit call Kathie Zajkowski @ 484-925-8080.
