From the Desk of Fr. Pawelko

My Dear Parishioners,

Christmas is just days away and the celebrations have already begun, and we should celebrate and celebrate big!

The Scripture accounts about the Nativity fill us with hope and joy. The Nativity accounts lead us to celebrate as they confirm that a Savior is born to us; God has become man; we can now share in the Glory of God. The Prologue of the Gospel of John joyfully proclaims: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came to be through Him, and without Him nothing came to be. What came to be through Him was life, and this life was the light of the human race; the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.....And the Word became flesh and made His dwelling among us, and we saw His glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth.....From His fullness we have all received, grace in place of grace, because while the law was given through Moses, grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

The Gospel of St. Luke adds to our sense of hope and joy: In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that the whole world should be enrolled. This was the first enrollment, when Quirinius was governor of Syria. So all went to be enrolled, each to his own town. And Joseph too went up from Galilee from the town of Nazareth to Judea, to the city of David that is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David, to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child. While they were there, the time came for her to have her child, and she gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped Him in swaddling clothes and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. Now there were shepherds in that region living in the fields and keeping the night watch over their flock. The angel of the Lord appeared to them and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were struck with great fear. The angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a Savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was a multitude of the heavenly host with the angel, praising God and saying: "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests."

Our Christmas Masses begin Christmas Eve at 4:00PM and 6:30PM and continue with our Christmas Masses at Midnight and 7:30AM, 9:30AM, and 11:30AM. I am looking forward to my first Christmas as your pastor.

I will be spending Christmas with my family. Since we are both Polish and Italian descent, we have the best of both worlds when it comes to Christmas dinner. I hope that you will be with your friends and family and also again enjoy your family traditions.

May you carry the hope and joy of the Nativity in your hearts day and night, and if I may, on behalf of our staff, may I offer you and yours an early Merry Christmas!

Fr. Michael J Pawelko, Pastor

Treasures From Our Tradition

In ancient pagan Rome, these days in mid-December were a time for general slacking off at work and far too much rejoicing. The period of leisure after the harvest and a whole cluster of pagan festivals were a force for the church to reckon with. The Saturnalia, breaking out on December 17, was a time of high living and loose morals. Christians were advised by their bishops to drop out of the mayhem and do some serious fasting. A famous church council at Saragossa in Spain made a season of fasting mandatory from December 17 to December 23, exactly coinciding with the Saturnalia. The bishops at that time were perhaps less concerned with preparing for Christmas than with resisting the kind of loose living going on.

Modern times have restored a bit of the Saturnalia spirit to our culture, so that a general period of partying with a vague connection to religion is now upon us. How does a Christian keep balance? The practice of charity by remembering the poor in our gift-giving, of hospitality in finding a place at our holiday tables for the poor and lonely, and of daily prayer in the home and at church are great helps. Although Advent is not a penitential season like Lent, it is a time for making room in our lives for what matters most.

I would like to extend a “Merry Christmas” to you and your family from all of the faculty, staff, and students at St. Joseph/St. Robert School! We hope that Christmas is a time of great blessing for you.

Preparing for Christmas was certainly a blessing for us. The teachers integrated the message of Christmas into writing activities, art projects, and other work throughout the day. Our wonderful Home and School Association outdid itself with our Tree Lighting and “Little Elf Shop” Christmas shopping opportunity for the students. Our student musicians gave an awesome Christmas concert. But, the most wonderful part of our preparation was beginning the Christmas holiday with our annual Christmas Pageant Thursday evening in church. Just in case we were distracted by the fun and the shopping and the lights and the action, it circled us back to the reason why we celebrate this holy day as the students participated in the telling of Jesus’ birth through story and song. Beautiful.

As the school community takes a well-deserved break to spend time at home with our families, we look forward to the New Year. And the new school year in 2025-26! If your child is not yet part of our school community, please know that you are welcome. We will be hosting an Open House this winter or you can call 215-343-5100 to schedule a tour. Applications are currently being accepted for new students in Pre-Kindergarten, Kindergarten, and grades first through seventh. Our eighth grade is already filled. You can apply online by going to our website at stjstr.org. Please do that as quickly as possible to assure a spot for the fall! God bless you this Christmas! Mrs. Durkin

Visit with Our Lady of Guadalupe

“The Pilgrim Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe” is brought to your home by a parishioner on Sunday. Our Lady wants to come and visit with you in a personal way for a whole week. Welcome her with love and gratitude. Gather each day to pray, speak to her about your concerns. Empty your heart out to her then in silence let her fill it with her maternal love, guidance and graces she obtains for you. Let her renew you in the spirit of her Son, Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior. Then on the following Sunday the picture of “Our Lady of Guadalupe” will be picked up and continue on to her next family visit. To schedule a visit call Kathie Zajkowski @ 484-925-8080.
