From the Desk of Fr. Pawelko

My Dear Parishioners,

As of writing this letter, Pope Francis is still alive but in critical condition. By the time this is published, things may have changed. Pope Francis may well be on the way to recovery, or Pope Francis may be journeying home to the Lord. Either way, our prayer for the Pope is important.

Prayer is part of God's plan for our salvation and the salvation of others. Prayer makes us into instruments of God. Prayer opens our hearts to God and His Providence. Prayer also aids those for whom we are praying to open their hearts ever wider to God and His Providence. Prayer helps us, and those for whom we are praying, remain in God's Good Graces and the Company of the Saints.

Monday is the 25th Anniversary of the Canonization of one of our own Saints, St. Katherine Drexel. You may know someone who knew her. If not, maybe your life has been touched by one of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament. I know mine has.

Her biography is inspiring:

The Drexel household was a happy one, in a large but simple home at 1503 Walnut Street, Philadelphia. Francis Anthony Drexel was hard-working and a successful banking partner with his brother, Anthony. Emma M. Bouvier Drexel, his wife, proved to be very loving, faith-filled and a caring parent to their three daughters, Elizabeth, Katharine (Katie) and Louise. It was here that these young women realized that their lavish wealth was to be shared, not only with neighbors in need, but also with Missionaries throughout the world who were serving the poor and destitute.

When they moved to the Torresdale section of Philadelphia they befriended Fr. James O'Connor, pastor of the Church of Saint Dominic. Soon he was ordained a bishop and sent to Nebraska. His pastoral work to the Native Americans made it necessary for him to seek financial help from the Drexel family. Kate, now known as Katharine, who was following the plight of the native groups, saw the injustices they were suffering at the hands of the federal government. She noted as well, the severe racial injustices and torture of black people in the South, for whom she grieved. Clearly, priests were needed for both races to offer pastoral care and spiritual conversion to Christianity. On one of her final trips abroad, she begged and was granted an audience with Pope Leo XIII to make a request for missionary priests. The Holy Father, asked her to personally become a missionary which sealed her own desire to enter Religious Life. On her return to America, at the suggestion of Bishop O'Connor, she went to the Novitiate of the Sisters of Mercy in Pittsburgh, PA in May, 1889, at age twenty-nine.

She entered for the purpose of founding a new congregation which would serve the Native and African American people, tending especially to their conversion to the Catholic faith. Her deep love for the Blessed Sacrament was at the heart of her mission. She would not only take the three vows of Chastity, Poverty and Obedience, but a 4th vow of Service to the "Indian and Black Races". (Continued on page 4)

While in the Novitiate, Katharine gave focused attention to her personal religious development and even excelled, but often reflected on her past visits to the Native Americans, and to Sioux Chief Red Cloud. Her novice director, Mother Mary Inez, RSM guided her toward her goal and also helped in the formation of 10 novices and 3 postulants who would travel with her to their own Novitiate in Cornwells Heights, PA. When Mother Katharine professed her vows, February 12, 1891, in the presence of Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia, the Foundation of the Congregation of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament became a reality.

As a consecrated religious, Mother Katharine Drexel, SBS wasted no time in moving onward to the West and South establishing missions. By 1940, more than 30 Foundations were made in seventeen states, where 400 of her sisters were serving. These great accomplishments happened in spite of the challenges of the Great Depression, vicious activities of the KKK and the challenges of World War II. These hardships, compounded with the fierce winters, long, arduous journeys which Katharine continued to make, all contributed to her declining health. Her final years came after several heart attacks which then confined her to the Motherhouse, which she called "her little Nazareth". She lived there from her 84th year until her last breath. She died peacefully at age 96 on March 3, 1955.

"All is vanity except knowing, loving and serving God. This alone can bring peace to my soul."

Mother Katharine lived these very words, the heart of her spirituality. The Church recognized her holiness, which was confirmed by two miracles or cures to persons not able to hear, attributed to God through her intercession. She was beatified November 20, 1988 then canonized a saint on October 1, 2000. In 2020, her remains were transferred to her new shrine at the Cathedral Basilica of Ss Peter and Paul (Biography by Sister Eleanor McCann, RSM of the Cathedral Basilica of Ss Peter and Paul).

After celebrating her Feast Day, we will be going right into Fat Tuesday and then Ash Wednesday. Then Friday, March 7, we will have Stations of the Cross. I am looking forward to my first Lent with you. Just a reminder, we have Confessions Saturday mornings from about 8:30-9:00 and again Saturday afternoons from 3:30-4:30.

Through the Intercession of St. Joseph and St. Katherine Drexel, may our Lenten Journey bring us ever closer to Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

St. Joseph, our Patron, pray for us!

St. Katharine Drexel, pray for us!

Fr. Michael J Pawelko

Rare Relics of the Passion

Join us at Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish for an encounter with nine rare Relics of Christ’s Passion on Sunday, March 16 at 6:00 pm. Having the opportunity to be in the presence of these holy relics is sure to be an experience that will help you connect with the very roots of your faith. Take advantage of what is likely to be a once in a lifetime opportunity to engage in a meditative walk to Calvary and venerate these rare and holy relics.

This powerful program is a 90-minute meditational experience supported with Eucharistic Exposition, music and prayer, culminating in relic veneration. A collection such as this is generally seen only in Rome or the Holy Land.

This presentation is being brought to us as part of a collaborative initiative between the Knights of Columbus and the Apostolate for Holy Relics.

NOTE: Confessions will be available from 5:30 pm -7:00pm.

Gaudeamus’ First Concert of 2025

Gaudeamus Music Ministry will present their first concert of the new season on April 6th at Epiphany of Our Lord Church in Plymouth Meeting. Featuring an all-new musical program designed to uplift and inspire, the performance will include classical music and a performance of the Faure Requiem, accompanied by the Valley Forge Chorale and a professional orchestra. Faure’s Requiem composition is a significant departure from traditional requiem arrangements focused on death, solemnity and mourning. Instead, the piece is focused on the hope of eternal life and is meant to evoke sounds of “angels in heaven”. It is our hope that this music during the Lenten season will help to prepare our hearts for the coming joy of Easter.

This concert will mark the beginning of Gaudeamus 2025-2026 brand new concert series “You Raise Me Up”, which will feature inspirational music to soothe the soul, heal the heart, and lift the spirit. The “You Raise Me Up” concert series is dedicated to raising money for our brothers and sisters in the most impoverished areas of our world, both close to home and in far off locations. The concert is free and open to the public. For more information on Gaudeamus, please visit their website at www.gaudeamusmusic.org

ST. JOSEPH/ST. ROBERT SCHOOL
 FOCUSED ON FAITH AND LEARNING

Mrs. Jennifer Durkin, Principal
 850 Euclid Avenue, Warrington, PA 18976
 215-343-5100 www.stjstr.org

We are so thankful to our amazing HSA volunteers who made last weekend one of the best ever! The Sweetheart Dance on Saturday evening brought together girls and their dads or other special guests for a memorable night, followed by a fun-filled Mother-Son Bowling event on Sunday. These special traditions do so much to build the spirit of our community. SJR is blessed with dedicated faculty, students, and families who give their time and energy to build this vibrant school community. Members of the wider community can make a lasting impact as well through the Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) program. Did you know that you can redirect your Pennsylvania state tax dollars to provide scholarships for students at St. Joseph/St. Robert School? Through EITC, taxpayers can allocate their PA tax liability to support Catholic education while receiving a tax credit of up to 90%.

Individuals, business owners, and members of partnerships who pay Pennsylvania income taxes are eligible to participate. Scholarships funded through EITC are awarded to students based on financial need and state guidelines, ensuring that assistance reaches families who qualify. The funds go directly to our school and are applied to student tuition, making a direct impact on our community.

To learn more about how you can turn your Pennsylvania tax liability into tuition assistance for SJR students, contact us at EITCScholarships@stjstr.org. A member of our team will be happy to assist you.

Thank you for supporting Catholic education at SJR!

God bless you and have a wonderful week!

Visit with Our Lady of Guadalupe

“The Pilgrim Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe” is brought to your home by a parishioner on Sunday. Our Lady wants to come and visit with you in a personal way for a whole week. Welcome her with love and gratitude. Gather each day to pray, speak to her about your concerns. Empty your heart out to her then in silence let her fill it with her maternal love, guidance and graces she obtains for you. Let her renew you in the spirit of her Son, Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior. Then on the following Sunday the picture of “Our Lady of Guadalupe” will be picked up and continue on to her next family visit. To schedule a visit call Kathie Zajkowski @ 484-925-8080.
