From the Desk of Fr. Pawelko

My Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we have a lot to celebrate. As every weekend, we will celebrate God's goodness and love for us and the many gifts that He bestows on us. We will be celebrating our mothers with a special blessing at all Masses. We will be celebrating our Blessed Mother Mary with a May Crowning and Consecration to Mary at our 11:30AM Mass. We may also be celebrating a new pope (at writing this earlier in the week, the Conclave hadn't started yet).

This weekend we celebrate our mothers. Our mothers went through a lot to carry us to term. Our mothers sacrificed a lot to raise us. Our mothers shed many tears for us. Our mothers wore out many Rosaries praying for us. Our mothers went out of their way to make us happy. Our mothers taught us right from wrong, good from evil. They corrected us when we needed correcting and showed us patience when we needed someone to show us patience. They helped us with our homework and our school projects. They cooked our meals and washed our clothes. They got us to our practices and to our games. They cleaned our cuts and bruises and healed them with a kiss. Most importantly, our mothers got us to church so that we could know Jesus and receive Him in the Sacraments. Our mothers went without a lot so that we could have everything we will ever need to be successful in this life and the life to come. None of our mothers are perfect yet they did try, and for that, we owe them our love, gratitude, prayers, and thankfulness.

This weekend, however, we will remember a perfect mother, and as we celebrate our mother by Order of Grace, Our Blessed Mother Mary. At the Annunciation, our Blessed Mother Mary accepted the offer to become the Mother of God. At the Visitation, she revealed that all generations would call her blessed (and thus we do). At the Crucifixion, Jesus gave us the only thing He had left when we gave us His own mother "behold, your mother."

During May, we acknowledge Mary as our mother by Order of Grace. We acknowledge her as blessed. We acknowledge her as Queen of Heaven and Earth, as she appears in the Book of Revelation. We also acknowledge her as a special gift from God who always leads us to her Son, Jesus as she instructs us "do whatever He tells you."

I did move our May Crowning from a Monday evening to a Sunday Mass. I did so, so that the largest number of parishioners can participate in the May Crowning as possible.

At our 11:30 Mass, we will Crown Mary after our Prayer of the Faithful. We will have a beautiful hymn to the Blessed Mother as the Crown is processed forward and she is crowned. Then, together, we will kneel and consecrate ourselves to the Blessed Mother.

If you cannot be with us at the 11:30 Mass, please still join us in the consecration to Mary this weekend:

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The reception of Holy Communion at Sunday Mass is such an expected feature of the Mass these days that it is surprising to realize that for many centuries, receiving Communion was a relatively rare event in the life of a faithful Christian. "Easter duty" means that Catholics must celebrate reconciliation if aware of serious sin, and receive Holy Communion during the Easter season. For a while, this was a requirement of Easter week, and later extended to the whole season of fifty days, and even beyond that by a few weeks. For the majority of people long ago, this meant Communion was a once-a-year moment. A rather complex bureaucracy grew up around this rule in the Middle Ages. Amazingly, people received a kind of token at confession admitting them to Communion in their home parish, which then kept careful records and reported them to the bishop.

Surviving records can tell us a great deal about our ancestors. In fact, people were encouraged to journey to the church of their baptism in order to fulfill their duty, and therefore the Easter duty includes in its origins a grateful pilgrimage to the font in which you were first embraced by Christ. If your "Holy Mother Church" is within a drive, why not make a pilgrimage to that font be a feature of your Easter celebration of these fifty days? —James Field

STREAM stands for Science, Technology, Religion, Engineering, Art, and Math. The STREAM Expo is an annual event sponsored by the Archdiocese of Philadelphia that highlights the innovative, hands-on, interdisciplinary learning taking place in our Catholic schools. Held last week, the expo featured impressive projects from students of all grade levels—from preschool through high school—across the Archdiocese. It was a joy to witness the creativity, collaboration, and enthusiasm on display from both students and teachers.

This year, SJR proudly participated with several exciting projects. Our sixth through eighth grade students presented science projects related to the theme of flight. Their work explored topics such as wind and aerodynamics, kites, egg drop designs, and flying insects that pollinate flowers and crops. One of our Pre-K classes also contributed with a delightful engineering project inspired by The Three Little Pigs, building and testing houses made from various materials to evaluate their strength and stability. And our 6th -8th graders also had their calendar and menu projects created in World Language class displayed.

Bravo to all of our student participants, and thank you to everyone who came out to support this year's expo!

If your child is not currently enrolled at SJR but you might be interested in the possibility for next year, we are hosting an open house on Tuesday, May 20th. Please call 215-343-5100 to register.

God bless you, and have a great week! Mrs. Durkin
