See You At The Event!

From the Desk of Fr. Pawelko

My Dear Parishioners,

Only Jesus could turn a symbol of complete defeat into a symbol of overwhelming victory. Jesus turned what should have been a dead end into a new beginning. Only Jesus could do this!

This is why we celebrate this Feast of the Exultation of the Holy Cross. What should have been a locked door has become a key that has unlocked Heaven. What should have been an end to life has become a stairway to Eternal Life.

So we carry our crosses as we would carry our keys in our pockets. We carry our crosses more readily than we ascent any stairs.

In this life, we will never fully understand what Jesus did for us when he mounted His Holy Cross. We will never fully understand the depths of His love for us in this life. However, we will understand in the next life.

Here is an excerpt of an ancient Holy Saturday homily on the Holy Cross. It is a call to Adam and an explanation of reflection of what Jesus accomplished on His Holy Cross for all of us:

"What is happening? Today [Holy Saturday] there is a great silence over the earth, a great silence, and stillness, a great silence because the King sleeps; the earth was in terror and was still, because God slept in the flesh and raised up those who were sleeping from the ages. God has died in the flesh, and the underworld has trembled.

Truly he goes to seek out our first parent like a lost sheep; he wishes to visit those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death. He goes to free the prisoner Adam and his fellow-prisoner Eve from their pains, he who is God, and Adam's son.

The Lord goes in to them holding his victorious weapon, his cross. When Adam, the first created man, sees him, he strikes his breast in terror and calls out to all: 'My Lord be with you all.' And Christ in reply says to Adam: 'And with your spirit. And grasping his hand he raises him up, saying: 'Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you light.

'I am your God, who for your sake became your son, who for you and your descendants now speak and command with authority those in prison: Come forth, and those in darkness: Have light, and those who sleep: Rise.

'I command you: Awake, sleeper, I have not made you to be held a prisoner in the underworld. Arise from the dead; I am the life of the dead. Arise, O man, work of my hands, arise, you who were fashioned in my image. Rise, let us go hence; for you in me and I in you, together we are one undivided person.

'For you, I your God became your son; for you, I the Master took on your form; that of slave; for you, I who am above the heavens came on earth and under the earth; for you, man, I became as a man without help, free among the dead;

for you, who left a garden, I was handed over to Jews from a garden and crucified in a garden.

'Look at the spittle on my face, which I received because of you, in order to restore you to that first divine inbreathing at creation. See the blows on my cheeks, which I accepted in order to refashion your distorted form to my own image.

From the Desk of Fr. Pawelko (continued)

'See the scourging of my back, which I accepted in order to disperse the load of your sins which was laid upon your back. See my hands nailed to the tree for a good purpose, for you, who stretched out your hand to the tree for an evil one.

'I slept on the cross and a sword pierced my side, for you, who slept in paradise and brought forth Eve from your side. My side healed the pain of your side; my sleep will release you from your sleep in Hades; my sword has checked the sword which was turned against you.

'But arise, let us go hence. The enemy brought you out of the land of paradise; I will reinstate you, no longer in paradise, but on the throne of heaven. I denied you the tree of life, which was a figure, but now I myself am united to you, I who am life. I posted the cherubim to guard you as they would slaves; now I make the cherubim worship you as they would God.

"The cherubim throne has been prepared, the bearers are ready and waiting, the bridal chamber is in order, the food is provided, the everlasting houses and rooms are in readiness; the treasures of good things have been opened; the kingdom of heaven has been prepared before the ages."

Jesus asks us to embrace His Cross. He does not ask us to suffer as He did—no-- only He and He alone had that power. No. He asks us to embrace His Holy Cross so that we will have the key to Heaven with us always. He asks us to embrace His Holy Cross so that we will always be on the stairway to Heaven. He asks us to embrace His Holy Cross so that we too may be worshiped by the cherubim. Jesus asks us to embrace His Holy Cross so that we can be with Him forever.

How good is Jesus? We will never know in this life, but we will know in the life to come. Praised be Jesus Christ, now and forever!

St. Joseph, Patron of the Church, and our Patron, pray for us!

Fr Michael J Pawelko, Pastor.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

On this date in 335 two churches and a shrine erected by Constantine over the empty grave of Jesus and over the place of the crucifixion were dedicated. After these were destroyed by the Persians in 614, the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, which still stands, was erected by the Crusaders in 1149. Today also commemorates the event that led to the building of the churches dedicated in 335: the discovery of the “true cross” by St. Helena, Constantine’s mother, in 326.

According to one legend, St. Helena traveled to Jerusalem on pilgrimage, in search of the true cross. Workers she hired dug through a pagan temple that had been erected on the site of the Crucifixion by Hadrian and found three crosses. A dying woman was brought in, and touched by each cross in succession, the last of which healed her. Helena ordered that this cross be divided in three parts, one to be kept in Jerusalem and the other two to be sent to Constantinople and Rome. The pieces in Jerusalem and Constantinople were ultimately lost. Slivers were taken from the portion that went to Rome until eventually it was scattered around the world.

Of course, the significance of the true cross lies not in the wood itself but in the burden that it bore. As a faithful Christian, what crosses do you accept in your life today?

The Habit of Padre Pio:

Never Before Seen in the United States

National Centre for Padre Pio, 111 Barto Road - Barto, PA

www.padrepio.org 610-845-3000

You are invited to join us on this momentous occasion to view and venerate an extraordinary relic – a full size, authentic habit worn by Saint Pio himself. This historic event provides a potentially once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for devotees of Saint Pio who may never travel to San Giovanni Rotondo to experience a profound connection with him and to draw closer to the very heart of Padre Pio’s sanctity – to his mission of prayer, sacrifice, and love for all people. The habit is far more than a simple garment; it is a sacred symbol of his vocation, his humility, and his total dedication to Christ. In addition, the National Centre for Padre Pio has been designated as a Jubilee site within the Diocese of Allentown. There is no better time to journey as a “Pilgrim of Hope” to Barto, PA! Italian food and cold beverages available for purchase every day of the event.

What a joyful start to the school year! It was exciting to welcome our students and faculty back to campus, and a true pleasure to greet the new families joining our school community alongside our returning families. There's nothing quite like the energy of a new school year—especially one as momentous as our 100th!

We were especially blessed to begin this centennial year in the most meaningful way last Sunday: gathered in prayer at Mass at St. Joseph's, the very place where our school was founded in 1925. We're grateful to both of our pastors, Father Pawelko and Monsignor Beisel, for the beautiful liturgy. We were also honored by the presence of Dr. Michael Diorka from the Warrington Township Board of Supervisors, who presented a special proclamation to commemorate this historic milestone.

Following Mass, the reception in the parish hall was delightful. It was wonderful to catch up with alumni—both students and faculty—from years past, and equally heartwarming to see so many of our current families and staff together. The room buzzed with conversation, laughter, and a deep sense of community.

If you weren't able to attend, don't worry—there are more opportunities ahead! Mark your calendars for Friday, November 29, when we'll host a Beef & Beer event to bring alumni, faculty, staff, and school families together once again. More details to come—we hope to see you there!
