My Dear Parishioners,

I can't believe that this coming Thursday is Thanksgiving. It just seems like we observed Labor Day. Time flies!!!!

Hopefully you can join us for our Thanksgiving Day Mass at 9:00AM. After Mass, we will offer the blessing of any food or beverage that you wish blessed for your Thanksgiving table.

One of my favorite Thanksgivings was when I was about ten years old. Our family was hosting Thanksgiving for both sides of the family. At that time, my family lived on Zeigler Road in Marlborough Township, Montgomery County. We were blessed with an acre of ground and a finished basement. We kids had plenty of room to run around and play while the adults stayed in and watched football, played cards, and laughed and told jokes.

What makes that Thanksgiving really memorable for me is that Mom forgot to turn on the oven. Everyone was so busy enjoying themselves that nobody realized that the turkey wasn't cooking. It was only discovered when it was getting closer to the time for us to sit down and eat. Thankfully, everyone who came brought something, and so we still had a really nice Thanksgiving meal, minus the turkey. We also had a lot of laughs that day about the turkey, and it has become part of our family's history and something that we still laugh about each year.

As I reminisce about that day, I cannot help to think that many of the people who were there on that Thanksgiving Day are no longer with us, including my own parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles, and even some cousins. Thankfully, this weekend we remember that we have a King that we can commend ourselves and our loved ones too with great trust and confidence. We can do so because He is a King whose nature is love. (1John: 4:8)

Our celebration of Christ the King is a celebration of true love. Our King came into this world so that He can be with us and that we can be with Him and have a loving relationship with Him. He chose for Himself the Wood of the Cross for His throne instead of a throne of gold. It was on that throne of the Holy Cross that He won for us our Salvation through the forgiveness of our sins. Now that is true love!!!!!!

We also remember that He is a King who is always with us so that we can be with Him, and He is always with us through our celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

Our Lord and King comes to us at each and every Mass and is really and truly present, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. He is truly there in the Holy Eucharist that we adore and in the Holy Communion that we receive. It is a reminder that through our reception of Holy Communion that He remains in us and we remain in Him. Love is the reason we have the Holy Eucharist, and the Communion that we enter is a Communion of true love.

This loving Communion cannot be taken away. Even physical death cannot take away the loving Communion we have with Jesus and then through Jesus with our friends and loved ones. What a consoling thought! Jesus is so good to us!

Many families have the Thanksgiving Tradition of going around the table and asking everyone to mention something for which each is especially thankful. Hopefully this prayer can then help us gather these personal thanksgivings into one and bless the meal:

Dear God, we thank you for your goodness and your incredible generosity and the gifts that you bestow upon us. We thank You for the gift of this meal and for the gift of the hands that helped prepare it. We give You thanks most of all for the gift of Your Son, Jesus. Please bless the food we eat, all who are gathered today to share it, our conversation, our reminiscing, and all our loved ones who can't be with us today. We ask this as we ask all things, through Christ, our Lord. Amen. (Hallow.com).

On behalf of Deacon Frank and our faithful staff, I do wish you and your families a very Happy Thanksgiving.

St. Joseph, Patron of the Church, and our Patron, pray for us!
Fr. Michael J Pawelko, Pastor

November 05, 1963

*By the President of the United States of AmericaA Proclamation

Over three centuries ago, our forefathers in Virginia and in Massachusetts, far from home in a lonely wilderness, set aside a time of thanksgiving. On the appointed day, they gave reverent thanks for their safety, for the health of their children, for the fertility of their fields, for the love which bound them together and for the faith which united them with their God.

So too when the colonies achieved their independence, our first President in the first year of his first Administration proclaimed November 26, 1789, as "a day of public thanksgiving and prayer to be observed by acknowledging with grateful hearts the many signal favors of Almighty God" and called upon the people of the new republic to "beseech Him to pardon our national and other transgressions... to promote the knowledge and practice of true religion and virtue . . . and generally to grant unto all mankind such a degree of temporal prosperity as He alone knows to be best."

And so too, in the midst of America's tragic civil war, President Lincoln proclaimed the last Thursday of November 1863 as a day to renew our gratitude for America's "fruitful fields," for our "national strength and vigor," and for all our "singular deliverances and blessings." Much time has passed since the first colonists came to rocky shores and dark forests of an unknown continent, much time since President Washington led a young people into the experience of nationhood, much time since President Lincoln saw the American nation through the ordeal of fraternal war--and in these years our population, our plenty and our power have all grown apace. Today we are a nation of nearly two hundred million souls, stretching from coast to coast, on into the Pacific and north toward the Arctic, a nation enjoying the fruits of an ever-expanding agriculture and industry and achieving standards of living unknown in previous history. We give our humble thanks for this.

Yet, as our power has grown, so has our peril. Today we give our thanks, most of all, for the ideals of honor and faith we inherit from our forefathers--for the decency of purpose, steadfastness of resolve and strength of will, for the courage and the humility, which they possessed and which we must seek every day to emulate. As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words but to live by them.

Let us therefore proclaim our gratitude to Providence for manifold blessings--let us be humbly thankful for inherited ideals--and let us resolve to share those blessings and those ideals with our fellow human beings throughout the world.

From the Desk of Fr. Pawelko (continued)

Now, Therefore, I, John F. Kennedy, President of the United States of America, in consonance with the joint resolution of the Congress approved December 26, 1941, 55 Stat. 862 (5 U.S.C. 87b), designating the fourth Thursday of November in each year as Thanksgiving Day, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 28, 1963, as a day of national thanksgiving.

On that day let us gather in sanctuaries dedicated to worship and in homes blessed by family affection to express our gratitude for the glorious gifts of God; and let us earnestly and humbly pray that He will continue to guide and sustain us in the great unfinished tasks of achieving peace, justice, and understanding among all men and nations and of ending misery and suffering wherever they exist.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-eighth.

From The Health and Help Ministry

Tis the season for Holiday Celebrations and Respiratory Illnesses. The most effective way to prevent the transmission of respiratory illnesses is by practicing Respiratory/Cough etiquette.

- 1. Hand hygiene is the simplest, most straight forward way to prevent spreading infection.
- 2. Cover your cough and sneeze: Use a tissue. If you don't have a tissue, cough or sneeze in your sleeve or elbow.
- 3. Mask: don a mask if you are experiencing respiratory symptoms or have a known exposure to someone with a respiratory illness.

This not only protects others from you but also protects you from others. ref: Doylestown Health/Penn Medicine

St. Andrew Christmas Novena for the 83%

On January 5, 2025, Archbishop Nelson Pérez launched his initiative Trust and Hope as a response to the stark reality that 83% of Catholics are disconnected from the life of the Church. This Advent, all are invited to pray the St. Andrew

Christmas Novena (November 30-December 24) for the intention of the reconciliation of inactive Catholics with the Church, their home. We will especially remember our family, friends, neighbors and co-workers who are part of the 83%. To participate, visit phillyevang.org/novena.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Today’s solemnity, the final feast of the Church year, is a youngster as feasts go. In 1925, Pope Pius XI was distressed by global political upheaval and the de-Christianizing of society. That year was a “Holy Year,” keyed to the sixteen hundredth anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, when the words “and of his kingdom there will be no end” were added to the Creed. The Pope explained that although most feasts had developed over many centuries, the Church sometimes provided a new feast to address new needs. He pointed to the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, showing Christ’s love and compassion in a time when many people embraced a cold and gloomy spirituality. Originally on the last Sunday of October, in the late 1960s the solemnity of Christ the King was moved to the last Sunday of the year.

Fresh from baptism’s waters, we are anointed with chrism “as Christ was anointed priest, prophet, and king.” This feast is a key to our identity. On this feast, we recognize Christ as a king who breaks the usual mold of kingship, and who shapes his kingdom with our hands, our words, our deeds of love and service.

Reminder: If public schools are closed due to inclement weather, CCD will also be cancelled. If you have provided us with your Email address, we will notify you via email.

Mr. John and Mrs. Josephine Connelly were two faith-filled individuals whose generosity touched countless lives. Mr. Connelly founded Connelly Containers in 1945 and later took the helm of Crown Cork and Seal Company, moving it to Philadelphia. They used their blessings to bless others—and their legacy continues through The Connelly Foundation, a longtime supporter of Catholic students and education. The Neumann Scholars Program, established by The Connelly Foundation in 1995, honors Saint John Neumann, the nineteenth-century bishop who founded Philadelphia’s parochial school system. The program recognizes academically exceptional eighth-grade students with four-year scholarships to attend one of fifteen Archdiocesan high schools, along with college and career guidance and summer enrichment opportunities.

This year, we are proud to have five SJR students considered for this prestigious scholarship: Brynn B., Adrian L., Vincent M., Hannah P., and Ellie S. We are especially thrilled to share that Vincent and Adrian are among the fifty students awarded Neumann Scholarships for 2026! Congratulations to them and their families, and best wishes to all our eighth graders as they finish their time at SJR and prepare for the exciting journey ahead in high school.

A reminder that you can visit our “I Give Catholic” site – or direct others to it - at our homepage at www.stjstr.org. We are so grateful for you this Thanksgiving! God bless you. Mrs. Durkin
