From the Desk of Father Pawelko

My Dear Parishioners,

Our Blessed Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, gave the Great Commission to the Apostles and their successors to “Go forth and make disciples of all nations, Baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.” Jesus further added: Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved; whoever does not believe will be condemned (Mark 16: 16).

Thus, from the earliest days of the Church, we have acknowledged that the ordinary way to come into relationship with Jesus Christ is through Baptism: Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and they asked Peter and the other apostles, “What are we to do, my brothers?” Peter [said] to them, “Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is made to you and to your children and to all those far off, whomever the Lord our God will call.” (Acts 2: 37-39).*

Yet, this week, we hear St. Paul write that he was not sent to Baptize. This could lead one to think that St. Paul was contradicting Jesus and rejecting the importance of Baptism. Of course, St. Paul would never contradict Jesus nor reject the importance of Baptism.

As always, context is imperative!!! It is context that helps us to understand the fuller meaning of the texts and to avoid coming to the wrong conclusions.

Our Lectionary this week omits important passages that record the fact that St. Paul was actually administering the Sacrament of Baptism in Corinth: I mean that each of you is saying, “I belong to Paul,” or “I belong to Apollos,” or “I belong to Cephas,” or “I belong to Christ.” Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I give thanks [to God] that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one can say you were baptized in my name. (I baptized the household of Stephanas also; beyond that I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.) (I Cor 1: 12-16)*

Moreover, in his letter to the Romans, St. Paul gives us the definitive teaching of the importance of Baptism: What then shall we say? Shall we persist in sin that grace may abound? Of course not! How can we who died to sin yet live in it? Or are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life. For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his, we shall also be united with him in the resurrection. (Romans 6: 1-5).

So, we properly conclude that St. Paul is not preaching against the importance of Baptism but is preaching against divisions in the Church. His point is that it doesn’t matter who Baptized us, but that we now belong to Christ and His Church through Baptism. Thus, he writes later in the same letter: As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit (I Cor 12: 12-13). St. Paul also repeats this call for unity in his letter to the Galatians: For through faith you are all children of God in Christ Jesus. For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free person, there is not male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus (Gal: 3: 26-28).

I once remember meeting Bishop John Barres. At that time, he was the Bishop of Allentown. Bishop Barres had been Baptized by the Venerable Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen. This is impressive in deed. Yet, that Bishop’s Baptism by Archbishop Sheen is no more powerful than any of our own Baptisms. Whether we are Baptized by a “celebrity” in the Church (and hopefully soon a canonized saint), or by a nobody priest who nobody remembers, we are all Baptized into the one Body of Christ. For that, we are most thankful. Praised be Jesus Christ, now and forever!

This past week we remembered in a special way those who have lost their lives to abortion and those who are still mourning the decision to abort a child. While Roe v Wade is no longer law, the fight is not over. Sadly, states such our own have chosen to continue to permit abortions. The fight will only be won when we have a truly Pro-Life society and when the Gospel of Life is embraced by all.

We must not just pray and work for the end of abortion. We must pray and work for the conversion of all hearts to Jesus and the Gospel of Life. To help us pray for the conversion of all, I have included a Litany of Pro-Life Saints compiled by Genevieve Perkins to guide us in praying for the conversion of hearts to Life. That is when the fight will be won.

St. Joseph, Patron of the Church and our Patron, pray for us!

Fr. Michael J Pawelko, Pastor

Christmas 2025

"The Little Child of Bethlehem will feel so warm in the crib of our hearts if we cover Him with our love and fidelity... and so satiate His burning thirst for our tender love and affection."

(St. Teresa of Calcutta)

Dear Friends in Christ, St. Joseph's Church,

Thank you for your generous gift of love for Baby Jesus in the distressing disguise of the poorest of the poor. We know that God is so pleased when we share our love with the poor for He said, "Whatever you do to the least of My brothers, you do it to Me" (Mt 25:40)

Our gratitude is our sincere prayer for you and for all of your needs and intentions. We pray also for your loved ones. We entrust you and your loved ones to the Mother of God who is our Mother also. In every apparition, Guadalupe, Lourdes, Fatima etc., she shows herself to love each one of us with the love of a tender Mother. She will never abandon you. She will always keep you safe in the Heart of Jesus Her Son. May you experience her tender love in a tangible way and through Her, the infinite love of Jesus and His constant presence in your life.

May God reward you and bless you abundantly in the New Year 2026.

Thank you for all the Gift Cards!

Sincerely in Jesus,
 Sr. Muriel Marie, MC Superior

A Litany of Pro-Life Saints

By Genevieve Perkins from
Catholic Link (catholic-link.org)

Now is a great time to remember that life is precious from conception until natural death and reflect on what we can do to protect each other. Let's ask for the intercession of these pro-life saints who undoubtedly lived with love for others, respecting their human dignity despite circumstances. The prayers of these saints and faithful Catholics across the world overturned Roe v. Wade, the 1973 decision that legalized abortion in the United States, but it is imperative that we continue to pray for an end to all abortion throughout the world.

St. Gianna Molla, who as a mother and doctor sacrificed her own life for that of her child and who is the patroness of unborn children, mothers, and physicians, pray for us and the vulnerable, especially those who are pregnant with health complications. St. Gianna Molla, pray for an end to abortion!

St. Gerard Majella, who is sought after for miracles such as the ones from his lifetime and the young girl whose life and the life of her baby were saved through his handkerchief after his death and who is the patron of expectant mothers and saint, pray for us and the vulnerable, especially those in extreme pain and in need of miracles to live. St. Gerard Majella, pray for an end to abortion!

St. Anne, who is the mother of Mary and Jesus' grandmother and who is patroness of pregnant mothers, pray for us and the most vulnerable, especially those grandparents who are raising grandchildren or children who are caregivers to parents. St. Anne, pray for an end to abortion!

St. Margaret of Antioch, who upon refusing advances of a pagan man was charged with being a Christian and imprisoned, where legends say the devil swallowed her and spit her out due to the cross she held and the following day her survival of several unsuccessful execution attempts—the final attempt of beheading martyring her—converted thousands of soon-martyred onlookers, who spoke to St. Joan of Arc, and who is the patroness of pregnant women and childbirth, pray for us and the most vulnerable, especially those in need of legendary help. St. Margaret, pray for an increase in respect for the dignity of life!

St. Brigid of Ireland, who was pure and generous since her childhood in a pagan society and who is said to be a close friend of St. Patrick as she helped spread Christianity and serve God through the Church, and who is patroness of midwives, pray for us and the most vulnerable, especially those in need of friendship and working in a society that doesn't understand them. St. Brigid, pray for an increase in respect for the dignity of life!

St. Philomena, who was martyred at the age of thirteen as a perpetual virgin having opposed Emperor Diocletian's marriage offer and miraculously survived the consequential torture, drowning, and arrows until she was decapitated and who is patroness of children, pray for us and the vulnerable, especially the innocents in impossible circumstances. St. Philomena, pray for an increase in respect for the dignity of life!

St. Maximilian Kolbe, who was sent to a concentration camp for hiding Jews from Nazis and voluntarily took the place of a father and died in a gas chamber and who is patron of the unborn, pray for us and the most vulnerable, especially those discriminated against because of prejudice or politics. St. Maximilian Kolbe, pray that we may be a people of life!

St. Joseph, who was chosen by the Father to be the foster father of His Son and the most chaste spouse of His Holy Mother Mary and so dutifully and virtuously fulfilled his role in serving God and who is patron of fathers, pray for us and the most vulnerable, especially the fathers and those without father-figures. St. Joseph, pray that we may be a people of life!

St. Elizabeth, who is Mother Mary's cousin and called righteous and blameless (Gospel of Luke), and gave birth to John the Baptist despite being deemed infertile and who is the patroness of pregnant women, pray for us and the most vulnerable, especially those struggling with health or family issues and in need of a miracle. St. Elizabeth, pray that we may be a people of life!

St. Faustina, who is known for her diary recording what Jesus told her about Divine Mercy, whose later beautification process was started by St. Pope John Paul II, and who is patroness for women in distress and crisis pregnancy centers, especially those in need of mercy. St. Faustina, pray that we may be a people of life!

Blessed Miguel Pro, who secretly ministered to Mexican Catholics under persecution with the skill of an undercover spy and later was martyred by firing squad while shouting, "Vivi Cristo Rey" and who is patron of the pro-life movement, pray for us and the most vulnerable, especially those persecuted and forced into hiding. Bl. Miguel Pro, pray for an increase in seeing the value of life!

Saint Pope John Paul II, who is well-known for his works on the theology of the body, for his life before and during his papacy, and promotion of respect for human dignity despite gender or situation and who is the patron of World Youth Day, pray for us and the most vulnerable, especially those who don't know their worth. St. John Paul II, pray for an increase in seeing the value of life!

Our Lady of Guadalupe, who is patroness of the unborn and to whom the month of May is devoted, pray for us and intercede for us that we may have the courage like you did to accept God's Will and follow the path for which He designed us. Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for an increase in seeing the value of life!
